SAINT MARGARET MARY CATHOLIC CHURCH

SUNDAY, AUGUST 1, 2021
10TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
MASS TEXTS IN PARISH BULLETIN , P. 6-7

Dear faithful,

This Sunday begins the month of August, which has traditionally been consecrated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. I would like to urge each of you to renewed confidence in her maternal goodness and protection over each of us and over the whole Church during these perilous times. Remember: she who did not abandon her Divine Son at the hour of His death will not abandon us either, for she sees His image in each of the baptized.

Yesterday there was a Public Square Rosary Rally to Free Cuba from Communism, organized by the American TFP and America Needs Fatima in San Jose. If you were able to attend, thank you for your witness. Communism, in its hatred of God and the freedoms He has given us, is intrinsically perverse. The poor Cuban nation has been laboring painfully under this tyranny for more than sixty years, in extreme poverty, hunger, imprisonment, execution and violent repression. Let us continue to support their quest for freedom and pray for their deliverance.

More and more Catholics these days are faced with a gnawing question: should I receive the COVID-19 vaccine? Canon Aaron Huberfeld, rector of St. Mary's Oratory in Wausau, Wisconsin, has prepared an informative conference addressing the moral aspects of this question which I highly recommend. If you would like the printed version, please contact me. The audio version is available here:

A member of the Institute's worldwide family has gone to her eternal rest. As some of you know, I was serving at the Institute's apostolate in Limerick, Ireland before being assigned to Oakland. While there, I had the pleasure of knowing many solid Irish faithful, among them the delightful Mrs. Valerie Nestor, who passed away on June 30. Please be sure to pray for the repose of her soul.

Our apostolate is losing a good man, but he's going on to a brighter future. Cody Teague has been helping us with the training of altar servers, organization of events and serving Mass for more than a year now. He will be leaving on September 4 to begin his period of pre-seminary formation for the Institute. He will spend this period of candidacy at our U.S. headquarters in Chicago. Please be sure to say goodbye to him and thank him for all his hard work. Above all, keep him in your prayers!

Coming up this week are the First Thursday, Friday and Saturday of the month. We will have our usual Exposition and devotions on Friday and Saturday after Mass. This Friday being August 6, however, the Mass will be that of the Transfiguration of Our Lord, a second-class feast day.

Please note: this Sunday's second collection is designated for the Institute of Christ the King. Thank you for your continued generosity!

Lastly, I will be out of town from Monday, August 9 – Saturday, August 28. I will first return home to Virginia for two weeks of vacation. Afterwards, I and all the other canons will travel to our seminary (located outside Florence, Italy) for the Institute's annual Chapter. I have found substitute priests for some of my Masses, but I am still working on completing that list. Please stay tuned for updates.

Wishing you a blessed Sunday,
Canon Benjamin Norman

PLEASE NOTE:

Today, Sunday, August 1, there is a plenary indulgence available to all who assist at Mass in person, under the usual conditions and applicable to oneself or to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. This is known as the "Portiuncula Indulgence," after the little town near Assisi, Italy where St. Francis died. According to tradition, it was near the chapel of Portiuncula that the saint, during a temptation, rolled around in a briar-bush which was then changed into thornless roses. St. Francis received the Portiuncula Indulgence on the same night. On 9 July 1910, Pope St. Pius X granted bishops the privilege of appointing any public churches whatsoever for the gaining of this indulgence, which had formerly been limited to churches of the Franciscan Order.

LITURGICAL REMINDERS:

You have without a doubt noticed the white Communion rail cloth. Did you know that in addition to being a fitting decoration for the border of the sanctuary, it also serves a practical purpose? Should a consecrated host ever fall and not be caught by the server's paten, this cloth serves as a back-up to prevent the host from falling on the floor. This is why the traditional custom is to form a little plateau underneath this cloth with the palms of one's hands while receiving Holy Communion.

BOYS SUMMER CAMP

It's finally here! The Institute's Oakland – San Jose summer camp, St. Michael's Patrol, will take place this Thursday August 5 – Saturday August 7. If there are any boys (ages 6-18) and their fathers who still haven't registered but would like to, there are still a few spots available. The cut-off date for registration is this Monday, August 2.

Please rsvp immediately to Cody Teague at: teague.cody@gmail.com.

* CANON FRAGELLI UPDATE:

Canon Henrique Fragelli, thanks be to God, has recently made some progress in his recovery. The doctors are now considering taking him out of his medically-induced coma. This is of course due to the hard work and competence of the doctors caring for him, but above all it is thanks to your prayers. Please keep them up! Canon is not "out of the woods" just yet.

DONATIONS TO THE INSTITUTE

We are most grateful for your love of the Institute, and your generous prayers and donations. If you wish to support the Institute's work, the Seminary, the Sisters, or the Oakland Apostolate, please make out your check to the "Institute of Christ the King" and note in the memo line one of the above mentioned causes.
