Crisis of Saints

“Unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven,” Jesus tells us. The standard to which He calls us is the standard of Christian holiness, which is fidelity to the truth He has revealed and fidelity to His command to love everyone, including those who have made themselves our enemies, just like He has loved us.

Every crisis that the Church faces, every crisis that the Church has ever confronted, is a crisis of saints. A crisis is a time in which we turn much more to God for the grace we need to remain faithful, and in that crucible God forms us to be adequate in responding to the time, just like He did in converting the debauched Roman empire, just like He did in overcoming the barbarians, and just like he has done in so many missionary lands.

As we come to present ourselves as gifts before the altar, let us open ourselves wholeheartedly to the help He give us so that we will not return evil for the evil we will suffer, or insult for insult, but on the country return a blessing – the blessing of God living within us – because it is to this that we were called.

Have a blessed Sunday!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

ST. JOHN PAUL II'S MESSAGE TO AMERICA IS MORE TIMELY THAN EVER

"There is no evil to be faced that Christ does not face with us. There is no enemy that Christ has not already conquered. There is no cross to bear that Christ has not already borne for us, and does not now bear with us.

And on the far side of every cross we find the newness of life in the Holy Spirit, that new life which will reach its fulfillment in the resurrection. This is our faith. This is our witness before the world. [...]

Catholics of America! Always be guided by the truth – by the truth about God who created and redeemed us, and by the truth about the human person, made in the image and likeness of God and destined for a glorious fulfillment in the Kingdom to come.

Always be convincing witnesses to the truth. "Stir into a flame the gift of God" that has been bestowed upon you in Baptism. Light your nation – light the world – with the power of that flame! Amen."

(October 8, 1995 at Camden Yards, Baltimore.)

Happy July 4th! God bless you! God bless America!

Thanks to your generosity $4,180.00 was raised during this special collection. Thank you so much for your ongoing support of the Sisters.

Saint Elizabeth of Portugal Saturday, July 8 - 9:00 a.m. Mass

Elizabeth is usually depicted in royal garb with a dove or an olive branch. At her birth in 1271, her father Pedro III, future king of Aragon, was reconciled with his father James, the reigning monarch. This proved to be a portent of things to come. Under the healthful influences surrounding her early years, she quickly learned self-discipline and acquired a taste for spirituality.

Thus fortunately prepared, Elizabeth was able to meet the challenge when at the age of 12, she was given in marriage to Denis, king of Portugal. She was able to establish for herself a pattern of life conducive to growth in God's love, not merely through her exercises of piety, including daily Mass, but also through her exercise of charity, by which she was able to befriend and help pilgrims, strangers, the sick, the poor—in a word, all those whose need came to her notice. At the same time she remained devoted to her husband, whose infidelity to her was a scandal to the kingdom.

Denis, too, was the object of many of her peace endeavors. Elizabeth long sought peace for him with God, and was finally rewarded when he gave up his life of sin. She repeatedly sought and effected peace between the king and their rebellious son Alfonso, who thought that he was passed over to favor the king's illegitimate children. She acted as peacemaker in the struggle between Ferdinand, king of Aragon, and his cousin James, who claimed the crown. And finally from Coimbra, where she had retired as a Franciscan tertiary to the monastery of the Poor Clares after the death of her husband, Elizabeth set out and was able to bring about a lasting peace between her son Alfonso, now king of Portugal, and his son-in-law, the king of Castile.

Happy 4th of July

A Prayer for Our Country

An Act of Consecration to Mary Immaculate
Patroness of the United States of America

(Proclaimed under this title in 1846)

Most Holy Trinity: Our Father in Heaven, who chose Mary as the fairest of your daughters; Holy Spirit, who chose Mary as your spouse; God the Son, who chose Mary as your Mother; in union with Mary, we adore your majesty and acknowledge your supreme eternal dominion and authority. Most Holy Trinity, we put the United States of America into the hands of Mary Immaculate in order that she may present the country to you. Through her we wish to thank you for the great resources of this land and for the freedom which has been its heritage. Through the intercession of Mary, have mercy on the Catholic Church in America. Grant us peace. Have mercy on our President and on all the officers of our government. Grant us a fruitful economy born of justice and charity. Have mercy on capital and industry and labor. Protect the family life of the nation. Guard the innocence of our children. Grant the precious gift of many religious vocations. Through the intercession of our Mother, have mercy on the sick, the poor, the tempted, sinners—on all who are in need. Mary, Immaculate Virgin, Our Mother, Patroness of our land, we praise you and honor you and give ourselves to you. Protect us from every harm. Pray for us, that acting always according to your will and the Will of your Divine Son, we may live and die pleasing to God.

Calling Fathers of Sons!

A few men at St. Patrick's Oratory have started a troop within the national apostolate, Troops of St. George. If you are a father and have a son (or sons) between the ages of 6 and 17, then this new troop might be for you!

COME LEARN MORE

Sunday, July 16th

After the 10 AM Mass ♦ Church basement

Why join? The purpose of this troop is to train sons to become virtuous Catholic men and to galvanize their fathers in their mission as Catholic fathers.

What will we do? Camp, canoe, hike, bike, learn hundreds of manly skills, receive Sacraments, grow in our faith, and courageously take on new challenges.

How is it different from other groups? First, this is not a “drop off program.” Fathers attend get-togethers and camp with their sons. Second, fathers learn and improve their own manly skills alongside their sons. Third, how we operate our troop is up to us, so we can make the experience as great and valuable as we want it to be.

What will we not do? We will not abandon our Catholic values, we will not sell junk to raise money, and we will not waste our time together – knowing the sacrifices it takes to be there.

How much does it cost? We will discuss more specifics at the meeting, but much of individual family costs should be covered by our creative and meaningful plans to raise funds.

Who should I talk to if I cannot make the meeting, but am still interested in joining?

Please contact us soon, as we are already planning our first campout for September:

Kory Krauss – (920) 850-1465 – kkrauss@gmail.com

Willie Kanzenbach – (715) 927-4247 – wkanzenbach2@gmail.com

We have founded our troop as Troop 1859, in honor of Mary's appearance in Champion to Sr. Adele Brise – and Mary's commission to “teach children what they need to know for salvation.”
