

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING
SOVEREIGN PRIEST
St. Mary's Oratory

TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Introit: Daniel 3: 31, 29, 35. All that Thou hast done to us, O Lord, Thou hast done in true judgment; because we have sinned against Thee, and we have not obeyed Thy commandments: but give glory to Thy name, and deal with us according to the multitude of Thy mercy. Ps. 118: 1. Blessed are the undefiled in the way; who walk in the law of the Lord. Glory be. All that Thou hast done.

Collect: Being appeased, O Lord, grant to Thy faithful in abundance, we beseech Thee, both forgiveness and peace, that they may both be cleansed from all offenses and with a quiet mind give themselves to Thy service. Through our Lord.

Epistle: Ephesians 5: 15-21. Brethren, See how you walk circumspectly, not as unwise, but as wise; redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Wherefore, become not unwise, but understanding what is the will of God. And be not drunk with wine, wherein is luxury: but be ye filled with the holy Spirit, speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns, and spiritual canticles, singing and making melody in your hearts to the Lord: giving thanks always for all things, in the name of Our Lord Jesus Christ, to God and the Father; being subject one to another in the fear of Christ.

Gradual: Psalms 144: 15, 16. The eyes of all hope in Thee, O Lord; and Thou givest them meat in due season. Thou openest Thy hand, and fillest every living creature with Thy blessing. Alleluia, alleluia. Ps. 107: 2. My heart is ready, O God, my heart is ready: I will sing, and will give praise to Thee, my glory. Alleluia.

Gospel: St. John 4: 46-53. At that time, There was a certain ruler whose son was sick at Capharnaum. He having heard that Jesus was come from Judea into Galilee, went to Him, and prayed Him to come down, and heal his son; for he was at the point of death. Jesus therefore said to him, Unless you see signs and wonders, you believe not. The ruler saith to Him, Lord, come down before that my son die. Jesus saith to him, Go thy way, thy son liveth. The man believed the word which Jesus said to him, and went his way. And as he was going down, his servants met him, and they brought word, saying, that his son lived. He asked therefore of them the hour wherein he grew better. And they said to him, yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. The father therefore knew that it was at the same hour that Jesus said to him, Thy son liveth; and himself believed, and his whole house.

Offertory: Psalms 136: 1. Upon the rivers of Babylon, there we sat and wept; when we remembered Thee, O Sion.

Secret: Let these mysteries, we beseech Thee, O Lord, be our heavenly medicine and purge the evil from our hearts. Through our Lord.

Communion: Ps. 118: 49, 50. Be thou mindful of Thy word to Thy servant, O Lord, in which Thou hast given me hope: this hath comforted me in my humiliation.

Postcommunion: That we may be rendered worthy of Thy sacred gifts, O Lord, grant us, we beseech Thee, ever to obey Thy commandments. Through our Lord.

APPROVED
TRADITIONAL
APOSTOLATE

Dear Parents,

Children are the joy of our St. Mary's family, and your reward is great in heaven for generously accepting this gift of Divine Providence. When you have a crying child, particularly during the sermon or the canon of the Mass, you are kindly asked to make use of the baptistery or the vestibule. You are also requested to restrain them from running, banging on the pews and standing on the fragile hymnal racks.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation, and, above all, for your presence here at St. Mary's Oratory. If you have any suggestions as to how we could make it easier for you to care for your children during Mass, please do not hesitate to let me know. May God bless and keep you.

Sincerely, the Rector

Out of the mouths of babes and sucklings Thou hast perfected praise. -Psalm 8:3

Seminary Collection for the Feast of Christ the King

The semi-annual collection for the Seminary of the Institute of Christ the King in Gricigliano will be taken on Sunday, October 30, Feast of Christ the King.

Thank you for your generosity toward your future priests.

Clay Schulz, RIP

With sadness we commend to your prayers the soul of our dear Clay Schulz, who was called back to God this past Thursday. Whether a cousin by blood or a brother by faith, Clay brought joy to countless people during the many years he faithfully attended St. Mary's. As we rejoice and give thanks to God for the many new faces we find here each week, we do well to remember and honor those who came here long before us and built up the community we enjoy today, and who now go on before us in the sign of faith. May he rest in peace.

After spending this last year in Wausau, Sister Lucie-Marie has been called to continue her formation at our novitiate in Naples, Italy.

We have the joy of welcoming in her place Sister Francoise-Marie of the Holy Face of Jesus, Abyss of Goodness and Love (Kansas City), who looks forward to meeting you today after Mass.

Have you been down to visit Nancy's Shoppe lately? Perhaps just what is needed right now in your life is a good spiritual book to improve your knowledge of the faith, strengthen your practice of the virtues, and help you advance in the way of prayer. There are also many beautiful religious images and sacramentals to aid your devotion. All proceeds go to benefit the American seminarians of the Institute of Christ the King. A heartfelt thanks goes to our dear Nancy Heideman for her tireless efforts in maintaining this great work over so many years. Go down and have a look today!

PANCAKE BREAKFAST WITH ALL SAINTS PARADE AFTER THE 10:30 A.M. MASS SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 6

At the Ryan Barn
4810 West Wausau Avenue
Wausau, WI 54401

$5.00 per plate

Children in costume eat free of charge

November 1 is the Feast of All Hallows.

In former times, the Feast of All Saints was of such great importance that it was preceded by a vigil (All Hallows Eve or 'Hallow E'en') and then celebrated for 8 days, in accordance with the practice of the ancient Hebrews.

On Sunday November 6, our dedicated men will offer us their traditional pancake breakfast. In order to accommodate our large numbers, the Ryan family has graciously proposed to host the breakfast and a whole afternoon of fun at their barn on the west side of town (the same site where our summer camps take place). Your children are invited to come dressed as saints and to march in the All Saints Parade into the barn, after which each of them will give a short presentation on the saint whom he or she has depicted.

All Saints Party Donations

If you would like to donate candy for the All Saints Party, please bring it by Wednesday, November 2 and leave it on the kitchen counter in Thomas Hall.
