

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING
SOVEREIGN PRIEST
St. Mary's Oratory

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Introit: Esther 13, 9, 10, 11. All things are in Thy will, O Lord, and there is none that can resist Thy will: for thou hast made all things, heaven and earth, and all things that are under the cope of heaven: Thou art Lord of all. Ps. 118, 1. Blessed are the undefiled in the way; who walk in the law of the Lord. V. Glory.

Collect: Keep Thy household, we beseech Thee, O Lord, with continual loving-kindness, that by Thy protection it may be free from all adversities and devoted to Thy name in well-doing. Through our Lord.

Epistle: Eph. 6, 10-17. Brethren, be strengthened in the Lord, and in the might of His power. Put you on the armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the deceits of the devil. For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers, against the rulers of the world of this darkness, against the spirits of wickedness in the high places. Therefore, take unto you the armor of God, that you may be able to resist in the evil day, and to stand in all things perfect. Stand therefore having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breast plate of justice, and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; in all things taking the shield of faith, wherewith you may be able to extinguish all the fiery darts of the most wicked one. And take unto you the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the spirit, which is the word of God.

Gradual: Ps. 89, 1, 2. Lord, Thou hast been our refuge, from generation to generation. V. Before the mountains were made, or the earth and the world was formed; from eternity and to eternity Thou art God. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 113, 1. When Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a barbarous people. Alleluia.

Gospel: Matt. 18, 23-35. At that time, Jesus spoke to His disciples this parable: The Kingdom of heaven is likened to a king, who would take an account of his servants. And when he had begun to take the account, one was brought to him that owed him ten thousand talents: and as he had not wherewith to pay it, his lord commanded that he should be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. But that servant falling down, besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And the lord of that servant, being moved with pity, let him go; and forgave him the debt. But when that servant was gone out, he found one of his fellow-servants that owed him a hundred pence: and laying hold of him, he throttled him, saying, Pay what thou owest. And his fellow-servant falling down besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And he would not; but went and cast him into prison till he paid the debt. Now his fellow-servants, seeing what was done, were very much grieved; and they came and told their lord all that was done. Then his lord called him, and saith to him, Thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all the debt, because thou besoughtest me; shouldst not thou then have had compassion also on thy fellow-servant, even as I had compassion on thee? And his lord being angry, delivered him to the torturers until he paid all the debt. So also shall my heavenly Father do to you, if you forgive not every one his brother from your hearts.

Offertory: Job 1. There was a man in the land of Hus, whose name was Job, simple, and upright, and fearing God: whom Satan besought that he might tempt: and power was given him from the Lord over his possessions and his flesh; and he destroyed all his substance and his children; and wounded his flesh also with a grievous ulcer.

Secret: Graciously receive, O Lord, the sacrifices with which Thou hast willed that Thou shouldst be appeased and our salvation, by Thy mighty love, restored. Through our Lord.

Communion: Ps. 118, 81, 84, 86. My soul is in Thy salvation, and in Thy word have I hoped: when wilt Thou execute judgment on them that persecute me? the wicked have persecuted me: help me, O Lord my God.

Postcommunion: Having obtained the nourishment of immortality, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that what has passed our lips we may embrace with a pure mind. Through our Lord.

APOSTOLATE

A Hearty Congratulations to Mr. & Mrs. Matthew Rubenzer

joined in Holy Matrimony on Saturday, October 16 at St. Mary's Oratory.

May the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob be with you, and may He fulfil His blessing in you: that you may see your children's children even unto the third and fourth generation, and thereafter may you have life everlasting, by the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ:

Who with the Father and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth, God for ever and ever. Amen.
(final blessing in the Roman Nuptial Mass)

Have you been down to visit Nancy's Shoppe lately? Perhaps just what is needed right now in your life is a good spiritual book to improve your knowledge of the faith, strengthen your practice of the virtues, and help you advance in the way of prayer. There are also many beautiful religious images and sacramentals to aid your devotion. All proceeds go to benefit the American seminarians of the Institute of Christ the King. A heartfelt thanks goes to our dear Nancy Heideman for her tireless efforts in maintaining this great work over so many years. Go down and have a look today!

November 1 is the Feast of All Hallows.

In former times, the Feast of All Saints was of such great importance that it was preceded by a vigil (All Hallows Eve or 'Hallow E'en') and then celebrated for 8 days, in accordance with the practice of the ancient Hebrews.

On Sunday November 7, our dedicated men will offer us their traditional pancake breakfast. In order to accommodate our large numbers, the Ryan family has graciously proposed to host the breakfast and a whole afternoon of fun at their barn on the west side of town (the same site where our summer camps take place). Your children are invited to come dressed as saints and to march in the All Saints Parade into the barn, after which each of them will give a short presentation on the saint whom he or she has depicted.
