

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING

SOVEREIGN PRIEST

St. Mary's Roman Catholic Oratory of the Immaculate Conception

SEXAGESIMA SUNDAY

Introit: Ps. 43, 23-26. Awake! Why are You asleep, O Lord? Arise! Cast us not off forever! Why do You hide Your face, forgetting our oppression? Our bodies are pressed to the earth. Arise, O Lord, help us, and deliver us. Ps. 43, 2. O God, our ears have heard, our fathers have declared to us.

Prayer: O God, You see that we do not trust in anything which we ourselves can do; mercifully grant, that by the protection of the teacher of the Gentiles, we may be defended against all adversities.

Epistle: 2 Cor. 11, 19—12, 9. Brethren: You gladly put up with fools, because you are wise yourselves! For you suffer it if a man enslaves you, if a man devours you, if a man takes from you, if a man is arrogant, if a man slaps your face! I speak to my own shame, as though we had been weak. But wherein any man is bold—I am speaking foolishly—I also am bold. Are they Hebrews? So am I! Are they Israelites? So am I! Are they offspring of Abraham? So am I! Are they ministers of Christ? I—to speak as a fool—am more: in many more labors, in prisons more frequently, in lashes from above measure, often exposed to death. From the Jews five times I received forty lashes less one. Thrice I was scourged, once I was stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I was adrift on the sea; in journeyings often, in perils from floods, in perils from robbers, in perils from my own nation, in perils from the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils from false brethren; in labor and hardships, in many sleepless nights, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. Besides those outer things, there is my daily pressing anxiety, the care of all the churches! Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to stumble, and I am not inflamed? If I must boast, I will boast of the things that concern my weakness. The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, Who is blessed forevermore, knows that I do not lie. In Damascus the governor under King Aretas was guarding the city of the Damascenes in order to arrest me, but I was lowered in a basket through a window in the wall, and escaped his hands. If I must boast—it is not indeed expedient to do so—but I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago—whether in the body I do not know, or out of the body I do not know, God knows—such a one was caught up to the third heaven. And I know such a man—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows—that he was caught up into paradise and heard secret words that man may not repeat. Of such a man I will boast; but of myself I will glory in nothing save in my infirmities. For if I do wish to boast, I shall not be foolish; for I shall be speaking the truth. But I forbear, lest any man should reckon me beyond what he sees in me or hears from me. And lest the greatness of the revelations should puff me up, there was given me a thorn for the flesh, a messenger of Satan, to buffet me. Concerning this I thrice besought the Lord that it might leave me. And He has said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for strength is made perfect in weakness.” Gladly therefore I will glory in my infirmities, that the strength of Christ may dwell in me.

Gradual: Ps. 82, 19. 14. Let the nations know that God is Your name; You alone are the most High over all the earth. V. O my God, make them like leaves in a whirlwind, like chaff before the wind.

Tract. Ps. 59, 4. 6. You have rocked the country, O Lord, and split it open. V. Repair the cracks in it, for it is tottering. V. That they may flee out of bowshot; that Your loved ones may escape.

Gospel: Luke 8, 4-15. At that time, when a very great crowd was gathering together and men from every town were resorting to Jesus, He said in a parable: “The sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some seed fell by the wayside and was trodden under foot, and the birds of the air ate it up. And other seed fell upon the rock, and as soon as it had sprung up it withered away, because it had no moisture. And other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it and choked it. And other seed fell upon good ground, and sprang up and yielded fruit a hundred-fold.” As He said these things He cried out, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear!” But His disciples then began to ask Him what this parable meant. He said to them, “To you it is given to know the mystery of the

DONATIONS

Donations for the remodeling of our offices are graciously accepted, and very needed. This remodeling is a must. New activities and services for our little community have required a great deal of volunteering on the part of Oratory faithful. They need the space and means for their work. Ultimately it is for the benefit of all.

Knights of Columbus

Knights of Columbus are hosting an 8 week version of The Great American Catholic Bible Study for members, families and friends at 7 PM on Sundays beginning Feb. 14th at the KC Club of Wausau, 1024 S. 1st Ave. Call John at 298-2380 for info.

Altar Boys and Masters of Ceremonies

As Holy Week approaches we have lots of beautiful ceremonies to learn and prepare for. It is our greatest privilege and honor to be the closest ones to witness the Church’s love and compassion for our sorrowful Lord, as we commemorate His Passion, Death and Resurrection. Let our love and zeal run to His service on this occasion. A tentative list of assignments is posted on the Sacristy bulletin board. Please be sure to discuss it with Abbé Kevin ASAP.

kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables, that 'Seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.' Now the parable is this: the seed is the word of God. And those by the wayside are they who have heard; then the devil comes and takes away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved. Now those upon the rock are they who, when they have heard, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, but believe for a while, and in time of temptation fall away. And that which fell among the thorns, these are they who have heard, and as they go their way are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not ripen. But that upon good ground, these are they who, with a right and good heart, having heard the word, hold it fast, and bear fruit in patience."

Offertory: Ps. 16, 5. 6. 7. Make my steps steadfast in Your paths, that my feet may not falter. Incline Your ear to me; hear my word. Show Your wondrous kindness, O Lord, Savior of those who trust in You.

Secret: May the sacrifice we offer You, O Lord, give us life always and defend us.

Communion: Ps. 42, 4. I will go in to the altar of God, the God of my gladness and joy.

Postcommunion: We humbly beseech You, almighty God, to grant that those whom You refresh with Your sacraments, may serve You worthily by a life well pleasing to You.

GOD BLESS YOUR GOOD HEART!!!

"Volunteer Week" was a beautiful display of generosity and joy. Saint Mary's Oratory came together on three long and hard working days, to remind us all how much of a Family we all are.

Pictures say a thousand words, as the saying goes, but we would have needed a thousand pictures just to say "thank you" to each and everyone and not leave anyone out. We all accomplished so much! Blessed be Our Good Lord and our Blessed Mother, patroness of our St. Mary's! May They reward, as only They know how, your great dedication and love as well as your gratitude for all of their blessings here at St. Mary's.

FREE FOR ALL

Many items (and in great variety) that were taken out of church and priory basement are displayed in our priory garages (the two north garages only) for anyone to take, what they want (as is). In a week, whatever is not picked up will be disposed of.
