DIOCESAN

LATIN MASS
APOSTOLATE

SEPTUAGESIMA SUNDAY

Introit: Psalm 17: 5, 6, 7. The groans of death surround me, the sorrows of hell encompassed me: and in my affliction I called upon the Lord, and He heard my voice, from His holy temple. Ps. 17, 2, 3. I will love Thee, O Lord, my strength: the Lord is my firmament, and my refuge and my deliverer. Glory. The groans.

Collect: Do Thou, we beseech Thee, O Lord, graciously hear the prayers of Thy people, that we, who are justly afflicted for our sins, may be mercifully delivered for the glory of Thy name. Through our Lord.

Epistle: I Corinthians 9: 24-27; 10: 1-5. Brethren, know you not that they that run in the race, all run indeed, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that you may obtain. And every one that striveth for the mastery, refraineth himself from all things: and they indeed that they may receive a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible one. I therefore so run, not as at an uncertainty; I so fight, not as one beating the air: but I chastise my body, and bring it into subjection: lest perhaps, when I have preached to others, I myself should become a castaway. For I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; and all in Moses were baptized, in the cloud and in the sea; and all did eat the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink; (and they drank of the spiritual rock that followed them; and the rock was Christ). But with the most of them God was not well pleased.

Gradual: Psalm 9: 10, 11, 19, 20. The helper in due time, in tribulation: let them trust in Thee, who know Thee: for Thou dost not forsake them that seek Thee, O Lord. V. For the poor man shall not be forgotten to the end: the patience of the poor shall not perish for ever: arise, O Lord, let not man be strengthened.

Tract: Psalm 129: 1-4. From the depths I have cried to Thee, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice. V. Let Thine ears be attentive to the prayer of Thy servant. V. If Thou shalt observe iniquities, O Lord, Lord, Who shall endure it? V. For with Thee is propitiation, and by reason of Thy law I have waited for Thee, O Lord.

Gospel: St. Matthew 20: 1-16. At that time, Jesus spoke to His disciples this parable: The kingdom of heaven is like to a householder, who went out early in the morning to hire laborers into his vineyard. And having agreed with the laborers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And going out about the third hour, he saw others standing in the marketplace idle, and he said to them, Go you also into my vineyard, and I will give you what shall be just: and they went their way. And again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did in like manner. But about the eleventh hour, he went out, and found others standing; and he saith to them, Why stand you here all the day idle? They say to him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith to them, Go you also into my vineyard. And when evening was come, the lord of the vineyard saith to his steward, Call the laborers, and pay them their hire, beginning from the last even to the first. When therefore they were come that came about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny. But when the first also came, they thought that they should receive more; and they also received every man a penny. And receiving it, they murmured against the master of the house, saying, These last have worked but one hour, and thou hast made them equal to us that have borne the burden of the day and the heat. But he answering, said to one of them, Friend, I do thee no wrong; didst thou not agree with me for a penny? Take what is thine, and go thy way: I will also give to this last even as to thee. Or, is it not lawful for me to do what I will? Is thy eye evil, because I am good? So shall the last be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few are chosen.

Offertory: Psalm 91: 2. It is good to give praise to the Lord, and to sing to Thy name, O Most High.

Secret: With our gifts and prayers accepted, we beseech Thee, O Lord, both cleanse us by these heavenly mysteries and graciously hear us. Through our Lord.

Communion: Psalm 30: 17, 18. Make Thy face to shine upon Thy servant, and save me in Thy mercy: Let me not be confounded, O Lord, for I have called upon Thee.

Postcommunion: May Thy faithful, O God, be strengthened by Thy gifts, that receiving them they may still desire them and desiring them may constantly receive them. Through our Lord.

Five Masses in honor of the Five Wounds at Saint Mary's Oratory

Monday, February 14 – Friday, February 18

There is a very ancient devotion (6th century) which consists in attending five masses in honor of the Five Wounds of Our Lord Jesus Christ. The Mass is the Votive Mass Humiliavit of the Passion (with the exception of the orations, which are proper).

Many temporal and spiritual graces are promised to those who accomplish this devotion, especially the grace to be preserved from the fires of Hell, as long as they persevere in good.

Come and entrust your family and your needs to the Five Wounds of Our Lord.

A LENT WELL SPENT
FORTY HOURS DEVOTION
FEBRUARY 27-MARCH 1

The devotion of the Forty Hours has a long and venerable history in the Church. Although it can be observed at different times of the year, it originally spread throughout Christian Europe as an act of reparation for the sins committed during Carnavale, the days of riotous celebration before Ash Wednesday.

This year St. Mary's Oratory will offer the Forty Hours devotion from Sunday, February 27 through Tuesday, March 1.

It will serve as a wonderful preparation for the season of Lent.

The Sunday Mass will be followed by Eucharistic procession, and the Blessed Sacrament will remain exposed until the closing Mass on Tuesday evening.

During the perpetual adoration, Mass and the Divine Office will be celebrated before the Blessed Sacrament exposed, in accordance with the rubrics.

Please sign up for a time for adoration on the sheet in Scholz Hall.

Take one morning, then, to place yourself in the presence of Almighty God, adore Him, thank Him, beg pardon of your sins and implore His grace.
