QUINQUAGESIMA SUNDAY

Introit: Ps. 30, 3. 4. Be my rock of refuge, O God, a stronghold to give me safety. You are my rock and my fortress; for Your name's sake You will lead and guide me. Ps. 30, 2. In You, O Lord, I take refuge; let me never be put to shame. In Your justice rescue me and deliver me. V. Glory be.

Prayer: We beseech You, O Lord, graciously hear our prayers; and having freed us from the bonds of our sins, guard us from all adversity. Through our Lord, etc. S. Amen.

Epistle: 1 Cor. 13, 1-13. Brethren: If I should speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but do not have charity, I have become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal. And if I have prophecy and know all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith so as to remove mountains, yet do not have charity, I am nothing. And if I distribute all my goods to feed the poor, and if I deliver my body to be burned, yet do not have charity, it profits me nothing. Charity is patient, is kind; charity does not envy, is not pretentious, is not puffed up, is not ambitious, is not self-seeking, is not provoked; thinks no evil, does not rejoice over wickedness, but rejoices with the truth; bears with all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

Charity never fails, whereas prophecies will disappear, and tongues will cease, and knowledge will be destroyed. For we know in part and we prophesy in part; but when that which is perfect has come, that which is imperfect will be done away with. When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child. Now that I have become a man, I have put away the things of a child. We see now through a mirror in an obscure manner, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know even as I have been known. So there abide faith, hope and charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity. S. Thanks be to God.

Gradual: Ps. 76, 15. 16. You are the God Who alone works wonders; among the peoples You have made known Your power. V. With Your strong arm You delivered Your people, the sons of Israel and Joseph.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SPIRITUAL BOUQUET FOR THE HOLY FATHER

Amid the anti-Catholic sentiment in the media of today, please remember to pray for our beloved Holy Father, Pope Benedict XVI, that God may continue to grant him in abundance the spiritual wisdom and strength to guide the Barque of Peter through the difficult waters of our times. Desiring to show our filial support and gratitude to our Holy Father, the Institute of Christ the King wishes to offer an abundant spiritual bouquet to His Holiness. Please take a moment to fill out the spiritual bouquet form which has been inserted in this Sunday's bulletin. Simply indicate the number of prayers you wish to offer on the lines provided. This spiritual bouquet will then be presented directly to His Holiness. May God bless you for your prayers and sacrifices on behalf of His Vicar on earth."

Tract: Ps. 99, 1-2. Sing joyfully to God, all you lands; serve the Lord with gladness. V. Come before Him with joyful song; know that the Lord is God. V. He made us, His we are; His people, the flock He tends.

Gospel: Luke 18, 31-43. At that time, Jesus taking to Himself the Twelve said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all things that have been written by the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be accomplished. For He will be delivered to the Gentiles, and will be mocked and scourged and spit upon; and after they have scourged Him, they will put Him to death; and on the third day He will rise again." And they understood none of these things and this saying was hidden from them, neither did they get to know the things that were being said. Now it came to pass as He drew near Jericho, that a certain blind man was sitting by the wayside, begging; but hearing a crowd passing by, he inquired what this might be. And they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. And he cried out, saying, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" And they who went in front angrily tried to silence him. But he cried out all the louder, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" Then Jesus stopped and commanded that he should be brought to Him. And when he drew near, He asked him, saying "What would you have Me do for you?" And he said, "Lord, that I may see." And Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight, your faith has saved you." And at once he received his sight, and followed Him, glorifying God. And all the people upon seeing it gave praise to God. S. Praise be to You, O Christ.

Offertory: Ps. 118, 12-13. Blessed are You, O Lord; teach me Your statutes. With my lips I declare all the ordinances of Your mouth.

Secret: May this offering, we beseech You, O Lord, cleanse away our sins, and sanctify the bodies and minds of Your servants for the celebration of this sacrifice. Through our Lord, etc.

Communion: Ps. 77, 29-30. They ate and were wholly surfeited; the Lord had brought them what they craved: they were not defrauded of that which they craved. P. The Lord be with you. S. And with your spirit.

Postcommunion: We beseech You, almighty God, that we who have received celestial food, may be defended by it against all adversities. Through our Lord, etc. S. Amen.
