The Second Sunday After Easter

At that time, Jesus said to the Pharisees: I am the good Shepherd. The good Shepherd giveth his life for his sheep. But the hireling, and he that is not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming and flieth: and the wolf catcheth and scattereth the sheep: and the hireling flieth, because he is a hireling, and he hath no care for the sheep. I am the good Shepherd: and I know Mine, and Mine know Me, as the Father knoweth Me, and I know the Father: and I lay down My life for My sheep. And other sheep I have that are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice, and there shall be one fold and one shepherd.

One of my favorite Psalms says: "The Lord is my shepherd and I shall want nothing. He has set me in a place of pasture. He hath brought me up on the water of refreshment." It is appropriate to reflect upon this psalm especially today, Good Shepherd Sunday. This year, as we continue to face not only danger from the virus but also the threat of unemployment and financial difficulties, we feel more than ever the need of civil and ecclesiastical leaders who will be good shepherds, who will truly take care of their flocks.

After each Mass, we have been praying a prayer for our nation which was composed 200 years ago by the first Bishop of our country, John Carroll, who recommended that Catholics of the United States say this prayer. In more recent times, the late Msgr. John J. Sweeny, beloved pastor at Our Lady of Peace Shrine, recommended this prayer to be said by families.

Although we may currently find it difficult to trust those in authority over us, we must realize that we are always at the crossroads of becoming better or worse and that every ship needs a captain. Our greatest need at this time is for persons who are truly committed to care for those entrusted to them. O Jesus, Good Shepherd, we pray that You will continue to guide and protect us during these perilous times, and that those in authority might be enabled, by Your powerful protection, to discharge the duties of their respective stations with honesty and competence. Amen.

The First Saturday Devotion as an Act of Reparation

At Fatima, Our Lady said: "See, my daughter, my Heart encircled by thorns with which ungrateful men pierce it at every moment by their blasphemies and ingratitude. Do you, at least, strive to console me. Tell them that I promise to assist at the hour of death with the graces necessary for salvation all those who, in order to make reparation to me, on the First Saturday of five successive months, go to confession, receive Holy Communion, say five decades of the Rosary, and keep me company for a quarter of an hour, meditating on the fifteen mysteries of the Rosary."

The elements of this devotion, therefore, consist in the following four acts, all of which must be offered in reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. One should make this intention before carrying out Our Lady's requests. A renewal of the actual intention at the time is best; however, if such an intention is made on the First Saturday, it will fulfill the requirements if, for instance, the actual intention is forgotten at the time of confession.

Confession: This confession can be made before the First Saturday or afterward, provided that Holy Communion be received in the state of grace. In 1926, Christ in a vision explained to Lucia that this confession could be made a week before or even more, and that it should be offered in reparation.

Holy Communion: Before receiving Holy Communion, it is likewise necessary to offer it in reparation to Our Lady. Our Lord told Lucia in 1930, "This Communion will be accepted on the following Sunday for just reasons, if my priests allow it so." So if work or school, sickness, or another just reason prevents the Communion on a First Saturday, with this permission it may be received the following Sunday. If Communion is transferred, any or all of the other acts of the devotion may also be performed on Sunday if the person so desires.

Rosary: The Rosary is a vocal prayer said while meditating upon the mysteries of Our Lord's life and Passion and Our Lady's life. To comply with the request of our Blessed Mother, it must be offered in reparation and said properly while meditating.

15-minute meditation: Also offered in reparation, the meditation may embrace one or more mysteries; it may include all, taken together or separately. This meditation should be the richest of any meditation, because Our Lady promised to be present when she said "...those who keep me company...."

To those who faithfully follow Our Lady's requests for the Five First Saturdays, she has made a wonderful promise which she, as Mediatrix of All Graces, will certainly fulfill: "I promise to assist at the hour of death with the graces necessary for salvation." This means that our Blessed Mother will be present at the hour of death with the actual grace of final perseverance, (which after the gift of Faith), is the most important grace.
