FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING
For today's Mass Propers, please see the Parish Bulletin

Dear faithful,

This Sunday is the Institute's titular feast of Christ the King; a plenary indulgence is available under the usual conditions. Though Americans, we are the subjects of a king: Christ the King and Lord of the Universe! As Pope Pius XI so wisely pointed out almost one hundred years ago, in his encyclical, Quas Primas, which instituted the Feast of Christ the King:

"Oh, what happiness would be Ours if all men, individuals, families, and nations, would but let themselves be governed by Christ! "Then at length," to use the words addressed by our predecessor, Pope Leo XIII, twenty-five years ago to the bishops of the Universal Church, "then at length will many evils be cured; then will the law regain its former authority; peace with all its blessings be restored. Men will sheathe their swords and lay down their arms when all freely acknowledge and obey the authority of Christ, and every tongue confesses that the Lord Jesus Christ is in the glory of God the Father" (n. 20)

Everywhere we look, society seems to unravel; to be torn apart at the seams. Crimes go unpunished and flourish, our political leaders shun responsibility for grave errors of judgement and even outright crimes, intrinsically-disordered behaviors and lifestyles are celebrated as perfectly healthy and desirable. Anyone who dares to question the madness is quickly cut asunder by a thunderous opposition, their livelihoods oftentimes taken from them.

Today, however, let us recall that Christ the King rules over all of us. Even these wayward subjects will be brought to order one day. Many of them, in God's Providence, may be converted by our example of charity and meekness, combined with our uncompromising witness to the truth. Let us therefore be most loyal servants of our Heavenly King, that all would come to know and love the sweet yoke of His reign. To help us better honor Him, holy cards with a Prayer to the Infant King have been made available in church.

Please note: after the 12:30 Mass today, there will be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and a Eucharistic Procession. We will also recite the Act of Consecration to the Sacred Heart. Our yearly special collection for the Institute's seminary will be taken today as well. Thank you in advance for generously supporting your priests of tomorrow!

It's almost November, and that means two important feasts are coming up – the Feast of All Saints; this Monday, November 1, and All Souls' Day; this Tuesday, November 2. A plenary indulgence will be available on both days, under the usual conditions. There will be a Solemn Mass on both days at 6 pm. Please see the bottom of this page for the full schedule of Masses on these days.

This year, a plenary indulgence will be available each day of the month November, applicable to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. In addition to the usual conditions, it is necessary to visit a cemetery and pray for the souls of the faithful departed. We will thus be making a visit to St. Mary's Cemetery in Oakland next Saturday, November 6, after the 10 am Mass and First Saturday devotions, to pray for the suffering souls. The cemetery address is 4529 Howe Street, Oakland.

First Friday and First Saturday are this week. We will have our usual devotions.

Wishing you a blessed Sunday,
Canon Benjamin Norman
