OCTOBER ~ MONTH OF THE ROSARY

The rosary is closely linked with October. We should all be saying the rosary daily. This has been taught us by Our Lady of Fatima, who repeated that directive to us in each of her six apparitions in 1917.

The most important element in saying the rosary is neither the prayers themselves nor the fingering of the beads. Those are important but not as important as meditating on the mysteries as you say the prayers. It is good to have a mental image of the scene in the life of Our Lady and of her Divine Son. This can be helped by a meditation book.

St. Stanislaus has been blessed by a gift of rosary meditation books, one for each family. Hopefully, you received a copy in the vestibule after Mass two weeks ago. The donor does not wish to be known, but it would be a good intention for your first rosary using your new book.

St. Luke the Evangelist

Today, October 18th, is the feast of St. Luke. He is represented in our church by his symbol as one of the evangelists. On the cross beam over the sanctuary, his symbol is 2nd from the left and is a winged ox. The symbol of an ox, or bull, demonstrates sacrifice, service and strength,

St. Luke wrote the 3rd Gospel and Acts of the Apostles. Combined, these represent over 25% of the new testament, making him the largest new testament author. St. Luke was considered an artist and a number of paintings in Italy and elsewhere are attributed to him. Because of his varied occupations during his lifetime, he is considered patron saint of artists, physicians, bachelors, surgeons, students and butchers.

St. John Cantius

This Tuesday, October 20th, is the feast of St. John Cantius or Kanty. He is represented in our church by a medallion, the 3rd from the front on the Epistle side. St. John lived in Poland and spent most of his life as a professor of scripture in Cracow. He also was a parish priest for 8 years and was very much loved by his parishioners. He died on Christmas Eve, 1473, at the age of 77.

During his lifetime, St. John made one pilgrimage to Jerusalem, wishing to be martyred. He also made four pilgrimages to Rome, always on foot. He is the patron saint of Poland and Lithuania.

CORPORATE COMMUNION

The Holy Name Society, Altar & Rosary and Confraternity of Christian Mothers will have Corporate Communion on Sunday, October 18th at the 10 :00 am High Mass.

All Altar boys are requested to serve at the Mass they attend to insure a full and glorious Mass.
