DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Introit: 1 Pet. 2, 2. Crave as newborn babes, alleluia: pure spiritual milk: alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Ps. 80, 2. Sing joyfully to God our strength; acclaim the God of Jacob. V. Glory be.

Prayer: Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we who have been celebrating the Paschal festivities, may, through Your bounty, ever retain their effect, both in life and in conversation.

Epistle: 1 John 5, 4-10. Beloved: All that is born of God overcomes the world; and this is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith. Who is there that overcomes the world if not he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? This is He Who came in water and in blood, Jesus Christ; not in the water only, but in the water and in the blood. And it is the Spirit that bears witness that Christ is the truth. For there are three that bear witness in heaven: the Father, the Word and the Holy Spirit: and these three are one. And there are three that bear witness on earth: the Spirit, and the water, and the blood; and these three are one. If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God which is greater, that He has borne witness concerning His Son. He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony of God in himself.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Matt. 28, 7. "On the day of My Resurrection," says the Lord, "I will go before you into Galilee." Alleluia. V. John 20, 26. After eight days, the doors being closed, Jesus stood in the midst of His disciples, and said, "Peace be to you!" Alleluia.

Gospel: John 20, 19-31. At that time, when it was late that same day, the first of the week, though the doors where the disciples gathered had been closed for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst and said to them, "Peace be to you!" And when He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. The disciples therefore rejoiced at the sight of the Lord. He therefore said to them again, "Peace be to you! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you." When He had said this, He breathed upon them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit; whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven them; and whose sins you shall retain, they are retained." Now Thomas, one of the Twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. The other disciples therefore said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the place of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe." And after eight days, His disciples were again inside, and Thomas with them. Jesus came, the doors being closed, and stood in their midst, and said, "Peace be to you!" Then He said to Thomas, "Bring here your finger, and see My hands; and bring here your hand, and put it into My side; and be not unbelieving, but believing." Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Because you have seen Me, Thomas, you have believed. Blessed are they who have not seen, and yet have believed." Many other signs also Jesus worked in the sight of His disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in His name.

Offertory: Matt. 28, 2. 5. 6. An angel of the Lord came down from heaven, and said to the women, "He Whom you seek has risen even as He said." Alleluia

Secret: Receive, we beseech You, O Lord, the offerings of Your exulting Church; and to her, to whom You have given cause for so great a joy, grant the fruit of perpetual gladness.

Communion: John 20, 27. Put in your hand, and know the place of the nails, alleluia: and be not unbelieving, but believing: alleluia, alleluia.

Postcommunion: We beseech You, O Lord our God, that the most holy rites, which You have given us for a safeguard for this new life, may become our remedy both now and for time to come.
