Peace to men of good will

The manger is a chapel, simple and beautiful, a chapel where the animals, and where we, can pray.

At the manger the animals are surrounded by the silence and power of St. Joseph. They admire the sweetness and beauty of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the mother of God. They are bathed in the resplendent light of Jesus. They have done a marvelous deed--they have made a decision. They approach the manger and they go there to adore our Savior in silence and prayer.

So we do the same.

Let us not keep ourselves busy, busy, busy, but stay still in order to pray. At first we might have some difficulty kneeling, but once we have done it, it becomes easier to do.

May the Peace and Joy of the Infant Jesus be with you!

Many blessings.

Merry Christmas! Joyeux Noël!
Canon Antoine Boucheron
