Prayer from the Blessing of Palms

O God, Who by the wonderful order of Thy Providence wouldst, even in insensible things, show us the manner of our salvation; grant, we beseech Thee, that the devout hearts of Thy faithful may understand to their benefit the mystical meaning of that ceremony when the multitude, by direction from heaven, going this day to meet our Redeemer, strewed under His feet palms and olive-branches. The palms represent His triumph over the prince of death: and the olive-branches proclaim, in some manner, the coming of a spiritual unction. For that pious multitude then knew what was by them signified, that our Redeemer, compassionating the misery of mankind, was to fight for the life of the whole world with the prince of death, and to triumph over him by His own death. And therefore in that action they made use of such things as might declare both the triumph of His victory and the riches of His mercy. We also with a firm faith, retaining both the ceremony and its signification, humbly beseech Thee, O holy Lord, almighty Father, eternal God, through the same Lord Jesus Christ, that we, whom Thou hast made His members, gaining by Him and in Him a victory over the empire of death, may deserve to be partakers of His glorious resurrection. Who liveth and reigneth with Thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, world without end.
