PRAYERS & INSTRUCTION

ARCHBASILICA OF THE HOLY SAVIOUR (Lateran Basilica)

The residence of the popes, which was named the Lateran Palace, was built by Lateranus Palutius, whom Nero put to death to seize his goods. It was given in the year 313 by Constantine the Great to Pope St. Miltiades, and was inhabited by his successors until 1308, when the papacy was moved to Avignon. The Lateran Basilica, built by Constantine near the palace of the same name, is the first Basilica of the West. Twelve councils, four of which were ecumenical, have assembled there, the first in 649 and the last in 1512.

If for several centuries the popes have no longer dwelt in the Palace, the primacy of the Basilica is not thereby altered; it remains the head of all churches. Saint Peter Damian wrote that “just as the Savior is the Head of the elect, the church which bears His name is the head of all the churches. Those of Saints Peter and Paul, to its left and its right, are the two arms by which this sovereign and universal Church embraces the entire earth, saving all who desire salvation, warming them, and protecting them in its maternal womb.”

The Divine Office narrates the dedication of the Church by the Pope of Peace, Saint Sylvester:

“It was the Blessed Pope Sylvester who established the rites observed by the Roman Church for the consecration of churches and altars. From the time of the Apostles there had been certain places dedicated to God, which some called oratories, and others, churches. There, on the first day of the week, the assembly was held, and there the Christian people were accustomed to pray, to hear the Word of God, and to receive the Eucharist. But never had these places been consecrated so solemnly; nor had a fixed altar been placed there which, anointed with sacred chrism, was the symbol of Our Lord Jesus Christ, who for us is altar, victim and Pontiff. But when the Emperor Constantine through the sacrament of Baptism had obtained health of body and salvation of soul, a law was issued by him which for the first time permitted that everywhere in the world Christians might build churches. Not satisfied to establish this edict, the prince wanted to give an example and inaugurate the holy labors. Thus in his own Lateran palace, he dedicated a church to the Savior, and founded the attached baptistry under the name of Saint John the Baptist, in the place where he himself, baptized by Saint Sylvester, had been cured of leprosy. It is this church which the Pontiff consecrated in the fifth of the ides of November; and we celebrate the commemoration on that day, when for the first time in Rome a church was thus publicly consecrated, and where a painting of the Savior was visible on the wall before the eyes of the Roman people.”

Whenever the Lateran Church was partially ruined by fires, enemy invasions, and earthquakes, it was always rebuilt with great zeal by the Sovereign Pontiffs. In 1726, after one such restoration, Pope Benedict XIII consecrated it anew and assigned the commemoration of that event to the present day. The church was afterwards enlarged and beautified by Pius IX and Leo XIII.

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

(Mass of the Fifth resumed Sunday after Epiphany)

Introit. Jer. 29, 11, 12, 14. The Lord saith, I think thoughts of peace, and not of affliction; you shall call upon Me and I will hear you; and I will bring back your captivity from all places. Ps. 84, 2. Lord, Thou hast blessed Thy land: Thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. V. Glory.

Prayer. Keep Thy family, we beseech Thee, O Lord, with Thy continual mercy, that, leaning only upon the hope of Thy heavenly grace, it may ever be defended by Thy protection.

Epistle. Col. 3, 12-17. Brethren, put ye on, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, the bowels of mercy, benignity, humility, modesty, patience; bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if any have a complaint against another, even as the Lord hath forgiven you, so you also. But above all these things, have charity, which is the bond of perfection: and let the peace of Christ rejoice in your hearts, wherein also you are called in one body: and be ye thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you abundantly, in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another, in psalms, hymns, and spiritual canticles, singing in grace in your hearts to God. All whatsoever you do in word or in work, all things do ye in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, giving thanks to God and the Father through Jesus Christ Our Lord.

Gradual. Ps. 43, 8, 9. Thou has delivered us, O Lord, from them that afflict us: and hast put them to shame that hate us. V. In God we will glory all the day: and in Thy name we will give praise for ever.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 129, 1, 2. From the depths I have cried to Thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my prayer. Alleluia.

Gospel. Matt. 13, 24-30. At that time, Jesus spoke this parable to the multitudes: The kingdom of heaven is likened to a man that sowed good seed in his field. But while men were asleep, his enemy came, and oversowed cockle among the wheat, and went his way. And when the blade was sprung up, and had brought forth fruit, then appeared also the cockle. And the servants of the good man of the house coming, said to him, Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? whence then hath it cockle? And he said to them, An enemy hath done this. And the servants said to him, Wilt thou that we go and gather it up? And he said, No: lest perhaps gathering up the cockle you root up the wheat also together with it. Suffer both to grow until the harvest; and in the time of the harvest, I will say to the reapers, Gather up first the cockle, and bind it into bundles to burn, but the wheat gather ye into my barn.

Offertory. Ps. 129, 1, 2. From the depths I have cried out to Thee, O Lord; Lord, hear my prayer: from the depths I have cried out to Thee, O Lord.

Secret. We offer Thee, O Lord, the sacrifice of reconciliation, that Thou mayest mercifully forgive our sins and direct our wavering hearts. Through our Lord.

Communion. Mark 11, 24. Amen, I say to you, whatsoever you ask when you pray, believe that you shall receive, and it shall be done unto you.

Postcommunion. We pray Thee, O almighty God, that we may receive the effect of that salvation of which we have received the pledge. Through our Lord.

MANY THANKS TO ALL WHO TOOK PART AT THE CHRIST THE KING & ALL SAINTS CONVIVIUM

Canon Bovee would like to thank to all who helped to make the Liturgy and Convivium of Christ the King /All Saints so special and a success. Young and old had a great time at the All Saints Day Party following the 11:00 am Mass last Sunday, and everyone enjoyed to learn more about known and a few unknown saints as each portrayed one of our heroes in heaven.

Thank you to all those who contributed time and food items, as well as those who stayed behind to tidy up the hall. God bless you all.
