

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING

SOVEREIGN PRIEST

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

Introit: Psalm 96: 7, 8. Adore God, all you His angels: Sion heard, and was glad; and the daughters of Juda rejoiced. Ps. 96: 1. The Lord hath reigned; let the earth rejoice: let many islands be glad. Glory be. Adore God, all you His angels.

Collect: Almighty, eternal God, look with mercy upon our infirmities, and stretch forth the right hand of Thy majesty to protect us. Through our Lord.

Against Schism: O God, who dost correct what is gone astray and gatherest together what is scattered, and keepest what Thou hast gathered together, we beseech Thee in Thy mercy to pour down upon Christian people the grace of union with Thee, that putting aside disunion and attaching themselves to the true shepherd of Thy Church, they may be able to render Thee due service. Through Our Lord.

Epistle: Romans 12: 16-21. Brethren, be not wise in your own conceits. To no man rendering evil for evil: providing good things not only in the sight of God, but also in the sight of men. If it be possible, as much as it is in you, having peace with all men. Revenge not yourselves, my dearly beloved; but give place unto wrath, for it is written, Revenge is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. But if thy enemy be hungry, give him to eat; if he thirst, give him to drink, for doing this, thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head. Be not overcome by evil, but overcome evil by good.

Gradual: Psalm 101: 16, 17. The Gentiles shall fear Thy name, O Lord, and all the kings of the earth Thy glory. V. For the Lord hath built up Sion, and He shall be seen in His majesty. Alleluia, alleluia. Ps. 96: 1. The Lord hath reigned, let the earth rejoice: let many islands be glad. Alleluia.

Gospel: St. Matthew 8: 1-13. At that time, when Jesus was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed Him; and behold a leper came and adored Him, saying, Lord, if Thou wilt Thou canst make me clean. And Jesus stretching forth His hand, touched him, saying, I will, be thou made clean: and forthwith his leprosy was cleansed. And Jesus saith to him, See thou tell no man: but go, show thyself to the priest, and offer the gift which Moses commanded for a testimony unto them. And when He had entered into Capharnaum, there came to Him a centurion beseeching Him, and saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, and is grievously tormented. And Jesus saith to him, I will come and heal him. And the centurion making answer, said, Lord, I am not worthy that Thou shouldst enter under my roof: but only say the word, and my servant shall be healed. For I also am a man subject to authority, having under me soldiers: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he cometh: and to my servant, Do this, and he doth it. And Jesus hearing this, marvelled; and said to them that followed Him, Amen I say to you, I have not found so great faith in Israel. And I say to you, that many shall come from the east and the west, and shall sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven; but the children of the kingdom shall be cast into the exterior darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. And Jesus said to the centurion, Go, and as thou hast believed, so be it done to thee: and the servant was healed at the same hour.

Offertory: Psalm 117: 16, 17. The right hand of the Lord hath wrought strength, the right hand of the Lord hath exalted me: I shall not die, but live, and shall declare the works of the Lord.

Secret: May this offering, we beseech Thee, O Lord, wipe out our sins, and sanctify the bodies and minds of Thy servants for the celebration of the sacrifice. Through our Lord.

Against Schism: Sanctify, O Lord, for the union of Christian people, these gifts offered to Thee; and by their means grant us the grace of union and peace within Thy Church. Through Our Lord.

Communion: St. Luke 4: 22. They all wondered at these things, which proceeded from the mouth of God.

Postcommunion: O Lord, Who dost give freely the enjoyment of so great mysteries, we beseech Thee that Thou wouldst vouchsafe to render us truly worthy to receive their effects. Through our Lord.

Against Schism: We beseech Thee, O Lord, that this Thy holy communion which we have received, as it represents the union of the faithful in Thee, so may it bring about reunion in Thy Church.

Edward Osterbrink, RIP

This week we bid farewell to another American hero of our St. Mary's family, Mr. Edward Osterbrink. A decorated veteran of the Battle of the Bulge, Edward returned home from the Second World War to raise a family and live as a soldier of Christ. Edward had a lifelong love for the prayers of the Mass and for sacred music. We extend our deepest condolences to his son Todd and to the rest of his family and pray that he may soon take his place in the ranks of the Church Triumphant.

General Martin Brandtner, RIP

With great sadness I must inform you of the death of retired General Martin Brandtner, USMC. The most decorated Marine who served in Vietnam, Gen. Brandtner was a longtime friend of St. Mary's Oratory and of many of the faithful here. We are deeply grateful for his generosity and hard work in helping to bring about our church restoration in 2003. We join as well in the gratitude of many Americans for his inestimable sacrifice for our nation. We extend our deepest condolences to Gen. Brandtner's wife, Sandra, and to all his family, especially his daughter Cindy and her family here in Wausau. I will celebrate a Requiem Mass for the repose of his soul upon my return from Italy and the return of family and friends from the funeral in Nevada.— the Rector

The Pilgrim Virgin of Fatima is waiting for your family to adopt her for a week or two. St. Mary's has one of these pilgrim statues, and the men of the Holy Name Society are in charge of its circulation. If you are interested in welcoming the Fatima Statue into your home for a couple of weeks, please sign up on the form provided in Scholz Hall.

CHAIR OF UNITY OCTAVE
January 18 - 25

From the feast of St. Peter's Chair in Rome on January 18 to the feast of the Conversion of St. Paul on January 25, the Church observes the Chair of Unity Octave for the return of all separated Christians to the True Fold of Christ and for the conversion of all who do not yet know our Savior. The prayers for the removal of schism are added after the prayers of the day at Mass, and each day of the octave is offered for a specific intention:

- January 18: The union of all Christians in the one true faith and in the Church
- January 19: The return of separated eastern Christians to communion with the Holy See
- January 20: The reconciliation of Anglicans with the Holy See
- January 21: The reconciliation of European Protestants with the Holy See
- January 22: That American Christians become one in union with the Chair of Peter
- January 23: The restoration of lapsed Catholics to the sacramental life of the Church
- January 24: That the Jewish people come into their inheritance in Jesus Christ
- January 25: The missionary extension of Christ's kingdom throughout the world.

*The indulgenced prayers to be recited can be found on the table in Scholz Hall.
We shall recite them after Mass each day of the Octave.*

ANNUAL ST. MARY'S PRO-LIFE RALLY

Today Sunday, January 22, 2017

11:30 A.M. – Outdoor Life Chain & Rosary in church

12:00 noon – Lunch in Thomas Hall

1:00 P.M. – Speaker: Julia Holcomb

Julia Holcomb is the author of the memoir The Light of the World— the Steven Tyler and Julia Holcomb Story, published on LifeSiteNews, and credits her faith in Jesus Christ as the life line that helped her rebuild her life after her abortion trauma. Julia is also an accomplished artist, having studied painting at the Angel Academy of Art in Florence, Italy and the Toronto Academy of Realist Art. She specializes in iconography, portraiture and landscape realism. Today Julia is happily married to her husband of 30 years and together they have seven children.
