INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

“Rise, take up your bed and go home.”

In our own lives, Jesus continues to give us sign after sign of His mercy and faithfulness – yet when a new trial enters our lives we wonder, “Can we trust God to help us now?” When we hear the words of Jesus spoken by the priest, do we truly believe that our sins have been forgiven?

If Jesus continues to show powers that belong solely to God, it is true that Jesus is God. And when Jesus forgives sins and has given this power to His Church, should we not believe when a priest says, “your sins are forgiven”? Let us no longer doubt, but believe.

Let us acknowledge Christ as our Lord, as the supreme power and authority in all created existence, and especially in our lives: O Lord, you have the first and the last words in our lives. You are in charge. It is from You that we should take our orders for living.

Have a blessed Sunday!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

OCTOBER - THE MONTH OF HOLY ROSARY

Our Lady of the Most Holy Rosary Saturday, October 7 - 9:00 a.m. Mass

On this Feast of the Holy Rosary, the joys experienced on the other feasts of the Mother of God, are all gathered up and resumed in this one, for us, for the angels, and for Our Lady herself.

Like the angels then, let us offer, together with Mary, the homage of our just delight to the Son of God, her Son, her King and ours. The mysteries of Jesus and Mary are our instruction and our hope. The Church prays today that they may also be our rule of life and our pledge of eternal salvation. That is the power of the Holy Rosary.

Our Lady's mysteries are before all time in God's sight, like those of Her Divine Son; like these they will endure for all eternity; like them they rule the ages, which circle round the Word and Mary, preparing for both in the Old Testament and perpetuating their presence by the ceaseless praise of the most holy Trinity, in whose name all Christians are baptized.

The Rosary honors all these mysteries. Today's feast is a glance back upon the cycle of Redemption as it draws to a close. From these mysteries and today's view of them all, we learn from Our Lady herself in this passage from Proverbs, which the Church applies to Mary: "Now therefore, my children, consider my ways; imitate me, that you may find happiness." 'Blessed is he that watches at her gates.'

Let us pray to Mary, rosary in hand, thinking of her at the same time, meditating on her life and her greatness, and watching, for even just 15 minutes each day, at the entrance to the palace of this incomparable Queen. The more faithful we are to the Rosary, the more assured will be our salvation and our progress in true life. Let us congratulate the Queen of the Holy Rosary on her perfect life, all truth, justice, and meekness, which won her the love of the supreme King. Let us proclaim the nobility of her race, unequalled in the whole world.

All grace, all light, all life, are to be found in our Lady; by her holy rosary she has multiplied flowers and fruits in the garden of the Church. Every offering acceptable to God comes from Mary, with and by Jesus.

The Rosary, piously meditated, prepares us for the Sacrifice of the altar, that august memorial of the mysteries which it imprints in the heart and mind of the Christian. Why not then, pray the holy rosary in the car as one drives to holy Mass. Pray it in thanksgiving on the way home. Of Our Lady, the Offertory of today's Mass says: "In me is all grace of the way and of truth: in me is all hope of life and of virtue: I have flowered forth like a rose planted by the brooks of water."
