PRAYERS & INSTRUCTION

NOVENA TO THE INFANT KING

~ said every 17th to 25th of each month ~

O Divine Infant Jesus, I have recourse to Thee. Please, through Thy Blessed Mother, assist me in this necessity (mention intention here), because I firmly believe that Thy Divinity can help me. I hope with confidence to obtain thy holy grace. I love Thee with all my heart and with all the strength of my soul. I repent sincerely of my sins and I beg Thee, O Good Jesus, to grant me the strength to triumph over them. I resolve never more to offend Thee and I come to offer myself to Thee with the intention of enduring everything rather than to displease Thee. Henceforth, I desire to serve Thee with fidelity and, for the love of Thee, O Divine Infant, I will love my neighbor as myself. All powerful Infant, O Jesus, I implore Thee again, assist me in this need. Grant me the grace of possessing Thee eternally with Mary and Joseph and of adoring Thee with the angels in the heavenly court. Amen.

Prayer revealed by Our Lady to the Venerable Father Cyril, O.C.D.

MAY: THE MONTH OF MARY

The pious practice of honoring Mary during the month of May has been especially recommended by the Popes. Ever since the custom began in the 13th century, Catholics, both in church and in the home, offer up to Mary during this month of May an especially fervent and loving homage of prayer and veneration. Mary may be honored in the home by placing flowers before her statue or image. The family can then gather together around this "May altar" to pray the Rosary or some other devotion in honor of Our Blessed Mother (such as the Litany of Loreto, the Memorare, etc.).

Prayer of St. Thomas Aquinas to Our Lady

O most blessed and sweet Virgin Mary, Mother of God, filled with all tenderness, on this day and all the days of my life, I entrust to thy merciful heart my body and my soul, all my acts, thoughts, choices, desires, words, deeds, my entire life and death, so that, with thy assistance, all may be ordered to the good according to the Will of thy beloved Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Pray for our Sick

Heather Toledo & child, Romualdo Almonte, Alex Ulizko, Isabella Rose & Grandmother, Yooji Kim, Priscilla Torres, James & Loretta White, Arthur Connick, Segolene Clement

Pray for our Deceased

Marianne Delia, Hugh Smith, Daniel Rogers, Sr., William Schneider, Maureen Suszko, Peggy Dyer, Kenneth Mackay, Teresa Levy, Joseph Wickens, Daniel McDonald

ANNOUNCEMENTS & INFORMATION

Welcome to Saint Anthony Oratory!

We are happy to have you with us today. Please join us on the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the Month after the 9am & 11am Mass for coffee, a sweet, and some good company in the parish hall below.

NEW SUNDAY SOCIAL TIMES

With the completion of this year's catechism classes we will implement a new summer schedule for our Sunday convivium. Please be advised that beginning next Sunday, May 20th, all are invited to share a time of fellowship on the 1st and 3rd weeks of the month.

This time of sharing will be held between 10am and 1:30pm. As this is not meant to be a potluck, we wish that only light refreshments be brought for the occasion. No meals please, as this would extend beyond the scope of this intended gathering.

Today at 10:30 am

The pious practice of honoring Mary during the month of May has been especially recommended by the Popes. Pius XII made frequent reference to it and in his great Encyclical on the Sacred Liturgy "Mediator Dei" characterized it as one of "other exercises of piety which although not strictly belonging to the Sacred Liturgy, are nevertheless of special import and dignity, and may be considered in a certain way to be an addition to the liturgical cult: they have been approved and praised over and over again by the Apostolic See and by the Bishops".

Please, join us in our coronation of Our Lady. All children (as well those young at heart) are strongly encouraged to take part in this age-old custom of honoring our Blessed Mother. Bring a flower for Our Blessed Mother and arrive at the back of the church no later than 10:25am.

HAPPY MOTHERS DAY!

A blessed Mothers Day first of all to Mary, mother of God and our mother, and to all mothers, and mothers-to-be of our Oratory.

Holy Mary, mother of our Savior, ora pro nobis.

CATECHISM SUMMER

BREAK

We express our heartfelt gratitude toward the teachers Mrs. Ann Anzul, Mrs. Mary Fagan, Mr. Michael Lubrano, Mr. John Tobak, and Mrs. Heather Marvell who have dedicated numerous hours to help our young faithful grow in the knowledge and love of Our Lord, His sacred teachings and His beloved Church.

Parents, in your charity, please be sure to express your gratitude to our teachers, who in tireless work in preparing each weeks lessons in advance, have assisted you in your primary task of education you children in their faith.

CLASSES WILL RESUME IN MID-SEPTEMBER

MOTHERS DAY ROSES

Surprise your mom, grandmother, aunt, sister, or friend with a beautiful rose on Mother's Day! The St. Anthony Rosarian Society will be selling roses after all Masses Today. Each long-stemmed rose comes individually wrapped and costs just $5.00 Show your love and appreciation by giving a gift of the Queen of the Flowers.

Our Lady told Saint Brigid,

"The rose, gives a fragrant odor; it is beautiful to the sight, and tender to the touch, and yet it grows among thorns, inimical to the beauty and tenderness. So may also those who are mild, patient, beautiful in virtue, be put to a test among adversaries."

SEMINARY COLLECTION

Thank you to all who were able to contribute to the recent Seminary Collection. A total of $4217.00 was raised to help support the Institute seminary.

May God reward your generosity.

EXTRA HANDS NEEDED

We once again appeal for your assistance with the maintenance of the Oratory chapel. The level of order proper to the house of God has been very difficult to maintain with our current few volunteers. We will be readjusting our teams and schedules to ensure we are "all on the same page." This, however, requires more of our faithful to chip in, making this important task much less demanding and frequent for each individual.

Please, sign up in the vestibule or contact Abbe Francis if you are able to assist in this important act of charity to Almighty God.

SUNDAY AFTER THE ASCENSION

Introit. Ps 26, 7, 8, 9. Hear, O Lord, my voice with which I have cried to Thee, alleluia: my heart hath said to Thee, I have sought Thy face, Thy face, O Lord, I will seek: turn not away Thy face from me, alleluia, alleluia. Ps. 26, 1. The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? V. Glory.

Payer. Almighty and eternal God, make us ever bear a devout affection toward Thee, and with sincere heart to serve Thy majesty. Through our Lord.

Epistle. 1 Peter 4, 7-11. Dearly beloved, be prudent, and watch in prayers. But before all things have a constant mutual charity among yourselves; for charity covereth a multitude of sins. Using hospitality one toward another without murmuring. As every man hath received grace, ministering the same one to another; as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If any man speak, let him speak as the words of God. If any man minister, let him do it as of the power which God administereth; that in all things God may be honored through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 46, 9. The Lord hath reigned over all the nations; God sitteth on His holy throne. Alleluia. V. John 14, 18. I will not leave you orphans; I go and I come to you, and your heart shall rejoice. Alleluia.

Gospel. John 15, 26, 27; 16, 1-4. At that time Jesus said to His disciples, When the Paraclete cometh, Whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, Who proceedeth from the Father, He shall give testimony of Me: and you shall give testimony, because you are with Me from the beginning. These things have I spoken to you, that you may not be scandalized. They will put you out of the synagogues: yea, the hour cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doth a service to God. And these things will they do to you, because they have not known the Father, nor Me. But these things I have told you, that, when the hour shall come, you may remember that I told you.

Offertory. Ps. 46, 6. God is ascended with jubilee; and the Lord with the sound of trumpet. Alleluia.

Secret. Let this immaculate sacrifice purify us, O Lord, and impart to our souls the vigor of supernal grace. Through our Lord.

Communion. John 17, 12, 13, 15. Father, while I was with them, I kept them whom Thou gavest Me, alleluia; but now I come to Thee; I pray not that Thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that Thou shouldst keep them from evil, alleluia, alleluia.

Postcommunion. As we have been filled with heavenly gifts, O Lord, grant, we beseech Thee, that we may constantly persevere in thanksgiving. Through our Lord.

How Good It is for a Man to be Peaceful

First put yourself at peace, and then you may the better make others be at peace. A peaceful and patient man is of more profit to himself and to others, too, than a learned man who has no peace. A man who is passionate often turns good into evil, and easily believes the worst. But a good, peaceful man turns all things to the best, and suspects no man.

He who is not content is often troubled with many suspicions, and is neither quiet himself nor allows others to be quiet. He often speaks what he should not, and fails to speak what it would be more expedient to say. He considers seriously what others are bound to do, but he grandly neglects that to which he himself is bound.

First, therefore, have a zealous regard to yourself and to your own soul, and then you may more righteously and with better ordered charity have zeal for your neighbor's soul. You are at once ready to excuse your own defects, but you will not hear the excuses of your brethren. Truly, it would be more charitable and more profitable to you to accuse yourself and excuse your brother, for, if you will be borne, bear with others. Consider how far you yet are from the perfect humility and charity of Christian people, who cannot be angry with any except themselves.

It is no great thing to get on well with good and docile men, for that is naturally pleasant to all people, and all men gladly have peace with those and most love those who are agreeable. But to live peacefully with evil men and with impertinent men who lack good manners and are illiterate and rub us the wrong way – that is a great grace, and a manly deed, and much to be praised, for it cannot be done save through great spiritual strength. Some people can be quiet themselves, and live quietly with others, and some cannot be quiet with themselves, nor permit others to be quiet; they are grievous to others – they are more grievous to themselves. And some can keep themselves in good peace, and can also bring others to live in peace. Nevertheless, all our peace, while we are in this mortal life, rests more in the humble endurance of troubles and of things that are irksome to us than in not feeling them at all. For no man is here without some trouble. Therefore, he who can suffer best will have most peace, and he who is the true conqueror of himself is the true lord of the world, the friend of Christ, and the true inheritor of the kingdom of heaven.
