SOVEREIGN PRIEST

FEAST OF ST. FRANCIS DE SALES

Introit: Ecclesiasticus 45: 8-9. He made an everlasting covenant with him, and gave him the priesthood of the nation, and made him blessed in glory, and He girded him about with a glorious girdle, and clothed him with a robe of glory, and crowned him with majestic attire. Psalm 118: 103. My soul is continually in my hands: and I have not forgotten thy law. V. Glory be . . . He made an everlasting covenant . . .

Collect: O God, Who for the salvation of souls didst make blessed Francis, Thy Confessor and Bishop, all things to all men; graciously grant that, filled with the sweetness of Thy charity, directed by his teaching, and assisted by his prayers, we may obtain eternal joys. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who livest and reignest with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, forever and ever. Amen.

Commemoration of Fourth Sunday after Epiphany: O God, Who knowest that we are beset by perils so great as to be unendurable because of our human frailty, grant us health of mind and body, so that by Thine assistance we may conquer the things with which we are afflicted because of our sins. Through our Lord.

Epistle: Ephesians 3: 7-21. Brethren: By the Gospel: of which I am made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God, which is given to me according to the operation of His power: To me, the least of all the saints, is given this grace, to preach among the Gentiles, the unsearchable riches of Christ, And to enlighten all men, that they may see what is the dispensation of the mystery which hath been hidden from eternity in God, who created all things: That the manifold wisdom of God may be made known to the principalities and powers in heavenly places through the church, According to the eternal purpose, which He made, in Christ Jesus our Lord: In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of Him. Wherefore I pray you not to faint at my tribulations for you, which is your glory. For this cause I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom all paternity in heaven and earth is named, That He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened by his Spirit with might unto the inward man, That Christ may dwell by faith in your hearts; that being rooted and founded in charity, You may be able to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth, and length, and height, and depth: To know also the charity of Christ, which surpasseth all knowledge, that you may be filled unto all the fullness of God. Now to Him who is able to do all things more abundantly than we desire or understand, according to the power that worketh in us; To Him be glory in the church, and in Christ Jesus unto all generations, world without end. Amen.

Gradual: Ecclesiasticus 33: 18-19. See that I have not laboured for myself only, but for all that seek discipline. V. Hear me, ye great men, and all ye people, and hearken with your ears, ye rulers of the church.

Alleluia. Alleluia. Psalm 32: 18. Behold the eyes of the Lord are upon them that fear Him, and in them that hope in His mercy. Alleluia.

Gospel: St. Matthew 5: 13-19. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt lose its savour, wherewith shall it be salted? It is good for nothing any more but to be cast out, and to be trodden on by men. You are the light of the world. A city seated on a mountain cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle and put it under a bushel, but upon a candlestick, that it may shine to all that are in the house. So let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven. Do not think that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets. I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill. For amen I say unto you, till heaven and earth pass, one jot, or one tittle shall not pass of the law, till all be fulfilled. He therefore that shall break one of these least commandments, and shall so teach men, shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven. But he that shall do and teach, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

Announcements

After long prayerful reflection, Kevin Koski has discerned that he is called to return to the world. Our prayers go with him as he pursues his new path, along with our gratitude for his many contributions to the life of St. Mary's Oratory. The level 1 catechism class will now be taught by Canon Huberfeld.

THE PILGRIM VIRGIN OF FATIMA STATUE

The Pilgrim Virgin of Fatima is waiting for your family to adopt her for a week or two. One of the most effective means of bringing Our Blessed Mother to the attention of luke-warm Christians is "The Pilgrim Virgin."

This practice originated at Fatima on the 30th anniversary (May 13th, 1947) of Our Lady's first Apparition there. On that date the Bishop of Leiria blessed two statues of Our Lady of Fatima and sent them on distant pilgrimages—one to the Far east, the other to the West. The statues are exact replicas of the official one, which was made according to the instructions of St. Lucia, and which is venerated in the Chapel of the Apparitions at Cova da Iria. There is reason to believe that Our Blessed Mother herself inspired this beneficial practice of "The Pilgrim Virgin." It has many times received the blessing and the approval of the Holy Father.

The basic idea of the Pilgrim Virgin is this: Most people are unable to make a pilgrimage to Fatima. Our Lady, with characteristic humility and love, overcomes this difficulty by reversing the process. She becomes the Pilgrim. Instead of your making a pilgrimage to her home at Fatima, she makes a pilgrimage to yours.

Today, only God and His Heavenly Mother can number the Fatima statues now on pilgrimage throughout the world. St. Mary's has one of these pilgrim statues, and the men of the Holy Name Society are in charge of its circulation. If you are interested in welcoming the Fatima Statue into your home for a couple of weeks, please sign up on the form provided in Scholz Hall.

May Our Lady intercede for you and your family.

Offertory: Apocalypse 2: 19. I know thy works, and thy faith, and thy charity, and thy ministry, and thy patience, and thy last works which are more than the former.

Secret: Through this salutary oblation which we offer to Thee, O Lord, deign to light our hearts with the divine fire of the Holy Ghost, with which Thou didst inflame in a most wonderful way the meek soul of blessed Francis. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who livest and reignest with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, forever and ever. Amen.

Commemoration of Fourth Sunday after Epiphany: Grant, we beseech Thee, almighty God, that this sacrifice offered to Thee, may purge us of all evil and fortify our weak nature. Through our Lord.

Proper Preface of St. Francis de Sales: It is truly right and just and salutary for us always and everywhere to give thanks, O Holy Lord, Father Almighty, Eternal God through Christ our Lord, Who raised up in His Church a shepherd according to His own Heart in blessed Francis in order that he might strengthen piety through his writings, words and example, so that the rough ways may be made straight. In meekness of spirit he fulfilled these things in such a wonderful way that not only did he bring the hardened hearts of sinners to repentance, but he also brought back to the unity of the Catholic faith the rebellious minds of heretics. So with the Angels and Archangels with Thrones and Dominions, with the whole multitude of the heavenly host, we sing the hymn of Thy glory without end.

Communion: I Corinthians 9: 22. To the weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak. I became all things to all men, that I might save all.

Postcommunion: O God, who in blessed Francis, Confessor and Bishop, hast bestowed the highest service of Christian perfection, and through him hast deigned to raise up in Thy Church a new family of holy virgins, grant, we beseech Thee, that through the sacraments which we have received, we may be imitators of his meekness on earth so that we may receive glory in Heaven. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who livest and reignest with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, forever and ever. Amen.

Commemoration of Fourth Sunday after Epiphany: May Thy gifts, O God, free us from the allurements of earthly things, and ever restore us with heavenly nourishment. Through our Lord.

Last Gospel for the Fourth Sunday after Epiphany: St. Matthew 8: 23-27. At that time, when Jesus entered into the ship, His disciples followed Him. And behold a great tempest arose in the sea, so that the ship was covered with waves, but He was asleep. And they came to Him and awaked Him, saying, Lord, save us, we perish. And Jesus saith to them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then rising up, He commanded the winds and the sea, and there came a great calm. But the men wondered, saying, What manner of man is this, for the winds and the sea obey Him?
