Laetare Sunday

At that time Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is that of Tiberias: and a great multitude followed Him, because they saw the miracles which He did on them that were diseased. Jesus therefore went up into a mountain: and there He sat with His disciples. Now the pasch, the festival day of the Jews, was near at hand. When Jesus therefore had lifted up His eyes, and seen that a very great multitude cometh to Him, He said to Philip: Whence shall we buy bread that these may eat? And this He said to try him: for He Himself knew what He would do. Philip answered Him: Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one may take a little. One of His disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, saith to Him: There is a boy that hath five barley loaves and two fishes; but what are these among so many? Then Jesus said: Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. The men therefore sat down, in number about five thousand. And Jesus took the loaves, and when He had given thanks, He distributed to them that were set down: in like manner also of the fishes, as much as they would. And when they were filled, He said to His disciples: Gather up the fragments that remain, lest they be lost. They gathered up therefore, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves which remained over and above to them that had eaten. Now those men, when they had seen what a miracle Jesus had done, said: This is of a truth the Prophet that is to come into the world. Jesus therefore when He knew that they would come to take Him by force and make Him King, fled again into the mountain, Himself alone.

Little Lesson in Church Music

One of the oldest parts of the Propers at Mass is called the Tract. For most of the year we sing Gradual and an Alleluia, but from Septuagesima to the Easter Vigil we sing Graduals and Tracts instead. The Tract consists of a longish excerpt from a psalm, sung to a relatively simple melody, often repeated by verse. Tracts are always in Mode 2 or Mode 8, as it turns out, in part because of what these modes represent.

Twice a year, on the First Sunday of Lent and Palm Sunday, the Oratory choir uses a shorter version of the Tract, not by removing words but by simplifying the melody. We sing the text using what is called a Psalm Tone melody, a form of singing which is common in the Divine Office, but present in the Propers of the Mass throughout the year in the verses of the Introit and of the Communion antiphon.
