We thank the outgoing officers for their dedication the last two years and the incoming officers for their generous willingness to serve.

Please be generous according to your means!

Saturday, August 15:

Feast of the Assumption of Our Lady

8:00am Low Mass

10:30am Solemn Mass celebrated by newly-ordained Canon Nicholas Johanni, *followed by first blessings of a newly-ordained priest.

After each Mass, Assumption Day blessing of fruits and herbs (place your items on the table in front of Our Lady's altar)

Is August 15 a Holy Day of Obligation? Yes, although the USCCB has removed the obligation for U.S. Catholics to attend Mass when the Feast falls on a Saturday. Nevertheless, it is difficult to conceive how a devout Catholic would not make every effort to celebrate this major Feast of our Heavenly Mother by attending Holy Mass, especially given the fact that most people do not have to go in to work on Saturdays.

Solemn Mass of Newly-Ordained Priest

We will have the joy to welcome newly-ordained Canon Nicholas Johanni on August 15 for the Feast of the Assumption. Canon Johanni hails from the Cleveland area, and was ordained on July 2 of this year by Cardinal Burke in Florence. He will offer a first Solemn Mass on Saturday, August 15 at 10:30am, followed by the traditional first blessings of a newly-ordained priest.
