From the Vice-Rector

Dear Faithful,

During these troubling times for us all, let us turn to the saints for example and inspiration of how to deal with adversities and persecution! Let us hear what they teach us!

“Lord, help me to live this day, quietly, easily. To lean upon Thy great strength, trustfully, restfully. To wait for the unfolding of Thy will, patiently, serenely. To meet others, peacefully, joyously. To face tomorrow, confidently, courageously.” – St. Francis of Assisi

“He will either shield you from suffering or will give you unfailing strength to bear it. Be at peace, and put aside all anxious thoughts and imaginations.” – St. Francis de Sales

“Live in faith and hope, though it be in darkness, for in this darkness God protects the soul. Cast your care upon God for you are His and He will not forget you. Do not think that He is leaving you alone, for that would be to wrong Him.” – St. John of The Cross

“Nothing great is ever achieved without enduring much”. – St. Catherine of Siena

“Prayer is the place of refuge for every worry, a foundation for cheerfulness, a source of constant happiness, a protection against sadness.” – St. John Chrysostom

In Christ our King
 Rev. Canon Luke Zignego
