

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING
SOVEREIGN PRIEST
St. Mary's Oratory

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Introit: Ps. 26, 1, 2. The Lord is my light and my salvation: whom shall I fear? The Lord is the protector of my life: of whom shall I be afraid? My enemies that trouble me have themselves been weakened and have fallen. Ps. 26, 3. If armies in camp should stand together against me, my heart shall not fear. V. Glory.

Collect: Grant us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that the course of the world may be directed for us, and that Thy Church may rejoice in peace. Through our Lord.

Epistle: Rom. 8, 18-23. Brethren, I reckon that the sufferings of this time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come, that shall be revealed in us. For the expectation of the creature waiteth for the revelation of the sons of God. For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him that made it subject in hope; because the creature also itself shall be delivered from the servitude of corruption, into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. For we know that every creature groaneth, and travaileth in pain, even till now; and not only it, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the spirit, even we ourselves, groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption of the sons of God, the redemption of our body; in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Gradual: Ps. 78, 9, 10. Forgive us our sins, O Lord, lest the gentiles should at any time say, Where is their God? V. Help us, O God our Saviour; and for the honor of Thy name, O Lord, deliver us. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 9, 5, 10. O God, Who sittest upon the throne, and judgest justice, be Thou the refuge of the poor in tribulation. Alleluia.

Gospel: Luke 5, 1-11. At that time, when the multitude pressed upon Jesus to hear the word of God, He stood by the lake of Genesareth. And He saw two ships standing by the lake; but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets; and going up into one of the ships that was Simon's, He desired him to draw back a little from the land: and sitting He taught the multitudes out of the ship. Now when He had ceased to speak, He said to Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. And Simon, answering, said to Him, Master, we have labored all the night, and have taken nothing, but at Thy word I will let down the net. And when they had done this, they enclosed a very great multitude of fishes; and their net broke: and they beckoned to their partners that were in the other ship, that they should come and help them; and they came, and filled both the ships, so that they were almost sinking. Which when Simon Peter saw, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord. For he was wholly astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of fishes which they had taken: and so were also James and John the sons of Zebedee, who were Simon's partners. And Jesus saith to Simon, Fear not: from henceforth thou shalt catch men. And having brought their ships to land, leaving all things they followed Him.

Offertory: Ps. 12, 4, 5. Enlighten my eyes, that I never sleep in death; lest at any time my enemy say, I have prevailed against him.

Secret: Receiving our oblations, be appeased, we pray Thee, O Lord, and in Thy kindness constrain our wills toward Thee, even when resisting. Through our Lord.

Communion: Ps. 17, 3. The Lord is my firmament, and my refuge, and my deliverer, my God is my helper.

Postcommunion: May the mysteries we have received purify us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, and by their virtue protect us. Through our Lord.

DIOCESAN
APPROVED
TRADITIONAL
LATIN MASS
APOSTOLATE

A Hearty Congratulations to

Mr. & Mrs. T. J. Rendino

joined in Holy Matrimony on Saturday, July 2nd at St. Mary's Oratory.

May the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob be with you, and may He fulfil His blessing in you: that you may see your children's children even unto the third and fourth generation, and thereafter may you have life everlasting, by the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ: Who with the Father and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth, God for ever and ever. Amen.
(final blessing in the Roman Nuptial Mass)

MARRIAGE BANNES

Mr. & Mrs. Ludger Borger of Wausau announce the approaching marriage of their daughter Juliana to Mr. Christopher Zabalaga of Arvada, CO on Saturday, July 16 at St. Mary's Oratory. If anyone knows of an existing impediment which would prevent this marriage, he is bound to let the Rector know as soon as possible. This is the Second publication of the banns.

Catholic Homeschool Co-op in Wausau

A number of St. Mary's families are undertaking a private initiative for a homeschool co-op which will meet near the Oratory. For more information, please contact Mrs. Barbara Hancock at 715-574-3363 or email wausawi@catholicschoolhouse.com. You can also consult their website, Catholicschoolhouse.com.

Proper Attire in Church

Now that the warm summer weather is here, just a friendly reminder about the importance of coming to church decently attired. Although it can be tempting to dress with comfort primarily in mind, out of respect for God's house and out of consideration for the dignity of the human person, it is important to dress with modesty and decorum. Revealing or tight-fitting clothing does not meet the norms for Christian modesty, especially in church. Gentlemen are kindly asked not to wear shorts. Ladies and girls should wear skirts and dresses falling at least below the knee (no exposed backs or shoulders) and are encouraged to have their heads covered, keeping with the apostolic tradition.

Books in Church Hall—Please do not touch

The Priory is currently doing a much-needed reorganization of their library and sorting through a large number of donated books. In order to facilitate their work, please avoid going through the books. Once the process is complete, a decision will be made regarding any books not remaining in the Priory library. In the meantime, please do not touch! Thank you very much for your cooperation.

We welcome you today to St. Mary's Oratory!

If this is your first time here, we look forward to meeting you.

Holy Mass here is celebrated in the traditional Latin Rite. This was the form of worship in use in the Western world from antiquity until 1970. If you are unfamiliar with the traditional Latin Mass, do not hesitate to approach the priests with any questions you may have.

All practicing Catholics in the state of grace are invited to approach the altar rail for Holy Communion. In the traditional Roman Rite, Holy Communion is received kneeling (unless you are impaired from doing so) and on the tongue. The mouth should be open with the tongue slightly extended. You do not look at the priest and you do not say Amen.

The baptistery in the back of the church functions as a crying room during the Mass. Please feel free to make use of it when you have a crying child by exiting quietly down one of the side aisle.

If you are not Catholic, we invite you to learn about our faith. The Church was founded over 2000 years ago by Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. If you are interested in becoming Catholic or learning more about the Catholic faith, please do not hesitate to contact us. The priests of the Oratory offer individual instruction. We look forward to hearing from you.

Welcome back, Canon Altiere!

It is a great joy for us to welcome back to St. Mary's Canon Francis Altiere. Canon Altiere was vicar of St. Mary's in 2016-17 before being assigned to Kansas City, Missouri and then to Bridgeport, Connecticut. He had a very tough bout with Covid this past winter, and it was decided that he could best continue his recovery by spending the summer in Wausau. Although his work in the ministry will need to remain limited, he will generally be able to celebrate Mass, preach, and help with confessions. He looks forward to meeting you.
