We will have conversation in Latin and discuss a variety of texts, including those of Church Fathers, popes, Doctors, and Saints.

On Reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

Pope Pius XI, Miserentissimus Redemptor

And truly the spirit of expiation or reparation has always had the first and foremost place in the worship given to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, and nothing is more in keeping with the origin, the character, the power, and the distinctive practices of this form of devotion, as appears from the record of history and custom, as well as from the sacred liturgy and the acts of the Sovereign Pontiffs. For when Christ manifested Himself to Margaret Mary, and declared to her the infinite love of His love, at the same time, in the manner of a mourner, He complained that so many and such great injuries were done to Him by ungrateful men — and we would that these words in which He made this complaint were fixed in the minds of the faithful, and were never blotted out by oblivion: “Behold this Heart” — He said — “which has loved men so much and has loaded them with all benefits, and for this boundless love has had no return but neglect, and contumely, and this often from those who were bound by a debt and duty of a more special love.” In order that these faults might be washed away, He then recommended several things to be done, and in particular the following as most pleasing to Himself, namely that men should approach the Altar with this purpose of expiating sin, making what is called a Communion of Reparation*, — and that they should likewise make expiatory supplications and prayers, prolonged for a whole hour, — which is rightly called the “Holy Hour.” These pious exercises have been approved by the Church and have also been enriched with copious indulgences.

* The Communion of Reparation, commonly done on the first Friday of the month, but could also be done at anytime, consists in receiving Holy Communion (in the state of grace, of course) with the intention of making reparation for the sins committed against Our Lord in the most Blessed Sacrament. These sins include irreverence in church, sacrilegious communions, profanation of the Blessed Sacrament, and neglect of this Sacrament.

A Prayer to the Sacred Heart

O most holy Heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing, I adore Thee, I love Thee, and with a lively sorrow for my sins, I offer Thee this poor heart of mine. Make me humble, patient, pure and wholly obedient to Thy will. Grant, good Jesus, that I may live in Thee and for Thee. Protect me in the midst of danger; comfort me in my afflictions; give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs, Thy blessing on all that I do, and the grace of a holy death. Amen.

—Raccolta, n° 263

Ordinations to the Priesthood Diocese of Pittsburgh

On Saturday, June 29th, the Feast of Ss. Peter and Paul, His Excellency, Bishop Zubik will ordain four men to the Sacred Priesthood at St. Paul Cathedral. Please pray for the Deacons Brendan Dawson, Timothy Deely, David Egan and Mingwei Li as the day of their ordination approaches.

O Lord, grant us many holy priests!

Wisdom of St. Francis de Sales

Charity spreads delight throughout the soul, which is rendered beautiful, pleasing and lovable by God's goodness. If the soul were a kingdom where the Holy Spirit is kind, charity would be its queen... and if the soul were a queen, a spouse of Heaven's great King, then charity would be the crown of royalty adorning her head; if the soul, together with the body, were a little world, then charity would be the sun giving it light, warmth and life.
