APOSTOLATE

12TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Introit: Ps. 69, 2, 3. Incline unto my aid, O God: O Lord, make haste to help me: let my enemies be confounded and ashamed, who seek my soul. Ps. 69, 4. Let them be turned backward and blush for shame, who desire evils to me. V. Glory.

Prayer: Almighty and eternal God, Whose gift it is that Thy faithful serve Thee worthily and rightly, grant us, we beseech Thee, that we may without offense hasten on to the fulfillment of Thy promises. Through our Lord.

Epistle: 2. Cor. 3, 4-9. Brethren, such confidence we have through Christ toward God. Not that we are sufficient to think anything of ourselves, as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God. Who also hath made us fit ministers of the new testament, not in the letter, but in the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit quickeneth. Now if the ministration of death, engraven with letters upon stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses, for the glory of his countenance; which is made void: how shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather in glory? For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more ministration of justice aboundeth in glory.

Gradual: Ps. 33, 2, 3. I will bless the Lord at all times; His praise shall be ever in my mouth. V. In the Lord shall my soul be praised: let the meek hear, and rejoice. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 87, 2. O Lord, the God of my salvation, I have cried in the day, and in the night, before Thee, Alleluia.

Gospel: Luke 10, 23-37. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, Blessed are the eyes that see the things which you see. For I say to you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see the things that you see, and have not seen them; and to hear the things that you hear, and have not heard them. And behold a certain lawyer stood up, tempting Him, and saying, Master, what must I do to possess eternal life? But He said to him, What is written in the law? How readest thou? He answering, said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart, and with thy whole soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself. And He said to him, thou hast answered rightly: this do, and thou shalt live. But he, willing to justify himself, said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor? And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among robbers, who also stripped him, and having wounded him, went away, leaving him half dead: and it chanced that a certain priest went down the same way, and seeing him, passed by. In like manner also a levite, when he was near the place and saw him, passed by. But a certain Samaritan being on his journey, came near him, and seeing him, was moved with compassion; and going up to him, bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine; and, setting him upon his own beast, brought him to an inn, and took care of him: and the next day he took out two pence, and gave to the host, and said, Take care of him, and whatsoever thou shalt spend over and above, I, at my return, will repay thee. Which of these three, in thy opinion, was neighbor to him that fell among robbers? But he said, He that showed mercy to him. And Jesus said to him, Go, and do thou in like manner.

Offertory: Ex 32, 11, 13, 14. Moses prayed in the sight of the Lord his God, and said, Why, O Lord, is Thy indignation enkindled against Thy people? Let the anger of Thy mind cease; remember Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to whom Thou didst swear to give a land flowing with milk and honey: and the Lord was appeased from doing the evil, which He had spoken of doing against the people.

Secret: Graciously behold, we pray Thee, O Lord, the sacrifices which we lay upon Thy sacred altars, that, in bringing us plentiful forgiveness, they may give honor to Thy name. Through our Lord.

Communion: Ps. 103, 13, 14, 15. The earth shall be filled with the fruit of Thy works, O Lord, that Thou mayest bring bread out of the earth, and that wine may cheer the heart of man; that he may make the face cheerful with oil; and that bread may strengthen man's heart.

Postcommunion: May the holy partaking of this mystery, we pray Thee, O Lord, vivify us, bringing us at once forgiveness and strengthening. Through our Lord.

ALTAR FLOWER MEMORIALS:

Flowers on the Altar this Sunday are offered by the Connolly family in memory of Mark Connolly.

Please pray for the repose of his soul.

May his soul rest in peace.

If you want to donate flowers in memory of a loved one, please contact the office.

PRAYER INTENTIONS

Welcome to St. Mary's!

We are very happy to have you with us today. Please, join us for coffee and doughnuts after Mass in Thomas Hall (basement of the church). A donation to cover the cost of the goodies is greatly appreciated.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT FROM THE VICAR GENERAL

Dear Faithful,

The seminary is the heart of every community. Fertile ground for vocations, it is the seminary which forms future priests. According to St. Charles, the holy Archbishop of Milan and patron of seminaries, the Superior should guard the seminary with his life. Those in charge of the education of the young men called to the holy priesthood have a very special responsibility.

For this reason, the founder and Prior General of the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest, Msgr. Gilles Wach, has always taken great care to staff the Seminary with very experienced members of our Institute. Given the ever increasing number of American vocations among our seminarians and sisters, there has for a long time been an urgent need for a spiritual director well-versed in several languages and familiar with the American culture. Hence during his visit to the United States during the month of May, Msgr. Wach decided to select for this important task a priest well-seasoned by his many years of service, a priest in whom he has the greatest confidence for his fatherly wisdom and his well rounded personality.

At the same time, the exceptional growth of the Institute worldwide and as well as in the United States, calls for additional priestly appointments. Msgr. Wach will send more priests to the United States, Father Laurent Jantaud, former guest master of the Seminary, and Father Henry Fragelli, our newly ordained priest from the United States.

Thus, it is my task to announce the following changes, all of which are related to a change which is both important and essential and which will greatly benefit not only our seminary, but also all of you, dear faithful, who desire to have well-trained priests as your shepherds:

Reverend Father Karl Lenhardt, until now Vice-Provincial and Rector of St. Francis de Sales Oratory in St. Louis, will be appointed spiritual director to the international Seminary and the Sisters Adorers of the Royal Heart.

Reverend Father William Avis, until now Vicar at St. Francis de Sales Oratory in St. Louis, will be appointed as Rector of Old St. Patrick's in Kansas City and continue his duties as Provincial Master of Ceremonies.

Reverend Father Olivier Meney, until now Rector of St. Mary's Oratory in Wausau, will be appointed Rector and Administrator of the Oratory and Parish of St. Stanislaus in Milwaukee, with the additional charge of supervising the Oratory of St. Mary's in Wausau.

Reverend Father Henry Fragelli, newly ordained, will be appointed Pro-Rector of the Oratory of St. Mary's in Wausau under the authority of Father Olivier Meney.

Reverend Father Michael Wiener, Esq., until now Episcopal Delegate for the Extraordinary Form in Oakland and Rector of the Oratory of Our Mother of Perpetual Help in St. Jose, will be appointed Rector of St. Francis de Sales Oratory in St. Louis.

Reverend Father Laurent Jantaud, until now guest master of the International Seminary in Gricigliano, will be appointed Vicar at St. Francis de Sales Oratory with the special task to supervise the candidates to the priesthood and oblatehood at the Oratory.

Reverend Father Jean-Marie Moreau, until now Rector of St. Joseph's Oratory in Green Bay, will be appointed Episcopal Delegate for the Extraordinary Form in the Diocese of Oakland and Rector of the Oratory of Our Mother of Perpetual Help in the Diocese of San Jose.

Reverend Father Denis Buchholz, until now Pro-Rector of Old St. Patrick's Oratory in Kansas-City, Missouri, will be appointed Rector of the Oratory of St. Joseph in Green Bay, Wisconsin, and continue his duties as Provincial Bursar.

Reverend Father Glenn Gardner, until now Assistant Priest at St. Mary's Oratory, will be given another apostolate yet to be announced.

All other priests of the Institute in the USA remain in their present assignments. The new appointments have been made with the consent of the Most Reverend Ordinaries of the respective Dioceses. These changes were decided in the month of May according to the needs of the Seminary and the growth of the Institute and are unrelated to any of the recent papal appointments in some of these Dioceses or Archdioceses. Most of these changes will be effective after our General Chapter in the last week of August.

Msgr. Gilles Wach and I are deeply grateful to the Vice-Provincial of the American Province, Reverend Father Karl Lenhardt, and to all our priests for their dedicated service to God and souls in their former assignments. Special receptions are currently being organized as occasions to express publicly this gratitude. I would encourage you to check your local church bulletin for details concerning the up-coming farewell celebrations for your faithful shepherds. You can be assured that your new pastors and vicars will continue to serve you and your families with just the same spirit as their predecessors, a spirit which, coming from St. Francis de Sales, St. Benedict and St. Thomas Aquinas, is condensed in our motto: "Live the truth in charity". The presence of the Institute of Christ the King in all our churches and Oratories in the United States remains unchanged. Soon I will be happy to announce yet another apostolate of the Institute of Christ the King in this country.

Please pray for our priests, oblates, seminarians and sisters! May God bless you all!

Yours very cordially in Christ the King

Msgr. R. Michael Schmitz

Vicar General and Provincial Superior, August 2008
