Regina Cæli

This prayer replaces the Angelus during Eastertide.
(Partial indulgence)

Queen of Heaven, rejoice, alleluia!

For He whom thou didst merit to bear, alleluia!

Has risen, as He said, alleluia!

Pray for us to God, alleluia!

R. Rejoice and be glad,

O Virgin Mary, alleluia!

V. For the Lord has truly risen, alleluia!

Let us pray: O God, Who gave joy to the world through the Resurrection of Thy Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, grant we beseech Thee, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary His Mother we may obtain the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Saturday, June 4th
the Vigil of Pentecost
9:00am High Mass

Like the Easter Vigil, this is a very beautiful liturgy when Catechumens would come into the church in commemoration of the preaching of St. Peter and the baptizing of 3000 souls (Acts 2:41). There are six Prophecies, the Blessing of Water, Baptisms and Confirmations, Litany of Saints and Holy Mass.

Wisdom from St. Francis de Sales

"Let us run to Mary, and, as her little children, cast ourselves into her arms with a perfect confidence."

From the Liturgical Year - Dom Gueranger - On the Vigil of Pentecost

Formerly, this Vigil was kept like that of Easter. The Faithful repaired to the Church in the evening, that they might assist at the solemn administration of Baptism. During the night, the Sacrament of Regeneration was conferred upon such Catechumens as sickness or absence from home had prevented from receiving it on Easter Night. Those, also, who had then been thought insufficiently tried or instructed and had, during the interval, satisfied the conditions required by the Church, now formed part of the group of aspirants to the New Birth of the sacred Font. Instead of the Twelve Prophecies, which were read, on Easter Night, while the Priests were performing over the Catechumens the rites preparatory to Baptism—six only were now read; at least, such was the usual custom, and it would lead us to suppose that the number of those baptized at Pentecost was less than at Easter.

The Paschal Candle was again brought forward during this Night of grace, in order to impress the newly baptized with respect and love for the Son of God, who became Man that he might be the Light of the World. The rites already described and explained for Holy Saturday were repeated on this occasion, and the Sacrifice of the Mass, at which the Neophytes assisted, began before the break of day.
