St. Mary's Roman Catholic Oratory of the Immaculate Conception

FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY

Introit: Prov. 23, 24, 25. The father of the Just will exult with glee; let Your father and mother have joy; let her who bore You exult. Ps. 83, 2, 3. How lovely is Your dwelling place, O Lord of Hosts! My soul yearns and pines for the courts of the Lord.

Prayer: O Lord Jesus Christ, by subjecting Yourself to Mary and Joseph, You consecrated family life with wonderful virtues; grant that, by their joint assistance, we may fashion our lives after the example of Your Holy Family, and obtain everlasting fellowship with it.

Epistle: Col. 3, 12-17. Brethren: Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, a heart of mercy, kindness, humility, meekness, patience. Bear with one another and forgive one another, if anyone has a grievance against any other; even as the Lord has forgiven you, so also do you forgive. But above all these things have charity, which is the bond of perfection. And may the peace of Christ reign in your hearts; unto that peace, indeed, you were called in one body. Show yourselves thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you abundantly: in all wisdom teach and admonish one another by psalms, hymns and spiritual songs, singing in your hearts to God by His grace. Whatever you do in word or in work, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

Gradual: Ps. 26, 4. One thing I ask of the Lord; this I seek: to dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life. V. Ps. 83, 5. Happy they who dwell in Your house, O Lord! continually they praise You.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Isa. 45, 15. Truly You are a hidden God, the God of Israel, the Savior. Alleluia.

Gospel: Luke 2, 42,-52. When Jesus was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast. And after they had fulfilled the days, when they were returning, the Boy Jesus remained in Jerusalem, and His parents did not know it. But thinking that He was in the caravan, they had come a day's journey before it occurred to them to look for Him among their relatives and acquaintances. And not finding Him, they returned to Jerusalem in search of Him. And it came to pass after three days, that they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. And all who were listening to Him were amazed at His understanding and His answers. And when they saw Him, they were astonished. And His mother said to Him, "Son, why have You done so to us? Behold, in sorrow Your father and I have been seeking You." And He said to them, "How is it that you sought Me? Did you not know that I must be about My Father's business?" And they did not understand the word that He spoke to them. And He went down and with them and came to Nazareth, and was subject to them; and His mother kept all these things carefully in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and grace before God and men.

Offertory: Luke 2, 22. The parents of Jesus took Him up to Jerusalem, to present Him to the Lord.

Secret: We offer You, O Lord, the sacrifice of reconciliation, humbly entreating that, by the intercession of the Virgin-Mother of God and Saint Joseph, You may firmly establish our families in Your peace and grace.

Communion: Luke 2, 51. Jesus went down with them, and came to Nazareth and was subject to them.

Postcommunion: O Lord Jesus, cause those whom You refresh with the heavenly sacrament, to imitate continually the example of Your Holy Family, that being welcomed at the hour of death by the glorious Virgin-Mother with Saint Joseph, we may be found worthy to be received by You into Your everlasting dwellings.
