Prayers & Instruction

Novena to the Infant King

~ said every 17th to 25th of each month ~

O Divine Infant Jesus, I have recourse to Thee. Please, through Thy Blessed Mother, assist me in this necessity (mention intention here), because I firmly believe that Thy Divinity can help me. I hope with confidence to obtain thy holy grace. I love Thee with all my heart and with all the strength of my soul. I repent sincerely of my sins and I beg Thee, O Good Jesus, to grant me the strength to triumph over them. I resolve never more to offend Thee and I come to offer myself to Thee with the intention of enduring everything rather than to displease Thee. Henceforth, I desire to serve Thee with fidelity and, for the love of Thee, O Divine Infant, I will love my neighbor as myself. All powerful Infant, O Jesus, I implore Thee again, assist me in this need. Grant me the grace of possessing Thee eternally with Mary and Joseph and of adoring Thee with the angels in the heavenly court. Amen.

St. Michael the Archangel

The feast of the Dedication of St. Michael the Archangel on September 29 is the original feast of the leader of the heavenly armies. As captain of the heavenly armies, this angel who is named in the Canon of the Mass, has always held from early times the first place in the Liturgy among the other angels. St. Michael waged battle and cast the evil spirit out of heaven, and he also overcame Satan in the struggle for possession of the body of Moses.

God has entrusted our defense, in the combat with the devil, to the angels. The devil, as a fallen angel, is a pure spirit who has lost none of the powers inherent to his nature. In order that the struggle should not be unequal, God has placed at our side de-fenders of the same nature as Lucifer, those angels who are pure spirits with greater powers than he, so that we may not perish in the day of God's judgment.

When a Christian dies, the Church prays that God's standard-bearer Michael may lead him into heaven, and so he is often represented bearing the scales of divine justice in which souls are weighed. St. Michael also oversees our worship of God, for he is the angel whom St. John saw in heaven near God's altar, a golden thurible in his hand, offering the fragrant incense of the prayers of the saints.

Welcome to Saint Anthony Oratory!

We are happy to have you with us today. Please join us after the 9am & 11am Mass for coffee, a sweet, and some good company in the parish hall below.

St. Michael is revered in Catholic tradition and liturgy as the protector of the Church, as once he was regarded as the protector of the Israelites. He is the special patron of sick people, mariners, and grocers. His cult has also been popular in Egypt, and Rome. He is the patron of both France and Germany. His emblems are a banner, a sword, a dragon, and scales. The name Michael is a variation of Micah, meaning in Hebrew, "Who is like God?"

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Introit. Ps. 85, 1, 2, 3. Bow down Thy ear, O Lord, to me, and hear me: save Thy servant, O my God, that trusteth in Thee: have mercy on me, O Lord, for I have cried to Thee all day. Ps. 85, 4. Give joy to the soul of Thy servant; for to Thee, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul. V. Glory.

Prayer. Let Thy continual pity, O Lord, cleanse and fortify Thy Church; and, because without Thee it can not be safely established, let it ever be governed by Thy grace. Through our Lord.

Epistle. Gal. 5, 25, 26; 6, 1-10. Brethren, if we live in the spirit, let us also walk in the spirit. Let us not be made desirous of vainglory, provoking one another, envying one another. Brethren, and if a man be overtaken in any fault, you, who are spiritual, instruct such a one in the spirit of meekness, considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's burdens, and so you shall fulfill the law of Christ. For if any man think himself to be something, whereas he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. But let every one prove his own work, and so he shall have glory in himself only, and not in another. For every one shall bear his own burden. And let him that is instructed in the word, communicate to him that instructeth him, in all good things. Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for what things a man shall sow, those also shall he reap. For he that soweth in his flesh of the flesh also shall reap corruption: but he that soweth in the spirit shall reap life everlasting. And in doing good, let us not fail; for in due time we shall reap, not failing. Therefore, whilst we have time, let us work good to all men, but especially to those who are of the household of the Faith.

Gradual. Ps. 91, 2, 3. It is good to give praise to the Lord; and to sing to Thy name, O most High. V. To show forth Thy mercy in the morning, and Thy truth in the night.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 94, 3. For the Lord is a great God, and a great king above all the earth. Alleluia.

Gospel. Luke 7, 11-16. At that time, Jesus went into a city called Naim; and there went with Him His disciples, and a great multitude. And when He came nigh to the city, behold a dead man was carried out, the only son of his mother; and she was a widow, and much people of the city were with her. And when the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her, and said to her, Weep not. And He came near, and touched the bier. And they that carried it stood still. And He said, Young man, I say to thee, Arise: and he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And He delivered him to his mother. And there came a fear on them all: and they glorified God, saying, A great prophet is risen up amongst us and God hath visited His people.

Offertory. Ps. 39, 2, 3, 4. With expectation I have waited for the Lord, and He had regard to me; and He heard my prayer, and He put a new canticle into my mouth, a song to our God.

Secret. May Thy sacraments, O Lord, keep us and guard us always from the assaults of the devil. Through our Lord.

Communion. John 6, 52. The bread that I will give is My flesh for the life of the world.

Postcommunion. Let the operation of the heavenly gift, O Lord, possess our souls and bodies, that, its holy grace, not our own impulses, may continually be our guide. Through our Lord.

INFORMATION FOR NEWCOMERS

Welcome to St. Anthony of Padua Oratory and the traditional Latin Mass offered by the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest. We are pleased to have you join us in this venerable act of worship and invite you to return often.

In the traditional Mass, each person has his proper role; be it celebrant, server, choir, usher, or congregation. At a High Mass, the choir makes all responses, and at Low Mass it is the function solely of the server, since this was the vision of the Church, aided by the Holy Ghost, for numerous centuries. The congregation respond internally as opposed to vocally, and this is still, according to Pope Pius XII in his encyclical "Mystici Corporis" active participation. Active participation in all its facets begins in the heart, for without it our prayers are but empty shells.

While silent meditation or fervent recitation of the Rosary have always been regarded as active participation, it is highly recommended that to assist at Mass more fully, we follow the prayers of the Mass -for which purpose pew missals are provided- paying particular attention to the notes in the margin. All the "propers," or parts of the Mass which are different according to the day, can be found on the handouts or in the bulletin. Simply follow those around you when to stand, sit and kneel. Please keep a "holy silence" in the church at all times out of respect of Christ's presence in the tabernacle. Lastly, since there is no mixing of the old and new, Holy Communion is received on the tongue while kneeling at the altar rail.

A GENTLE REMINDER, ONLY CATHOLICS IN THE STATE OF GRACE (NOT HAVE UNCONFESSED SERIOUS SIN ON ONE'S SOUL) ARE FREE TO RECEIVE COMMUNION.

Weekly Music

O God Almighty Father

O God Almighty Father,
Creator of all things,
The Heavens stand in wonder,
While earth Thy glory sings.
Refrain:
O most Holy Trinity,
Undivided Unity;
Holy God, Mighty God,
God Immortal, be adored.

O Jesus, Word Incarnate,
Redeemer most adored,
All Glory, praise and honor,
Be Thine, our Sov'reign Lord.
(Refrain)

O God, the Holy Spirit,
Who lives within our souls,
Send forth Thy light and lead us
To our eternal goal.
(Refrain)
