

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING

SOVEREIGN PRIEST

St. Mary's Roman Catholic Oratory

EXTERNAL SOLEMNITY OF CORPUS CHRISTI

Introit: Ps. 80, 17. He fed them with the fat of wheat, alleluia; and filled them with honey out of the rock, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Ps. 80, 2. Rejoice to God our helper; sing aloud to the God of Jacob.

Prayer: O God, Who in this wonderful sacrament hast left us a memorial of Thy passion, grant us, we beseech Thee, so to venerate the sacred mysteries of Thy body and blood that we may constantly experience in ourselves the fruit of Thy redemption.

Epistle: 1 Cor. 11, 23-29. Brethren, I have received of the Lord, that which also I delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and giving thanks, broke, and said, 'Take ye and eat; this is My body which shall be delivered for you; this do for the commemoration of Me. In like manner also the chalice, after He had supped, saying, 'This chalice is the new testament in My blood; this do ye, as often as you shall drink, for the commemoration of Me. For as often as you shall eat this bread, and drink this chalice, you shall show the death of the Lord until He come. Therefore whosoever shall eat this bread, or drink of the chalice of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and of the blood of the Lord. But let a man prove himself; and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of the chalice. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh judgment to himself, not discerning the body of the Lord.

Gradual: Ps. 144, 15, 16. The eyes of all hope in Thee, O Lord, and Thou givest them meat in due season. V. Thou openest Thy hand, and fillest every living creature with Thy blessing. Alleluia, alleluia. V. John 6, 56, 57. My flesh is meat indeed, and My blood is drink indeed: He that eateth My flesh and drinketh My blood, abideth in Me, and I in him.

(READ SEQUENCE ON BACK OF BULLETIN)

Gospel: John 6, 56-59. At that time, Jesus said to the multitudes of the Jews: My flesh is meat indeed, and My blood is drink indeed. He that eateth My flesh, and drinketh My blood, abideth in Me, and I in him. As the living Father hath sent Me, and I live by the Father, so he that eateth Me, the same also shall live by Me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Not as your fathers did eat manna and are dead. He that eateth this bread shall live for ever.

Offertory: Lev. 21, 6. The priests of the Lord offer incense and loaves to God, and therefore they shall be holy to their God, and shall not defile His name. Alleluia.

Secret: Of Thy goodness, we beseech Thee, O Lord, grant to Thy Church the gifts of unity and peace which are mystically represented under the gifts we offer.

Communion: 1 Cor. 11, 26, 27. As often as you shall eat this bread, and drink the chalice, you shall show forth the death of the Lord, until He come; therefore whosoever shall eat this bread or drink the chalice of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. Alleluia.

Postcommunion: Grant us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, to be filled with the everlasting enjoyment of thy divinity, which the temporal partaking of Thy precious body and blood doth foreshow.

SEQUENCE

O Sion, thy Redeemer praising,
Songs of joy to Him upraising,
Laud thy pastor and thy guide:
Swell thy notes most high and daring;
For His praise is past declaring,
And thy loftiest powers beside.

'Tis a theme with praise that gloweth,
For the bread that life bestoweth
Goes this day before us out;
Which, His holy supper taking,
To the brethren twelve His breaking
None hath ever called in doubt.

Full, then, be our praise and sounding,
Modest and with joy abounding
Be our mind's triumphant state;
For the festal's prosecution,
When the first blest institution
Of this feast we celebrate.

In the new king's new libation,
In the new law's new oblation,
Ends the ancient paschal rite;
Ancient forms new substance
chaseth,
Typic shadows truth displaceth,
Day dispels the gloom of night.

What He did at supper seated,

Christ enjoined to be repeated,
When His love we celebrate:
Thus, obeying His dictation,
Blood and wine of our salvation,
We the victim consecrate.

'Tis for Christian faith asserted,
Bread is into flesh converted,
Into blood the holy wine:
Sight and intellect transcending,
Nature's laws to marvel bending,
'Tis confirmed by faith divine.

Under either kind remaining,
Form, not substance, still retaining.
Wondrous things our spirit sees:
Flesh and blood thy palate staining,
Yet still Christ entire remaining,
Under either species.

All untorn for eating given,
Undivided and unraven,
Whole He's taken and unrent;
Be there one, or crowds surrounding,
He is equally abounding,
Nor, though eaten, ever spent.

Both to good and bad 'tis broken,
But on each a different token
Or of life, or death attends:
Life to good, to bad damnation;
Lo, of one same manducation
How dissimilar the ends.

When the priest the victim breaketh,
See thy faith in nowise shaketh,
Know that every fragment taketh
All that 'neath the whole there lies:
This in Him no fracture maketh:
'Tis the figure only breaketh,
Form, or state, no change there ta-
keth
Place in what it signifies.

Bread, that angels eat in heaven,
Now becomes the pilgrim's leaven,
Bread in truth to children given,
That must ne'er to dogs be thrown.
He, in ancient types disguised,
Was the Isaac sacrificed.
For the feast a lamb devised,
Manna to the Fathers shown.

Bread, whose shepherd-care doth
tend us,
Jesu Christ, Thy mercy send us,
Do Thou feed us, Thou defend us,
Lead us where true joys attend us,
In the land where life is given:
Thou all ken and might possessing,
Mercies aye to us largessing,
Make us share Thy cup of blessing,
Heritage and love's caressing
With the denizens of heaven.
Amen. Alleluia.
