EXTERNAL SOLEMNITY OF THE PURIFICATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN

Dear faithful,

We celebrate this Sunday the External Solemnity of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This feast, also known as “Candlemas”, was first observed by the Church in Jerusalem. It marks the veritable end of the Christmas season, and is possibly the most ancient festival of Our Lady. It commemorates not only the obedience of the Blessed Virgin to the Mosaic Law in going to Jerusalem forty days after the birth of her Child to offer the customary sacrifices, but also the Presentation of Our Lord in the Temple, and the meeting of the Infant Jesus with the old man Simeon at the Temple.

This meeting of the Holy Family with Simeon has a bittersweet character. Simeon utters his joyful canticle of the “Nunc dimittis” (chanted every night in the Office of Compline) in thanksgiving to the Lord for this sublime privilege. His words to Our Lady however contain a foreboding prophecy: “...thine own soul a sword shall pierce.”

These words surely resonate with many of us. Have not our own hearts been pierced by the sad circumstances of our world, and of the Church? It seems that everywhere, iniquitous men advance their draconian designs with little to no resistance. The world around us takes on a dehumanizing character. Many in the Church subvert and attack Her traditional doctrines, rather than do their duty of upholding them. But we must not give in to discouragement! I would like to draw your attention to the very encouraging words of Canon Talarico in his letter opening the month of February:

“Let us not forget, however, that we are the ‘children of light’! (Jn. 12:36) As children of the light, we seek the light; we search after it; we cling fast to it. Indeed, what could be more comforting than to be with the ‘light to the revelation of the Gentiles’ who is none other than Our Lord Jesus Christ, our true source of hope.”

Even the plans of evil men do not escape the hand of Christ the Lord of History, who takes them and changes their course to serve the good when these miscreants least expect it.

It being the External Solemnity of the Purification, there will be the traditional Blessing of Candles and Procession at 12:30, followed by the Mass. If you have candles you would like blessed, please place them on the tables before the ceremonies begin.

With the Feast of the Purification comes a change in the seasonal Marian antiphon. As of this past Wednesday, February 2, the hymn is now the lovely Ave Regina Caelorum. Please find copies available in the back of the church.

Next Sunday, February 13 is Septuagesima Sunday; the beginning of the Pre-Lenten season. How many Lents have you now lived through only to realize, towards the end, that your fasting and abstinence lacked sufficient preparation? We often realize only too late that our walk with Christ would be greatly aided by an earlier anticipation of the opportunities He is giving us to mortify ourselves, and thus be molded ever more in His likeness.

I therefore encourage you to already think about the particular penance or good work (perhaps more than one) which you will offer up during Lent. Begin now to implore of Our Lord the grace of fidelity in your resolutions.

As you know, Canon Altieri is still in the hospital recovering from his bout with the Coronavirus. Thankfully, his ventilator requirements continue to lessen, and his medical team remains optimistic that he will not require hemodialysis for long. A complete recovery remains possible. Please continue to pray for Canon, his family, and his medical team. Your prayers have already helped a lot.

Though we don’t yet have access to the church hall for our Sunday reception, we’re improvising! Please enjoy a donut (or two!) and the company of your fellow Mass-goers on the sidewalk after the 12:30 Mass today. To those who note the high caloric content of donuts, just remember that it’s Sunday – calories don’t count!

We are also finding a way to continue our Sursum Corda young adult group, for those ages 18-35. Come join us on Thursday, February 17 at 6:30 pm at the Chabot Theater in Castro Valley, located at 2853 Castro Valley Blvd. The evening will start with the usual talk, followed by dinner. It will be a more casual dinner than our usual events. We hope to see you there!

Wishing you a blessed Sunday
Canon Benjamin Norman
