SOVEREIGN PRIEST

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Introit: Ecclesiasticus. 36: 18. Give peace, O Lord, to them that patiently wait for Thee, that Thy prophets may be found faithful: hear the prayers of Thy servant, and of Thy people Israel. Ps. 121: 1. I rejoiced at the things that were said to me: We shall go into the house of the Lord. Glory be. Give peace, O Lord.

Collect: Let the operation of Thy mercy, we beseech Thee, O Lord, direct our hearts, for without Thee we cannot please Thee. Through our Lord.

For the Pope: O God, the Shepherd and Ruler of all the faithful, look down favorably upon Thy servant Francis, whom Thou hast been pleased to appoint pastor over Thy Church; grant, we beseech Thee, that he may benefit both by word and example those over whom he is set, and thus attain unto life eternal, together with the flock committed to his care. Through our Lord.

Epistle: I Corinthians 1: 4-6. Brethren, I give thanks to my God always for you, for the grace of God that is given you in Jesus Christ, that in all things you are made rich in Him, in all utterance and in all knowledge, as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you, so that nothing is wanting to you in any grace, waiting for the manifestation of Our Lord Jesus Christ. Who also will confirm you unto the end without crime, in the day of the coming of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

Gradual: Psalm 121: 1, 7. I rejoiced at the things that were said to me: We shall go into the house of Our Lord. Let peace be in thy strength, and abundance in thy towers. Alleluia, alleluia. Ps. 101: 16. The gentiles shall fear Thy name, O Lord: and all the kings of the earth Thy glory. Alleluia.

Gospel: St. Matthew 9: 1-8. At that time, Jesus entering into a ship, passed over the water and came into His own city. And behold they brought to Him one sick of the palsy lying in a bed; and Jesus seeing their faith, said to the man sick of the palsy, Be of good heart, son, thy sins are forgiven thee. And behold some of the scribes said within themselves, He blasphemeth. And Jesus seeing their thoughts, said, Why do you think evil in your hearts? which is easier to say, Thy sins are forgiven thee; or to say, Arise and walk? But that you may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins (then said He to the man sick of the palsy). Arise, take up thy bed, and go into thy house. And he arose, and went into his house. And the multitude seeing it, feared, and glorified God Who had given such power to men.

Offertory: Exodus 24: 4, 5. Moses consecrated an altar to the Lord, offering upon it holocausts, and sacrificing victims: he made an evening sacrifice to the Lord God for an odor of sweetness, in the sight of the children of Israel.

Secret: O God, Who, through the august communication of this sacrifice, dost make us partakers of the one supreme divinity, grant, we beseech Thee, that, as we know Thy truth, so we may ever follow it with worthy actions. Through our Lord.

For the Pope: We beseech Thee, O Lord, that Thou mayest be appeased by the gifts we offer, and govern by Thy continual protection Thy servant Francis, whom Thou hast been pleased to appoint pastor over Thy Church. Through our Lord.

Communion: Psalm 95: 8, 9. Bring up sacrifices, and come into His courts: adore ye the Lord in His holy court.

Postcommunion: Strengthened by the sacred gift, we render thanks to Thee, O Lord, beseeching Thy mercy that Thou make us entirely worthy to partake thereof. Through our Lord.

For the Pope: May the reception of this Divine Sacrament protect us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, and ever save and defend Thy servant Francis, whom Thou hast been pleased to appoint pastor over Thy Church, together with the flock committed to his care. Through our Lord.

Announcements

Renovation of Thomas Hall

We kindly ask for your patience throughout this month of October as our church hall undergoes some significant alterations. This week the hall will be inaccessible as parts of the drywall are removed and tracking is installed for two movable partitions, which will allow the hall to be divided into three separate soundproof areas. The partitions themselves will be installed once the new floor is laid toward the end of the month. The primary reason for the attractive new flooring is practical rather than aesthetic. It will not require stripping and re-waxing and will thus significantly reduce the time and money expended to maintain the current flooring. Once these stages are completed, sound absorption panels will be installed on the ceiling to reduce the noise level and make conversation easier. This entire project has been made possible by a generous private donation, for which our community is eternally grateful.

Pro-Life Essay Contest

2017 Knights of Columbus Culture of Life Essay Contest entry forms will be available after both Masses October 1. Forms are also available by post or email from Jim Aldrich, jamesaldrich39@gmail.com or call 920-273-9619. The topic is "Why Am I Pro-Life?"

Respect Life Sunday/Month – Help Defund Planned Parenthood

As we celebrate Respect Life Sunday and Respect Life Month (October), let us urge our elected officials in Congress to advance legislation ending taxpayer funding of Planned Parenthood, whose primary business is abortion. Visit www.dioc.org/respect-life for easy guidelines for contacting Senators Ron Johnson and Tammy Baldwin, and the U.S. Representative for your district.

Oct. 12, 2017 – What If We've Been Wrong? The untold story of America's 'abortion king,' Dr. Bernard Nathanson, and one woman's mission to share his pro-life conversion.

Terry Beatley, founder and president of the Hosea Initiative and author of What If We've Been Wrong?, was sent on a powerful mission by Dr. Nathanson as he lay dying of cancer. Terry will speak at the annual diocesan Gospel of Life Celebration on Thursday, Oct. 12 at Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary Parish. Mass will be celebrated by Bishop Callahan at 6:00 pm, with the talk at 7:00 pm.

Fundraising for St. Mary's

Booklets for the Fall Younkers Community Day Sale are now available for you to purchase. Each booklet includes money-saving coupons which can be used from November 8-11 at Younkers. Cost is $5 per booklet—your $5 donation goes directly to St. Mary's. Please see Oratory Secretary Terry Scheid to purchase booklets and for more information.

The Feast of the Holy Rosary from the Roman Breviary

When the heresy of the Albigenses was making head against God in the County of Toulouse, and striking deeper roots every day, the holy Dominic, who had but just laid the foundations of the Order of Friars Preachers, threw his whole strength into the travail of plucking these blasphemies up. That he might be fitter for the work, he cried for help with his whole soul to that Blessed Maiden, whose glory the falsehoods of the heretics so insolently assailed, and to whom it hath been granted to trample down every heresy throughout the whole earth. It is said that he had from her a word, bidding him preach up the saying of the Rosary among the people, as a strong help against heresy and sin, and it is wonderful with how stout an heart and how good a success he did the work laid upon him. This Rose-Garden, or Rosary, is a certain form of prayer, wherein we say one-hundred-and-fifty times the salutation of the Angel, and the Lord's Prayer between every ten times, and, each of the fifteen times that we say the Lord's Prayer, and repeat tenfold the salutation, think of one of fifteen great events in the history of our Redemption. From that time forth this form of godly prayer was extraordinarily spread about by holy Dominic, and waxed common. That this same Dominic was the founder and prime mover thereof hath been said by Popes in divers letters of the Apostolic See.

From this healthy exercise have grown up numberless good fruits in the Christian Commonwealth. Among these deserveth well to be named that great victory over the Sultan of Turkey, which the most holy Pope Pius V, and the Christian Princes whom he had roused, won at Lepanto. The day whereon this victory was gained was the very one whereon the Guild-brethren of the most holy Rosary, throughout the whole world, were used to offer their accustomed prayers and appointed supplications, and the event therefore was not unnaturally connected therewith. This being the avowed opinion of Gregory XIII, he ordered that in all Churches where there was, or should be, an Altar of the Rosary, a Feast should be kept for ever, to give unceasing thanks to the Blessed Virgin, under her style of Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, for that extraordinary mercy of God. Other Popes also have granted almost numberless Indulgences to those who say the Rosary, and to those who join its Guilds.

In the year 1716, Charles VI, Elect-Emperor of the Romans, won a famous victory over countless hordes of Turks, in the kingdom of Hungary, upon the day when the Feast of the Dedication of St. Mary of the Snows was being kept, and almost at the very moment when the Guild-brethren of the most holy Rosary were moving through the streets of Rome in public and solemn procession, amid vast multitudes, all filled with the deepest enthusiasm, calling vehemently upon God for the defeat of the Turks, and entreating the Virgin Mother of God to bring the might of her succour to the help of the Christians. A few days later, the Turks raised the siege of Corfu. These mercies Clement XI devoutly ascribed to the helpful prayers of the Blessed Virgin, and that the memory and the sweetness of such a blessing might for all time coming endure gloriously, he extended to the whole Church the observance of the Feast of the most holy Rosary, for the same day and of the same rank, Benedict XIII commanded the record of all these things to be given a place in the Service-book of the Church of Rome; and Leo XIII, in the most troublous times of the Church and the cruel storm of long pressing evils, by fresh Apostolic letters vehemently urged upon all the faithful throughout the earth the often saying of the Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, raised the dignity of the yearly festival, added to the Litany of Loreto the Invocation Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, and granted to the whole Church a special Office for this solemn occasion. Let us all then be earnest in honouring the most holy Mother of God in this form which she liketh so well, that even as the entreaties of Christ's faithful people, approaching her in her Garden of Roses, have so often won her to scatter and destroy their earthly foes, so she may gain for them the victory over their hellish foes likewise.
