Immaculate Virgin Mary, Mother of Our Lord Jesus Christ and our Mother, we firmly believe in the dogma of your triumphant Assumption into Heaven where the angels and saints acclaim you as Queen of the whole Catholic Church, Triumphant, Militant and Suffering. We join them in praising you and bless Almighty God who raised you above all creatures. With them we offer you our devotion and our love. We are confident that you watch over Holy Mother Church, that you watch with maternal care over each one of your children, over our families, as well as our needs and daily efforts. In that assurance we confidently hope in being one day with you and your Divine Son for all eternity. We look to you, our life, our sweetness, and our hope. After this earthly life, show us Jesus, the blessed fruit of Thy womb, O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

Introit: Apoc. 12, 1. A great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon was under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars. Ps. 97. 1. Sing to the Lord a new song, for He has done wondrous deeds.

Prayer: O almighty and eternal God, You assumed to celestial glory, in body and soul, the Immaculate Virgin Mary, the Mother of Your Son; grant, we beseech You, that, ever intent on heavenly things, we may be worthy to share in her glory.

Epistle: Judith 13, 22-25; 15, 10. The Lord has blessed you by His power, because by you He has brought our enemies to naught. Blessed are you, O daughter, by the Lord the Most High God, above all women upon the earth. Blessed be the Lord Who made heaven and earth, Who has directed you to the cutting off the head of the prince of our enemies, because He has so magnified your name this day, that your praise shall not depart out of the mouth of men, who shall be mindful of the power of the Lord forever; for you have not spared your life, by reason of the distress and tribulation of your people, but have prevented our ruin in the presence of our God. You are the glory of Jerusalem, you are the joy of Israel, you are the honor of our people.

Gradual Ps. 44, 11-12. 14. Hear, O daughter, and see; turn your ear; for the king shall desire your beauty. V. All glorious is the King's daughter as she enters; her raiment is threaded with spun gold.

Gospel: Luke 1, 41-50. At that time, Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit, and cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb! And how have I deserved that the Mother of my Lord should come to me? For behold, the moment that the sound of your greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leapt for joy. And blessed is she who has believed, because the things promised her by the Lord shall be accomplished." And Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior; because He has regarded the lowliness of His handmaid; for, behold, henceforth all generations shall call me blessed; because He Who is mighty has done great things for me, and holy is His name; and His mercy is from generation to generation on those who fear Him."

Offertory: Gen. 3, 15. I will put enmity between you and the Woman, between your seed and her seed.

Secret: May the offering of our devotion ascend to You, O Lord, and through the intercession of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary, assumed into heaven, may our hearts, fired by the flame of charity, incessantly long for You.

Communion: Luke 1, 48-49. All generations shall call me blessed; because He Who is mighty has done great things for me.

Postcommunion: having received Your salutary sacraments, grant we beseech You, O Lord, that through the merits and intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, assumed into heaven, we may be brought to the glory of the resurrection.
