SOVEREIGN PRIEST

THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD (MASS OF THE DAY)

Introit: Is. 9, 6. A Child is born to us, and a Son is given to us; Whose government is upon His shoulder; and His name shall be called the angel of great counsel. Ps. 97, 1. Sing ye to the Lord a new canticle; or He hath done wonderful things. V. Glory.

Collect: Grant, we beseech Thee, O almighty God, that the new birth, in the flesh, of Thine only-begotten Son may deliver us whom slavery from old doth keep under the yoke of sin. Through the same.

Epistle: Heb. 1, 1-12. God, Who diversely and many ways spoke in times past to the fathers by the prophets, last of all, in these days hath spoken to us, by His Son, Whom He hath appointed heir of all things, by Whom also He made the world. Who being the brightness of His glory, and the figure of His substance, and upholding all things by the word of His power, making purgation of sins, sitteth on the right hand of the majesty on high; being made so much better than the angels, as He hath inherited a more excellent name than they. For to which of the angels hath He said at any time: Thou art My Son, to-day have I begotten Thee? And again: I will be to Him a father, and He shall be to Me a son? And again, when He bringeth in the first-begotten into the world, He saith, And let all the angels of God adore Him. And to the angels indeed He saith, He that maketh His angels spirits, and His ministers a flame of fire. But to the Son: Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever; a scepter of justice is the scepter of Thy kingdom. Thou hast loved justice, and hated iniquity; therefore God, Thy God, hath anointed Thee with the oil of gladness above Thy fellows. And: Thou in the beginning, O Lord, didst found the earth; and the works of Thy hands are the heavens. They shall perish, but Thou shalt continue; and they shall all grow old as a garment; and as a vesture shalt Thou change them, and they shall be changed; but Thou art the self-same, and Thy years shall not fail.

Gradual: Ps. 97, 3, 2. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God: sing joyfully to God all the earth. V. The Lord hath made known His salvation; He hath revealed His justice in the sight of the Gentiles.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. A hallowed day hath dawned for us: come ye Gentiles, and adore the Lord; for this day a great light hath descended upon the earth. Alleluia.

Gospel: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by Him, and without Him was made nothing that was made. In Him was life, and the life was the light of men: and the light shineth in darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. This man came for a witness to give testimony of the light, that all men might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony of the light. That was the true light which enlighteneth every man that cometh into this world. He was in the world, and the world was made by Him, and the world knew Him not. He came unto His own, and His own received Him not. But as many as received Him, to them He gave power to become the sons of God: to them that believe in His name: who are born, not of blood, nor of the will of the Flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. AND THE WORD WAS MADE FLESH, and dwelt among us: and we saw His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

Offertory: Ps. 88, 12, 15. Thine are the heavens, and Thine is the earth: the world and the fullness thereof Thou hast founded: justice and judgment are the preparation of Thy throne.

Secret: Sanctify our oblations, O Lord, by the new birth of Thy only-begotten Son, and cleanse us from the stains of our sins. Through the same.

Communion: Ps. 97, 3. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Postcommunion: Grant, we beseech Thee, O almighty God, that, as the Saviour of the world, born this day, is unto us the author of divine generation, so He may also be the bestower of immortality, Who with Thee.

*This little babe, so few days old
Is come to rifle Satan's fold;
All hell doth at his presence quake,
Though he himself for cold do shake;
For in this weak unarmed wise
The gates of hell he will surprise.*

*With tears he fights and wins the field,
His naked breast stands for a shield;
His battering shot are babish cries,
His arrows looks of weeping eyes;
His martial ensigns cold and need
And feeble flesh his warrior's steed.*

*His camp is pitched in a stall
His bulwark but a broken wall
The crib his trench, hay stalks his stakes,
Of shepherds he his muster makes;
And thus as sure his foe to wound,
The Angels' trumps alarum sound.*

*My soul, with Christ join thou in fight,
Stick to the tents that he hath pight;
Within his crib is surest ward,
This little babe will be thy guard;
If thou wilt foil thy foes with joy,
Then flit not from this heavenly boy.*

January 7th Madrigal Dinner

What it is . . .

It will transport you back to the time of the Renaissance, to the time of castles and troubadours and Yuletide festive revelry.

You are heartily invited to our banquet hall to dine with Kings, Queens and Court as we celebrate the season with merriment, mirth, and minstrels.

The mood is one of enchantment as you participate in a festive celebration of Christmas and Epiphany . . . and welcome the New Year with customs from long ago.

Come join us as we share in the joy and cheer of this special time of year.

Wes hale, good lords and ladies fair,
We bid thee welcome, we bid thee share
Our feasting and our revelry,
Our music and our company.

Guest of Honour: Monsignor R. Michael Schmitz, Vicar General of the Institute

The cast will be in period costumes. We are welcome to follow suit.

The menu for our feast and sign-up forms are in today's bulletin. Tarry not!
