Laetare Sunday - Rejoice!

Today is the Fourth Sunday of Lent, also known as "Laetare Sunday," from the opening words of the Introit (entrance hymn) - "Rejoice." You will note the rose colored vestments—a little less somber than the purple worn for most of Lent.

The color change indicates that Lent is about half over, and suggests that it is a good day to take a "breather" from the Lenten exercises, and then to get back to it on Monday, making the best Lent you can until Easter Sunday. "Laetare" –rejoice not so much that Lent is half over, but that we are much closer to the celebration of our Lord's resurrection!

During this period of Lent we should visit the Blessed Sacrament more often. He is always there, in the tabernacle, waiting for us. We can also make what is called a "Spiritual Communion" by desiring to receive Him if it were possible.

On Laetare Sunday, because we have hope in Jesus, we rejoice; we have been freed from sin by Christ and we are moving with Jesus toward eternal life; from now on we can see our existence with joy!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

Father / Son Trip to Clear Creek Abbey

Clear Creek Abbey is a traditional Benedictine Abbey located in eastern Oklahoma. Louis Ullmer is offering to organize a group of fathers and sons who would be interested in carpooling, driving there, and spending a few days at the Abbey. Visitors at the Abbey can attend daily Mass, the Divine Office, and also have meals with the monks in the Abbey refectory. Exact dates are still flexible but later in June is likely.

This trip would involve several hours of car travel, so the typical age of sons who would enjoy this event would probably be 10+. Lodging is available at the Abbey grounds but we would need to reserve based on the number coming. Please contact Louis Ullmer with any questions. Email louisullmer@att.net or call/text 920-621-7982
