Sexagesima

At that time, when a very great multitude was gathered together and hastened out of the cities unto Jesus, He spoke by a similitude: The sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the wayside, and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it. And other some fell upon a rock: and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it had no moisture. And other some fell among the thorns, and the thorns, growing up with it, choked it. And other some fell upon good ground: and being sprung up, yielded fruit a hundredfold. Saying these things, He cried out: He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. And His disciples asked Him what this parable might be. To whom He said: To you it is given to know the mystery of the Kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables: that seeing they may not see, and hearing may not understand. Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. And they by the wayside are they that hear: then the devil cometh, and taketh the word out of their heart, lest believing the should be saved. Now they upon the rock, are they who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no roots: for they believe for a while, and in time of temptation they fall away. And that which fell among thorns are they who have heard, and going their way, are choked with the cares and riches and pleasure of this life, and yield no fruit. But that on the good ground, are they who in a good and perfect heart, hearing the word, keep it and bring forth fruit in patience.

Liturgical Note

Septuagesimatide, or pre-Lent, is the name given to the two and a half weeks, with its three consecutive Sundays, preceding Ash Wednesday. It is named after the first of these, Septuagesima Sunday, which occurs roughly seventy days before Easter (Septuagesima is Latin for seventieth). Sexagesima (sixtieth) comes next, followed by Quinquagesima (fiftieth) which is the Sunday before Ash Wednesday.

U.S. Provincial Appeal “Many Apostolates, One Mission”

Do you value what the Institute of Christ the King is doing in the Church today? This Lent, consider making a sacrifice of $80, just two dollars a day during these forty days to help the Institute continue its work for the salvation of souls. Faithful Catholics who support the Institute of Christ the King around the nation contribute to this end with over $152,000 given last year.

On Sunday, February 25, there will be a special second collection for this appeal to help the Institute grow in the U.S.A. This Lent, make a difference in the Church today by donating to the Institute apostolates working to restore Catholic life and culture in America. Thank you for your generous support! May Christ our King reward you eternally.

February 12 & 13 Eucharistic Adoration in Reparation for Public Sins

Eucharistic Adoration in reparation for public sins after the noon Mass until 2:00pm on Monday, February 12 and Tuesday, February 13.

In the encyclical, Miserentissimus Redemptor, Pope Pius XI spoke of the duty of reparation: “... if ... the creature’s love should be given in return for the love of the Creator, another thing follows from this at once, namely that to the same uncreated Love, if so be it has been neglected by forgetfulness or violated by offense, some sort of compensation must be rendered for the injury, and this debt is commonly called by the name of reparation”. Reparation is a beautiful and essential element of our Catholic faith wherein some act of mortification is offered as a voluntary act of love to repair injustice.
