

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING

SOVEREIGN PRIEST

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Introit: Ps. 26, 1, 2. The Lord is my light and my salvation: whom shall I fear? The Lord is the protector of my life: of whom shall I be afraid? My enemies that trouble me have themselves been weakened and have fallen. Ps. 26, 3. If armies in camp should stand together against me, my heart shall not fear. V. Glory.

Collect: Grant us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that the course of the world may be directed for us, and that Thy Church may rejoice in peace. Through our Lord.

For the Pope: O God, the Shepherd and Ruler of all the faithful, look down favorably upon Thy servant Francis, whom Thou hast been pleased to appoint pastor over Thy Church; grant, we beseech Thee, that he may benefit both by word and example those over whom he is set, and thus attain unto life eternal, together with the flock committed to his care. Through our Lord.

Epistle: Rom. 8, 18-23. Brethren, I reckon that the sufferings of this time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come, that shall be revealed in us. For the expectation of the creature waiteth for the revelation of the sons of God. For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him that made it subject in hope; because the creature also itself shall be delivered from the servitude of corruption, into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. For we know that every creature groaneth, and travaileth in pain, even till now; and not only it, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the spirit, even we ourselves, groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption of the sons of God, the redemption of our body; in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Gradual: Ps. 78, 9, 10. Forgive us our sins, O Lord, lest the gentiles should at any time say, Where is their God? V. Help us, O God our Saviour; and for the honor of Thy name, O Lord, deliver us. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 9, 5, 10. O God, Who sittest upon the throne, and judgest justice, be Thou the refuge of the poor in tribulation. Alleluia.

Gospel: Luke 5, 1-11. At that time, when the multitude pressed upon Jesus to hear the word of God, He stood by the lake of Genesareth. And He saw two ships standing by the lake; but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets; and going up into one of the ships that was Simon's, He desired him to draw back a little from the land: and sitting He taught the multitudes out of the ship. Now when He had ceased to speak, He said to Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. And Simon, answering, said to Him, Master, we have labored all the night, and have taken nothing, but at Thy word I will let down the net. And when they had done this, they enclosed a very great multitude of fishes; and their net broke: and they beckoned to their partners that were in the other ship, that they should come and help them; and they came, and filled both the ships, so that they were almost sinking. Which when Simon Peter saw, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord. For he was wholly astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of fishes which they had taken: and so were also James and John the sons of Zebedee, who were Simon's partners. And Jesus saith to Simon, Fear not: from henceforth thou shalt catch men. And having brought their ships to land, leaving all things they followed Him.

Offertory: Ps. 12, 4, 5. Enlighten my eyes, that I never sleep in death; lest at any time my enemy say, I have prevailed against him.

Secret: Receiving our oblations, be appeased, we pray Thee, O Lord, and in Thy kindness constrain our wills toward Thee, even when resisting. Through our Lord.

For the Pope: We beseech Thee, O Lord, that Thou mayest be appeased by the gifts we offer, and govern by Thy continual protection Thy servant Francis, whom Thou hast been pleased to appoint pastor over Thy Church. Through our Lord.

Communion: Ps. 17, 3. The Lord is my firmament, and my refuge, and my deliverer, my God is my helper.

Postcommunion: May the mysteries we have received purify us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, and by their virtue protect us. Through our Lord.

For the Pope: May the reception of this Divine Sacrament protect us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, and ever save and defend Thy servant Francis, whom Thou hast been pleased to appoint pastor over Thy Church, together with the flock committed to his care. Through our Lord.

Announcements

Registration for the Summer Youth Camps is now complete, and we are pleased to have such a large group of boys and girls signed up. Each year we welcome families from around the country who are unable to pay the registration fee of $75 per camper. No child is ever turned away. If you would like to sponsor a camper in need, you can make out a check to St. Mary's Oratory for this purpose and placed it in the collection basket or mail or deliver it to the Oratory office.
Thank you for your generosity.

FATHERS' DAY CARNATIONS

Today on Fathers' Day, white carnations will be offered at the church entrances. Honor God the Father, and also your father or husband for his role as protector and leader in your family by giving him a white carnation which symbolizes respect, purity, and decency. A $1 donation is appreciated. Proceeds go to Morality in Media, Marathon County to help them continue the fight against indecency and violence in the media and on the Internet.

New Cleaning Volunteers Needed

A sign-up sheet is available in Scholz Hall for those who would be willing to share their time for the common good in keeping the church and the areas around the church building clean. Newcomers are always welcome!
