PRAYERS & INSTRUCTION

NOVENA TO THE INFANT KING

~ said every 17th to 25th of each month ~

O Divine Infant Jesus, I have recourse to Thee. Please, through Thy Blessed Mother, assist me in this necessity (mention intention here), because I firmly believe that Thy Divinity can help me. I hope with confidence to obtain thy holy grace. I love Thee with all my heart and with all the strength of my soul. I repent sincerely of my sins and I beg Thee, O Good Jesus, to grant me the strength to triumph over them. I resolve never more to offend Thee and I come to offer myself to Thee with the intention of enduring everything rather than to displease Thee. Henceforth, I desire to serve Thee with fidelity and, for the love of Thee, O Divine Infant, I will love my neighbor as myself. All powerful Infant, O Jesus, I implore Thee again, assist me in this need. Grant me the grace of possessing Thee eternally with Mary and Joseph and of adoring Thee with the angels in the heavenly court. Amen.

THE MORE YOU HONOR ME, THE MORE I WILL BLESS YOU.

AVE MARIA

We greet Mary as "full of grace." Do we understand the greatness that is expressed in these few words? We say, "the Lord is with thee." God was indeed with Our Lady in a completely unique fashion that no other being, not even the of greatest saints, could share. In a rather special way, He protected her and guided the powers of her soul in their exercise, for she was chosen to be the mother of the human nature of God the Son.

It is most important that we form in our hearts a burning, sincere desire to share in the happiness and joy that was the Virgin Mary's. We must tell her of the heartfelt joy that is ours because of the love that God had for her and the praises heaped on her both in heaven and on earth. Then we add, with St. Elizabeth, "blessed is the fruit of thy womb." Blessed indeed is the Son of Mary, and adored and glorified throughout the universe. And blessed is she who rightly corresponded to all the graces that was given to her during her life.

Next the Church bids us "Holy Mary, Mother of God" to ask the Blessed Virgin to pray for us; we who are all sinners. Mary, who hears our prayers, will certainly go to her Son, who will surely listen to her request, because she is His Mother. Her power with her Son is great indeed, and this power is the basis of all hope and goodness.

Ask the Blessed Virgin to pray for us, "now and at the hour of our death." Throughout life's dangers to our eternal salvation are everywhere, and we most surely need a constant protector.

For in our last hour on this earth, our enemies will redouble their efforts to destroy us, surrounding us, to trying to snatch the grace and friendship of God from us, so that this protection will be so much more necessary than, as it is now. Death, my friends, can be a fearful and terrifying moment, but we can be sure that the dedicated servant of Mary can never die an outcast.

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Introuit. Esther 13,9,10,11. All things are in Thy will, O Lord, and there is none that can resist Thy will: for thou hast made all things, heaven and earth, and all things that are under the cope of heaven: Thou art Lord of all. Ps.118,1. Blessed are the undefiled in the way; who walk in the law of the Lord. V. Glory.

Prayer. Keep Thy household, we beseech Thee, O Lord, with continual loving-kindness, that by Thy protection it may be free from all adversities and devoted to Thy name in well-doing. Through our Lord.

Epistle. Eph.6,10-17. Brethren, be strengthened in the Lord, and in the might of His power. Put you on the armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the deceits of the devil. For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers, against the rulers of the world of this darkness, against the spirits of wickedness in the high places. Therefore, take unto you the armor of God, that you may be able to resist in the evil day, and to stand in all things perfect. Stand therefore having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breast plate of justice, and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; in all things taking the shield of faith, wherewith you may be able to extinguish all the fiery darts of the most wicked one. And take unto you the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the spirit, which is the word of God.

Gradual. Ps.89,1,2. Lord, Thou hast been our refuge, from generation to generation. V. Before the mountains were made, or the earth and the world was formed; from eternity and to eternity Thou art God.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps.113,1 When Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a barbarous people. Alleluia.

Gospel. Matt.18,23-25. At that time, Jesus spoke to His disciples this parable: The kingdom of heaven is likened to a king, who would take an account of his servants. And when he had begun to take the account, one was brought to him that owed him ten thousand talents: and as he had not wherewith to pay it, his lord commanded that he should be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. But that servant falling down, besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And the lord of that servant, being moved with pity, let him go; and forgave him the debt. But when that servant was gone out, he found one of his fellow-servants that owed him a hundred pence: and laying hold of him, he throttled him, saying Pay what thou owest. And his fellow-servant falling down besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And he would not; but went and cast him into prison till he paid the debt. Now his fellow-servants, seeing what was done, were very much grieved; and they came and told their lord all that was done. Then his lord called him, and saith to him, Thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all the debt, because thou besoughtest me; shouldst not thou then have had compassion also on thy fellow-servant, even as I had compassion on thee? And his lord being angry, delivered him to the torturers until he paid all the debt. So also shall my heavenly Father do to you, if you forgive not every one his brother from your hearts.

Offertory. Job 1. There was a man in the land of Hus, whose name was Job, simple, and upright, and fearing God: whom Satan besought that he might tempt: and power was given him from the Lord over his possessions and his flesh; and he destroyed all his substance and his children; and wounded his flesh also with a grievous ulcer.

Secret. Graciously receive, O Lord, the sacrifices with which Thou hast willed that Thou shouldst be appeased and our salvation, by Thy mighty love, restored. Through.

Communion. Ps.118,81,84,86. My soul is in Thy salvation, and in Thy word have I hoped: when wilt Thou execute judgment on them that persecute me? The wicked have persecuted me: help me, O Lord my God.

Postcommunion. Having obtained the nourishment of immortality, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that what has passed our lips we may embrace with a pure mind. Through our Lord.
