

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING

SOVEREIGN PRIEST

NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Introit: “I am the salvation of the people,” says the Lord; “in whatever tribulation they shall cry to Me, I will hear them; and I will be their Lord forever.” Ps. 77, 1. Hearken, My people, to My teaching; incline your ears to the words of My mouth.

Prayer: Almighty and merciful God, in Your bounty, graciously defend us from all that is hurtful; that, free in mind and body, we may with ready minds carry out the things that are Yours.

Epistle: Eph. 4, 23-28. Brethren: Be renewed in the spirit of your mind, and put on the new man, which has been created according to God in justice and holiness of truth. Wherefore, put away lying and speak truth each one with his neighbor, because we are members of one another. “Be angry and do not sin”; do not let the sun go down upon your anger; do not give place to the devil. He who was wont to steal, let him steal no longer; but rather let him labor, working with his hands at what is good, that he may have something to share with him who suffers need.

Gradual: Ps. 140, 2. Let my prayer come like incense before You, O Lord. V. The lifting up of my hands, like the evening sacrifice.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 104, 1. Give thanks to the Lord, invoke His name; make known among the nations His deeds. Alleluia.

Gospel: Matt. 22, 1-14. At that time, Jesus spoke to the chief priests and the Pharisees in parables, saying, “The kingdom of heaven is like a king who made a marriage feast for his son. And he sent his servants to call in those invited to the marriage feast, but they would not come. Again he sent out other servants, saying, ‘Tell those who are invited, behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and fatlings are killed, and everything is ready; come to the marriage feast.’ But they made light of it, and went off, one to his farm, and another to his business; and the rest laid hold of his servants, treated them shamefully, and killed them. But when the king heard of it, he was angry; and he sent his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burnt their city. Then he said to his servants, ‘The marriage feast indeed is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy; go therefore to the crossroads, and invite to the marriage feast whomever you shall find.’ And his servants went out into the roads, and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; and the marriage feast was filled with guests. Now the king went in to see the guests, and he saw there a man who had not on a wedding garment. And he said to him, ‘Friend, how did you come in here without a wedding garment?’ But he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, ‘Bind his hands and feet and cast him forth into the darkness outside, where there will be the weeping, and the gnashing of teeth.’ For many are called, but few are chosen.”

Offertory: Ps. 137, 7. Though I walk amid distress, You preserve me, O Lord; against the anger of my enemies You raise Your hand; Your right hand saves me.

Secret: Grant, we beseech You, O Lord, that these gifts which we offer in the sight of Your Majesty, may be salutary to us.

Communion: Ps. 118, 4-5. You have commanded that Your precepts be diligently kept. Oh, that I might be firm in the ways of keeping Your statutes!

Postcommunion: May Your healing power, O Lord, mercifully free us from our perverse inclinations, and make us ever cleave to Your commandments.

MISSION GABON

Dear Faithful of St. Mary's,

The Company of the Immaculate would like to ask for your support and help for this year's projects. We will be focusing on helping the missions of the Institute of Christ the King in Gabon, Africa. The Institute is constructing a church in the capital city of Libreville and maintains its missions in other parts of the country. The majority of the people served by our priests live in a state of poverty and lack the material necessities of life.

First and foremost, we are in need of prayers. We will be making a spiritual bouquet for the priests and seminarians of the mission as well as the faithful under their care (Masses, Communions, Adoration, novenas, Rosaries and chaplets, works of charity).

We will also be collecting many items to send over in large packages. For the moment we are asking for the following items:

Rosaries, medals and other sacramentals

Modest spring and summer clothes for children and adults

Shoes and sandals

Beautiful toys

Toiletries

Sheet music (vocal in Latin or French)

Office supplies

The donation baskets are located in Thomas Hall under the bulletin board of the Company of the Immaculate. Anything you can provide will be much appreciated! As a family of St. Mary's, we all have the duty and privilege of helping each other, whether it be through spiritual or temporal means. Thank you and God bless you!

— the Company of the Immaculate

Prayer to St. Therese for the Missions

St. Therese of the Child Jesus, thou who hast been rightly proclaimed Patroness of Catholic missions throughout the world, remember the burning desire which thou didst manifest here on earth to plant the Cross of Christ on every shore and to preach the Gospel even to the consummation of the world; we implore thee, according to thy promise, to assist all priests and missionaries and the whole Church of God, and especially our missions in Gabon. Obtain for us the grace to aid our missionaries by our prayers and acts of charity, so that the souls entrusted to them may be brought to the light of the truth. O glorious virgin St. Therese, heavenly Patroness of the Missions, hear and answer us.
