ORATORY CLERGY

The Reverend Canon Antoine Boucheron
Rector

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

"It is good for us to be here."

In this Second Sunday of Lent, the Gospel is very appropriate because Lent is an ascent, and its goal is a transfiguration. Some Lents are better than others. Hopefully this is turning out to be a good Lent for you, and you are feeling good about the prayers and penances you have been doing. Hopefully you have that feeling of confidence which tells you that things are going smoothly; that it will soon be Easter Sunday, and you'll be able to look back knowing that you spent this time growing in God's graces.

If so, good – keep at it!

But, for some of us, it may not be going so smoothly. You may be trying hard enough. But in spite of all of your efforts, you don't feel particularly close to God; you feel distracted in your prayers; you've been unable to keep to the fasting that you planned; you can't get into your spiritual reading. Briefly, you feel you are lagging behind.

We need to be aware that the devil seems to be more active during Lent because he is very envious that we can get so close to God, so He does everything in his power to frustrate our efforts, to make us feel badly so that we lapse into despair and depression.

So, let us take heart, let us remember that being discouraged during Lent may be just the result of the human condition, or it may be the devil trying to lead us away from God and into despair. A bit of difficulty in keeping a good Lent is not unusual. But a victory without battle is not a victory. It is why we ask for God's help and we trust Him to give the graces that are necessary.

Take heart, keep the faith, and make a good Lent!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

Canon Henrique Fragelli, RIP

It is with great sadness that we inform you that Canon Henrique Fragelli passed away on March 1st in Brazil at the age of 59 years after suffering from a pulmonary infection, consequence of the Covid he got in 2021.

Ordained to the priesthood on July 3, 2008 by His Eminence Cardinal Raymond Leo Burke, he exercised his priestly ministry in Wausau, in the diocese of La Crosse, Wisconsin, then in Oakland, California and finally in Mouila (Gabon).

Through his tireless work and great zeal, he was able to give new life to the mission of the Institute of Christ the King in Mouila. He established a school, a dispensary and an orphanage.

Let us pray for the eternal rest of his priestly soul.

May he who gave his life to the service of the Kingdom of God receive now the eternal reward promised to those who labor in the Lord's vineyard.

St. Thomas Aquinas

Confessor & Doctor of the Church

Patron of the Institute of Christ the King

Tuesday, March 7 - 6:00 p.m. High Mass

A Plenary Indulgence may be gained under usual conditions

St. Thomas Aquinas (1225–1274) was born into a wealthy and noble family in Aquino, Italy. He was the pious and brilliant son of a count, and a lucrative future was planned for him. When Thomas set off to enter the newly founded Dominican order to be a poor mendicant friar, his mother held him prisoner in the family castle in order to dissuade him. His brothers tried to destroy his purity, and thus his vocation, by tempting him with a prostitute. However Thomas resisted and turned to God for help; as a result, angels were sent to guard and preserve his chastity. This long ordeal only strengthened his vocation, and eventually he escaped and joined the Dominicans. He was ordained to the priesthood and went on to become a famed professor and prolific writer. His works remain immensely influential in philosophy and theology, the most famous being his Summa Theologica, and multiple popes have upheld him as the model of a systematic Catholic education. St. Thomas Aquinas is the foremost Doctor of the Catholic Church, known as the "Angelic Doctor" for his purity of mind and body, and remarkable intelligence. St. Thomas Aquinas is the patron of schools and universities, students, philosophers, theologians, apologists, academics and chastity.

FRIDAY'S - LENTEN EVENING OF RECOLLECTION

3:00 p.m. Divine Mercy Chaplet
3:00 - 5:45 p.m. Eucharistic Adoration
6:00 p.m. Stations of the Cross
Veneration of the Relic of the Cross

Mass at 6:00 p.m. on First Friday
Stations at 5:00 p.m. on that day

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

The Stations of the Cross constitute a miniature pilgrimage, a spiritual journey that the faithful make in spirit as they pray and meditate on the scenes of the Passion of Jesus Christ. Tradition tells us that the Blessed Virgin Mary daily visited the place of her Son's passion and death. This Way of the Cross has become a favorite devotion of the faithful, richly endowed with indulgences when approached with the proper dispositions, and graces.
