

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING

SOVEREIGN PRIEST

FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING

Introit: Apocalypse 5: 12 & 1: 6. The Lamb that was slain is worthy to receive power, and divinity, and wisdom, and strength, and honor. To Him be glory and empire for ever and ever. Ps. 71, 1. Give to the King Thy judgment, O God: and to the King's Son Thy justice. V. Glory be. The Lamb.

Collect: Almighty and eternal God, Who hast wished to restore all things through Thy beloved Son, the King of the universe, graciously grant that all the families of nations, separated by the wound of sin, may be subjected to His most gentle rule. Who with Thee liveth.

Epistle: Colossians 1: 12-20. Brethren, we give thanks to God the Father, Who hath made us worthy to be partakers of the lot of the saints in light: Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of the Son of His love. In Whom we have redemption through His blood, the remission of sins; Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature; for in Him were all things created in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones, or dominations, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by Him and in Him. And He is before all, and by Him all things consist. And He is the head of the body, the Church, Who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things He may hold the primacy: because in Him, it hath well pleased the Father, that all fullness should dwell; and through Him to reconcile all things unto Himself, making peace through the blood of His cross, both as to the things that are on earth, and the things that are in heaven, in Christ Jesus Our Lord.

Gradual: Ps. 71: 8, 11. He shall rule from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth. V. And all kings of the earth shall adore Him: all nations shall serve Him.

Alleluia: Alleluia, alleluia. V. Daniel 7: 14. His power is an everlasting power that shall not be taken away: and His kingdom that shall not be destroyed. Alleluia.

Gospel: St. John 18: 33-37. At that time: Pilate said to Jesus: Art thou the King of the Jews? Jesus answered: Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or have others told it thee of Me? Pilate answered: Am I a Jew? Thy own nation, and the chief priests, have delivered Thee up to me: what hast Thou done? Jesus answered: My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My servants would certainly strive that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now My kingdom is not from hence. Pilate therefore said to Him: Art Thou a king then? Jesus answered: Thou sayest that I am a King. For this was I born, and for this came I into the world; that I should give testimony to the truth, Everyone that is of the truth, heareth My voice.

Offertory: Ps. 2: 8. Ask of Me, and I will give Thee the Gentiles for Thy inheritance, and the utmost parts of the earth for Thy possession.

Secret: O Lord, we offer Thee this host for the reconciliation of humanity; grant, we beseech Thee, that Jesus Christ Thy Son our Lord, Whom we immolate in this sacrifice, will bestow on all Gentiles the gifts of unity and peace. Who with Thee liveth.

Communion: Ps. 28: 10, 11. The Lord shall sit King forever. The Lord will bless His people with peace.

Postcommunion: Fed with this immortal nourishment, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that we who glory to fight under the standard of Christ the King, may forever reign with Him on the heavenly throne. Who with Thee liveth.

Thank you and Farewell!

Dear faithful and friends of Saint Mary's Oratory,
The joy with which I respond to the new assignment in Kansas City entrusted to me by my superiors is matched only by my sadness in having to bid you all farewell—but, in fact, even that sadness is also tempered by a deep sense of gratitude. Gratitude, first of all, for the very heartwarming farewell party last Sunday, and also for the beautiful painting of Saint Mary's (which will hang in my new office as a lasting reminder of you all), as well as for the individual cards and gifts. Gratitude also to you all for your friendship and many kindnesses over the last year. I think the faithful often are not fully aware how edifying their example is to their priests. Especially in this world which seems to turn its back more and more on our Catholic faith, when not fighting against her directly, the witness that you give in striving to live "unspotted from this world" (James 1:27) and to pass on the integral Catholic faith to your children is an important encouragement to us priests, which reminds us of the reason for our own vocation. I would finally like to take this opportunity publically to thank Canon Huberfeld, your rector, for his guidance and priestly friendship over this last year. In all of the Institute's churches, our apostolic work is but the overflowing of the strength we receive from the altar first and from our canonical camaraderie next. May Our Lady of Wausau bless and keep you all.
— Canon Altiere

All Saints Party
Donations

If you would like to donate candy for the All Saints Party on Sunday, November 5, please leave it on the counter in the kitchen in Thomas Hall by Sunday, October 29.

Wednesday, November 1 is the Feast of All Hallows.
In former times, the Feast of All Saints was of such great importance that it was preceded by a vigil (All Hallows Eve or 'Hallow E'en') and then celebrated for eight days, in accordance with the practice of the ancient Hebrews.

On Sunday November 5, the men of the Holy Name Society will offer us their traditional pancake breakfast. Your children are invited to come dressed as saints and to march in the All Saints Parade into the hall, after which each of them will give a short presentation on the saint whom he or she has depicted.

A PLENARY INDULGENCE

Is granted on the Feast of Christ the King in all the churches of the Institute for all its faithful (under the usual conditions).

From Nov. 1st through Nov. 8th, a plenary indulgence, applicable to the souls in Purgatory, may be obtained each day by visiting a cemetery and praying for the poor souls.

A PUBLIC ROSARY

will be said every day of the octave at our local Catholic cemeteries.
