Happy Easter!

Today, St. Mark gives a very brief account of the Resurrection.

Here we see that Jesus' disciples did not believe in the Resurrection even though He had predicted it several times. It was difficult for them to accept this truth; the apostles were very practical and concrete men.

The Resurrection of Jesus required them to make a leap of faith. Jesus, risen from the dead, asks them to believe.

After His Resurrection, Jesus wants not only to be seen, but He wants even more to be believed. It's a challenge for the disciples. They meet Jesus but some of them find it difficult to acknowledge Him.

Before the Cross, during three marvelous years, the entourage of Jesus was in an atmosphere of companionship with the Messiah. Now, after the Resurrection they enter into the reality of the Faith. The angel in the white robe said to the terrified women, "He is risen. He is not here." That is, He is now glorified at the right hand of the Father where He lives forever to make intercession for you.

May God bless you and may you have a truly joyful Easter because you believe and realize that the Lord is truly risen.

Canon Antoine Boucheron

EASTER OCTAVE

What is an “octave”?

And why have we celebrated one this week?

The Church knows that one day of rejoicing just isn't enough for such a liturgically important feast as The Resurrection of Our Lord. Easter is the “Solemnity of Solemnities”—the holiest feast day of the year.

For her most important feast days, the Church assigns “octaves”: eight days of rejoicing in which we celebrate each day as though it were the feast day itself.

The tradition of octaves goes back centuries, even to Old Testament where the custom of an Eight-day feast was common.

During the week after Easter and Pentecost, the newly baptized neophytes would continue to wear the white garments they received at their baptism, rejoicing for eight days in the joyful celebration of their new life in Christ. The Sunday after Easter is called “Dominica in Albis” to commemorate the laying aside of the white garments.

Octaves underwent many deletions over time; the octaves for Corpus Christie, the Chair of Unity, Epiphany, and others are no longer in the Church calendar. Today we keep three of them: Christmas, Easter, and Pentecost.

So, rejoice! As St. Paul would say: “Again, I say, rejoice!” (Philippians 4:4).

How long is the Easter season?

Much like Christmas, Easter is not a “one-day” feast.

We continue celebrating the Easter octave all through the week, but the season doesn't end there.

The season of Easter continues on for a full fifty days, up through the feast of Pentecost. Easter is the holiest feast in the liturgical calendar, and it only makes sense that the Church should celebrate not just a feast, not just an octave, but a whole season in honor of Our Lord's Resurrection.

Within these fifty days we celebrate some important feasts: St. Mark, Sts. Philip and James, the Feast of the Ascension, the Queenship of Mary and finally, Pentecost itself, the birthday of the Church!

O LORD, SEND US PRIESTS! O LORD, SEND US HOLY PRIESTS! O LORD, SEND US MANY HOLY PRIESTS & RELIGIOUS VOCATIONS!

SEMI-ANNUAL SEMINARY COLLECTION - SUNDAY, APRIL 14

On Sunday, April 14 there will be a special collection taken up at all Masses for the Institute's seminary in Gricigliano. Monsignor Wach has asked all of the apostolates of the Institute of Christ the King to hold a Special Collection supporting the formation of the Institute's future priests. The Institute continually attracts faithful young men to consider the Priesthood and the number of seminarians continues to grow with one-third from America. Any amount is greatly appreciated!

Easter Sunday, March 31

7:30 a.m. Low Mass

11:00 a.m. High Mass

Blessing of Easter Food after both Masses

Pascha nostrum immolatus est Christus, Alleluia!

Sequence for Easter Sunday: Victimae Paschali Laudes

Forth to the paschal Victim, Christians, Bring your sacrifice of praise: The Lamb redeems the sheep; And Christ the sinless One, Hath to the Father sinners reconciled. Together, death and life

In a strange conflict strove. The Prince of life, who died, Now lives and reigns. What thou sawest Mary, say, As thou wentest on the way. I saw the tomb wherein the living one had lain; I saw His glory as He rose again; Napkin and linen clothes, and angels twain: Yea Christ is risen, my hope, and He will go before you into Galilee. We know that Christ indeed has risen from the grave: Hail, Thou King of Victory, Have mercy, Lord, and save. Amen. Alleluia.

THE REGINA CAELI

The Regina Caeli replaces the Angelus from Easter to the Octave of Pentecost. It is recited at 6 a.m., Noon, and 6 p.m. each day.

Father / Son Trip to Clear Creek Abbey

Clear Creek Abbey is a traditional Benedictine Abbey located in eastern Oklahoma. Louis Ullmer is offering to organize a group of fathers and sons who would be interested in carpooling, driving there, and spending a few days at the Abbey. Visitors at the Abbey can attend daily Mass, the Divine Office, and also have meals with the monks in the Abbey refectory. Exact dates are still flexible but later in June is likely.

This trip would involve several hours of car travel, so the typical age of sons who would enjoy this event would probably be 10+. Lodging is available at the Abbey grounds but we would need to reserve based on the number coming. Please contact Louis Ullmer with any questions. Email louisullmer@att.net or call/text 920-621-7982
