SOVEREIGN PRIEST

St. Mary's Roman Catholic Oratory of the Immaculate Conception

QUINQUAGESIMA SUNDAY

Introit: Ps. 30, 3. 4. Be my rock of refuge, O God, a stronghold to give me safety. You are my rock and my fortress; for Your name's sake You will lead and guide me. Ps. 30, 2. In You, O Lord, I take refuge; let me never be put to shame. In Your justice rescue me and deliver me.

Prayer: We beseech You, O Lord, graciously hear our prayers; and having freed us from the bonds of our sins, guard us from all adversity.

Epistle: 1 Cor. 13, 1-13. Brethren: If I should speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but do not have charity, I have become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal. And if I have prophecy and know all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith so as to remove mountains, yet do not have charity, I am nothing. And if I distribute all my goods to feed the poor, and if I deliver my body to be burned, yet do not have charity, it profits me nothing. Charity is patient, is kind; charity does not envy, is not pretentious, is not puffed up, is not ambitious, is not self-seeking, is not provoked; thinks no evil, does not rejoice over wickedness, but rejoices with the truth; bears with all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Charity never fails, whereas prophecies will disappear, and tongues will cease, and knowledge will be destroyed. For we know in part and we prophesy in part; but when that which is perfect has come, that which is imperfect will be done away with. When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child. Now that I have become a man, I have put away the things of a child. We see now through a mirror in an obscure manner, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know even as I have been known. So there abide faith, hope and charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

Gradual Ps. 76, 15. 16. You are the God Who alone works wonders; among the peoples You have made known Your power. V. With Your strong arm You delivered Your people, the sons of Israel and Joseph.

Tract: Ps. 99, 1-2. Sing joyfully to God, all you lands; serve the Lord with gladness. V. Come before Him with joyful song; know that the Lord is God. V. He made us, His we are; His people, the flock He tends.

Gospel: Luke 18, 31-43. At that time, Jesus taking to Himself the Twelve said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all things that have been written by the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be accomplished. For He will be delivered to the Gentiles, and will be mocked and scourged and spit upon; and after they have scourged Him, they will put Him to death; and on the third day He will rise again." And they understood none of these things and this saying was hidden from them, neither did they get to know the things that were being said. Now it came to pass as He drew near to Jericho, that a certain blind man was sitting by the wayside, begging; but hearing a crowd passing by, he inquired what this might be. And they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. And he cried out, saying, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" And they who went in front angrily tried to silence him. But he cried out all the louder, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" Then Jesus stopped and commanded that he should be brought to Him. And when he drew near, He asked him, saying, "What would you have Me do for you?" And he said, "Lord, that I may see." And Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight, your faith has saved you." And at once he received his sight, and followed Him, glorifying God, And all the people upon seeing it gave praise to God.

Offertory: Ps. 118, 12-13. Blessed are You, O Lord; teach me Your statutes. With my lips I declare all the ordinances of Your mouth.

Secret: May this offering, we beseech You, O Lord, cleanse away our sins, and sanctify the bodies and minds of Your servants for the celebration of this sacrifice.

Communion: Ps. 77, 29-30. They ate and were wholly surfeited; the Lord had brought them what they craved: they were not defrauded of that which they craved.

Postcommunion: We beseech You, almighty God, that we who have received celestial food, may be defended by it against all adversities.

NEW EXPERIENCE

Sr. Rosemary is suggesting that the Angel's Choir practice be at 9:30 AM. Parents: please give us (her) your feedback on this. Practice will continue to be after the 10:00 High Mass until announced otherwise.

Altar Boys and Masters of Ceremonies

As Holy Week approaches we have lots of beautiful ceremonies to learn and prepare for. It is our greatest privilege and honor to be the closest ones to witness the Church's love and compassion for our sorrowful Lord, as we commemorate His Passion, Death and Resurrection. Let our love and zeal run to His service on this occasion. A tentative list of assignments is posted on the Sacristy bulletin board. Please be sure to discuss it with Abbé Kevin ASAP.

We recommend to your prayers the good soul of whom having received the Last Sacraments of the Church and the Apostolic Blessing was called to God on the early afternoon of Friday, Feb. 12, 2010.

Ash Wednesday

Ashes will be distributed after Wednesday's 8:00 AM Holy Mass, as well as after each Sunday Mass (Sunday Feb. 21st), for those that cannot be at church on Wednesday.

LENT

Stations of the Cross

In spirit of penance, to console our sorrowful Lord, in spiritual preparation for Good Friday, we will be praying the Stations of the Cross, every Friday, during Lent, at 3:00 PM.

GOD BLESS YOUR GOOD HEART!!!

"Volunteer Week" was a beautiful display of generosity and joy. Saint Mary's Oratory came together on three long and hard working days, to remind us all how much of a Family we all are.

Pictures say a thousand words, as the saying goes, but we would have needed a thousand pictures just to say "thank you" to each and everyone and not leave anyone out. We all accomplished so much! Blessed be Our Good Lord and our Blessed Mother, patroness of our St. Mary's! May They reward, as only They know how, your great dedication and love as well as your gratitude for all of their blessings here at St. Mary's.

FREE FOR ALL

Many items (and in great variety) that were taken out of church and priory basement are displayed in our priory garages (the two north stalls only) for anyone to take, whatever they want (as is). In a week, that which is not picked up will be disposed of or sold.

DONATIONS

Donations for the remodeling of our offices are graciously accepted, and very needed. This remodeling is a must. New activities and services for our little community have required a great deal of volunteering on the part of Oratory faithful. They need the space and means for their work. Ultimately it is for the benefit of all.
