TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Introit: Daniel 3: 31, 29, 35. All that Thou hast done to us, O Lord, Thou hast done in true judgment; because we have sinned against Thee, and we have not obeyed Thy commandments: but give glory to Thy name, and deal with us according to the multitude of Thy mercy. Ps. 118: 1. Blessed are the undefiled in the way; who walk in the law of the Lord. Glory be. All that Thou hast done.

Collect: Being appeased, O Lord, grant to Thy faithful in abundance, we beseech Thee, both forgiveness and peace, that they may both be cleansed from all offenses and with a quiet mind give themselves to Thy service. Through our Lord.

For the Propagation of the Faith: O God, Who willest that all men should be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth, send, we beseech Thee, laborers to Thy harvest, and give them to speak Thy word with all confidence, that Thy message may run and may be made plain, and that all peoples may know Thee, the only true God, and Him Whom Thou hast sent, Jesus Christ our Lord. Who with Thee.

Epistle: Ephesians 5: 15-21. Brethren, See how you walk circumspectly, not as unwise, but as wise; redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Wherefore, become not unwise, but understanding what is the will of God. And be not drunk with wine, wherein is luxury: but be ye filled with the holy Spirit, speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns, and spiritual canticles, singing and making melody in your hearts to the Lord: giving thanks always for all things, in the name of Our Lord Jesus Christ, to God and the Father; being subject one to another in the fear of Christ.

Gradual: Psalms 144: 15, 16. The eyes of all hope in Thee, O Lord; and Thou givest them meat in due season. Thou openest Thy hand, and fillest every living creature with Thy blessing. Alleluia, alleluia. Ps. 107: 2. My heart is ready, O God, my heart is ready: I will sing, and will give praise to Thee, my glory. Alleluia.

Gospel: St. John 4: 46-53. At that time, There was a certain ruler whose son was sick at Capharnaum. He having heard that Jesus was come from Judea into Galilee, went to Him, and prayed Him to come down, and heal his son; for he was at the point of death. Jesus therefore said to him, Unless you see signs and wonders, you believe not. The ruler saith to Him, Lord, come down before that my son die. Jesus saith to him, Go thy way, thy son liveth. The man believed the word which Jesus said to him, and went his way. And as he was going down, his servants met him, and they brought word, saying, that his son lived. He asked therefore of them the hour wherein he grew better. And they said to him, yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. The father therefore knew that it was at the same hour that Jesus said to him, Thy son liveth; and himself believed, and his whole house.

Offertory: Psalms 136: 1. Upon the rivers of Babylon, there we sat and wept; when we remembered Thee, O Sion.

Secret: Let these mysteries, we beseech Thee, O Lord, be our heavenly medicine and purge the evil from our hearts. Through our Lord.

For the Propagation of the Faith: Behold, O God, our protector, and look upon the face of Thy Christ, Who gave Himself a redemption for all, and cause that, from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof, Thy name be magnified among the gentiles, and that in every place a clean offering be sacrificed to Thy name. Through the same.

Communion: Ps. 118: 49, 50. Be thou mindful of Thy word to Thy servant, O Lord, in which Thou hast given me hope: this hath comforted me in my humiliation.

Postcommunion: That we may be rendered worthy of Thy sacred gifts, O Lord, grant us, we beseech Thee, ever to obey Thy commandments. Through our Lord.

For the Propagation of the Faith: Strengthened by the gift of our redemption, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that by this aid of everlasting salvation our faith may ever increase. Through our Lord.

Thank you and Farewell!

Dear faithful and friends of Saint Mary's Oratory, The joy with which I respond to the new assignment in Kansas City entrusted to me by my superiors is matched only by my sadness in having to bid you all farewell—but, in fact, even that sadness is also tempered by a deep sense of gratitude. Gratitude, first of all, for the very heartwarming farewell party last Sunday, and also for the beautiful painting of Saint Mary's (which will hang in my new office as a lasting reminder of you all), as well as for the individual cards and gifts. Gratitude also to you all for your friendship and many kindnesses over the last year. I think the faithful often are not fully aware how edifying their example is to their priests. Especially in this world which seems to turn its back more and more on our Catholic faith, when not fighting against her directly, the witness that you give in striving to live "unspotted from this world" (James 1:27) and to pass on the integral Catholic faith to your children is an important encouragement to us priests, which reminds us of the reason for our own vocation. I would finally like to take this opportunity publically to thank Canon Huberfeld, your rector, for his guidance and priestly friendship over this last year. In all of the Institute's churches, our apostolic work is but the overflowing of the strength we receive from the altar first and from our canonical camaraderie next. May Our Lady of Wausau bless and keep you all. — Canon Altieri.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST WITH ALL SAINTS PARADE
AFTER THE 10:00 A.M. MASS ON SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 5

Sponsored by the Holy Name Society
$5.00 per plate
Children in costume eat free of charge.

Wednesday, November 1 is the Feast of All Hallows.
In former times, the Feast of All Saints was of such great importance that it was preceded by a vigil (All Hallows Eve or 'Hallow E'en') and then celebrated for eight days,
in accordance with the practice of the ancient Hebrews.

On Sunday November 5, the men of the Holy Name Society will offer us their traditional pancake breakfast. Your children are invited to come dressed as saints and to march in the All Saints Parade into the hall, after which each of them will give a short presentation on the saint whom he or she has depicted.

All Saints Party
Donations

If you would like to donate candy for the All Saints Party on Sunday, November 5, please leave it on the counter
in the kitchen in Thomas Hall
by Sunday, October 29.
