The Seventeenth Sunday After Pentecost

At that time, the Pharisees came to Jesus and one of them, a doctor of the Law, putting Him to the test, asked Him, Master, which is the great commandment in the Law? Jesus said to him, 'You shall love the Lord your God with your whole heart, and with your whole soul, and with your whole mind.' This is the greatest and first commandment. And the second is like it, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' On these two commandments depend the whole Law and the Prophets. Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus questioned them, saying, What do you think of the Christ? Whose son is He? They said to Him, David's. He said to them, How then does David in the spirit call Him Lord, saying, The Lord said to my Lord: Sit at My right hand, till I make Your enemies Your footstool? If David, therefore, calls Him 'Lord,' how is He his son? And no one could answer Him a word; neither did anyone dare from that day forth to ask Him any more questions.

The Guadalupe Hope Society

invites you to our 2nd Friday of the month Rosary & Faith Talk on October 9th at 11:30AM via Zoom. Fr. Saju Joseph, Pastor of St. Martin of Tours Parish, will lead us in a rosary for the unborn and give a reflection on "St. Mother Teresa". More information at: <https://www.guadalupehopesociety.org>

Join the IHM Oratory Teenagers' Group!

It has already been four years since we started our teenagers' group. We are very grateful that this group has been able to provide good opportunities to help our children grow into solid Catholic adults. We started the first class with the question "What is relativism?" Relativism, which dominates our society, is a philosophy which holds that there is no objective truth. On the other hand, we Catholics firmly believe that there must be objective truth and that this truth needs to be lived, that virtue needs to be practiced in order to put this truth into action.

During their teenage years, children begin to know and to discover their identities as boys and girls, a God-given identity which is not of their own choosing. In order to facilitate full development in their God-given sexuality, we will be having separate groups for boys and girls. I hope that our teenagers will continue to grow in becoming strong and fearless Catholics.

The Teenagers' Meeting will be held every fourth Friday of the month at 5:30 p.m.

If your children are interested in attending a meeting, for the girls' group, please RSVP to Veronica Wildanger:

rpwildanger@earthlink.net.

For the boys' group, please RSVP to Mr. Rob Swift: robswift@yahoo.com

Dear Faithful,

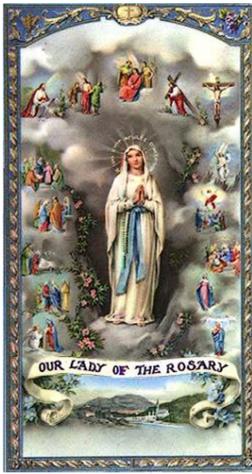

Today is the last Sunday of September, and I am thankful that God sent another young man to help the Oratory after Abbe Le left San Jose last month on August 9th. Mr. Jeffrey Walton arrived in San Jose last Thursday and will stay with us for a while. He is 26 years old and was born and raised Catholic in Mississippi. He has been discerning his vocation with the Institute, and I hope that his stay with us will be beneficial in this discernment process. Canon Norman also arrived in California last Monday; he will be celebrating daily Mass for the Oratory this week. In future, he will be serving the Institute apostolate in Oakland but will reside at the clergy residence here in San Jose.

Jesus said, "The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few; therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest." Indeed, the Church needs her ministers more than ever in this critical time in order to carry out her mission in this world. I give thanks to God that He continues to send out laborers into his vineyard.

In union of prayers in Jesus Christ,
Canon Raphael Ueda

The First Saturday Devotion as an Act of Reparation

At Fatima, Our Lady said: “See, my daughter, my Heart encircled by thorns with which ungrateful men pierce it at every moment by their blasphemies and ingratitude. Do you, at least, strive to console me. Tell them that I promise to assist at the hour of death with the graces necessary for salvation all those who, in order to make reparation to me, on the First Saturday of five successive months, go to confession, receive Holy Communion, say five decades of the Rosary, and keep me company for a quarter of an hour, meditating on the fifteen mysteries of the Rosa-ry.” The elements of this devotion, therefore, consist in the following four acts, all of which must be offered in reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. One should make this intention before carrying out Our Lady’s requests. A renewal of the actual intention at the time is best; however, if such an intention is made on the First Saturday, it will fulfill the requirements if, for instance, the actual intention is forgotten at the time of confession.

Confession: This confession can be made before the First Saturday or afterward, provided that Holy Communion be received in the state of grace. In 1926, Christ in a vision explained to Lucia that this confession could be made a week before or even more, and that it should be offered in reparation.

Holy Communion: Before receiving Holy Communion, it is likewise necessary to offer it in reparation to Our Lady. Our Lord told Lucia in 1930, “This Communion will be accepted on the following Sunday for just reasons, if my priests allow it so.” So if work or school, sickness, or another just reason prevents the Communion on a First Saturday, with this permission it may be received the following Sunday. If Communion is transferred, any or all of the other acts of the devotion may also be performed on Sunday if the person so desires. Rosary: The Rosary is a vocal prayer said while meditating upon the mysteries of Our Lord’s life and Passion and Our Lady’s life. To comply with the request of our Blessed Mother, it must be offered in reparation and said properly while meditating. 15-minute meditation: Also offered in reparation, the meditation may embrace one or more mysteries; it may include all, taken together or separately. This meditation should be the richest of any meditation, because Our Lady promised to be present when she said “...those who keep me company...” To those who faithfully follow Our Lady’s requests for the Five First Saturdays, she has made a wonderful promise which she, as Mediatrix of All Graces, will certainly fulfill: “I promise to assist at the hour of death with the graces necessary for salvation.” This means that our Blessed Mother will be present at the hour of death with the actual grace of final perseverance, (which after the gift of Faith), is the most important grace.
