

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING
SOVEREIGN PRIEST
St. Mary's Oratory

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Introit: Ps. 26, 1, 2. The Lord is my light and my salvation: whom shall I fear? The Lord is the protector of my life: of whom shall I be afraid? My enemies that trouble me have themselves been weakened and have fallen. Ps. 26, 3. If armies in camp should stand together against me, my heart shall not fear. V. Glory.

Collect: Grant us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that the course of the world may be directed for us, and that Thy Church may rejoice in peace. Through our Lord.

Epistle: Rom. 8, 18-23. Brethren, I reckon that the sufferings of this time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come, that shall be revealed in us. For the expectation of the creature waiteth for the revelation of the sons of God. For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him that made it subject in hope; because the creature also itself shall be delivered from the servitude of corruption, into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. For we know that every creature groaneth, and travaileth in pain, even till now; and not only it, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the spirit, even we ourselves, groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption of the sons of God, the redemption of our body; in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Gradual: Ps. 78, 9, 10. Forgive us our sins, O Lord, lest the gentiles should at any time say, Where is their God? V. Help us, O God our Saviour; and for the honor of Thy name, O Lord, deliver us. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 9, 5, 10. O God, Who sittest upon the throne, and judgest justice, be Thou the refuge of the poor in tribulation. Alleluia.

Gospel: Luke 5, 1-11. At that time, when the multitude pressed upon Jesus to hear the word of God, He stood by the lake of Genesareth. And He saw two ships standing by the lake; but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets; and going up into one of the ships that was Simon's, He desired him to draw back a little from the land: and sitting He taught the multitudes out of the ship. Now when He had ceased to speak, He said to Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. And Simon, answering, said to Him, Master, we have labored all the night, and have taken nothing, but at Thy word I will let down the net. And when they had done this, they enclosed a very great multitude of fishes; and their net broke: and they beckoned to their partners that were in the other ship, that they should come and help them; and they came, and filled both the ships, so that they were almost sinking. Which when Simon Peter saw, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord. For he was wholly astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of fishes which they had taken: and so were also James and John the sons of Zebedee, who were Simon's partners. And Jesus saith to Simon, Fear not: from henceforth thou shalt catch men. And having brought their ships to land, leaving all things they followed Him.

Offertory: Ps. 12, 4, 5. Enlighten my eyes, that I never sleep in death; lest at any time my enemy say, I have prevailed against him.

Secret: Receiving our oblations, be appeased, we pray Thee, O Lord, and in Thy kindness constrain our wills toward Thee, even when resisting. Through our Lord.

Communion: Ps. 17, 3. The Lord is my firmament, and my refuge, and my deliverer, my God is my helper.

Postcommunion: May the mysteries we have received purify us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, and by their virtue protect us. Through our Lord.

TRADITIONAL
LATIN MASS
APOSTOLATE

We welcome you today to St. Mary's Oratory!

If this is your first time here, we look forward to meeting you. During the summer, weather permitting, we meet at Oak Island Park after the 10:30 am High Mass. Please join us.

Holy Mass here is celebrated in the traditional Latin Rite. This was the form of worship in use in the Western world from antiquity until 1970. If you are unfamiliar with the traditional Latin Mass, do not hesitate to approach the priests with any questions you may have.

All practicing Catholics in the state of grace are invited to approach the altar rail for Holy Communion. In the traditional Roman Rite, Holy Communion is received kneeling (unless you are impaired from doing so) and on the tongue. The mouth should be open with the tongue slightly extended. You do not look at the priest and you do not say Amen.

The baptistery in the back of the church functions as a crying room during the Mass. Please feel free to make use of it when you have a crying child by exiting quietly down one of the side aisles.

If you are not Catholic, we invite you to learn about our faith. The Church was founded over 2000 years ago by Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. If you are interested in becoming Catholic or learning more about the Catholic faith, please do not hesitate to contact us. The priests of the Oratory offer individual instruction. We look forward to hearing from you.

Please help keep St. Mary's clean

St. Mary's does not have a cleaning staff. We are grateful to the few volunteers who generously dedicate their time to keeping God's house at its best. Please consider joining them by signing up on the sheet provided in Scholz Hall.

Proper Attire in Church

Now that the warm summer weather is here, we kindly remind you about the importance of coming to church decently attired. Although it can be tempting to dress with comfort primarily in mind, out of respect for God's house and out of consideration for the dignity of the human person, it is important to dress with modesty and decorum. Revealing or tight-fitting clothing does not meet the norms for Christian modesty, especially in church. Gentlemen are kindly asked not to wear shorts. No exposed backs or shoulders. Ladies and girls should wear skirts and dresses falling at least below the knee and are encouraged to have their heads covered, in keeping with apostolic tradition. Tattoos, which are by no means encouraged, should always be covered.

A Retreat Center for the United States

With profound gratitude to Almighty God, the Institute of Christ the King is pleased to announce the acquisition of a large property in southeastern Wisconsin which will serve the spiritual needs of all our members and especially of you, the faithful. Seated on over 100 acres in the charming town of Burlington, this former Franciscan friary boasts 70 rooms and a large chapel capable of holding 300 people, as well as a refectory, several conference rooms, and an auditorium. Its idyllic fields and woods border the Fox River, with several other bodies of water nearby, including Lake Geneva. The town of Burlington is conveniently located one hour north of Chicago O'Hare airport and 30 minutes south of Milwaukee, and is thus within a day's drive of all our apostolates in the central United States.

The Institute will prepare this property to be used year-round for a number of activities central to our mission, especially youth camps and spiritual retreats. The Institute also has houses in France, Germany, and Switzerland which offer retreats according to the spirituality of St. Francis de Sales. Our intention is that it should serve in particular the needs of our international lay society, the Society of the Sacred Heart. With this purpose in mind, it will be known henceforth as Sacred Heart Retreat Center. First constructed in 1931 and expanded with an additional north wing in 1952, the friary building is on the National Register of Historic Places and was once a popular place of pilgrimage. Thorough inspections have revealed the building to be in very good condition. It is our hope that, with a generous response from our faithful, Sacred Heart Retreat Center will open its doors after several months of renovations.

This great development in the history of the American Province is the fruit of over three years of fervent prayer and diligent research. The Institute is very grateful to His Excellency, the Most Reverend Jerome ListECKI, Archbishop of Milwaukee, for his blessing on this property acquisition which will now complement our 15 years of service at St. Stanislaus Oratory in Milwaukee. We ask for your prayers as we embark on this bold endeavor in the service of Christ our King and High Priest, and we look forward to sharing with you in the coming weeks the ways that you can help.

Be sure to sign your children and teens up for the Institute's Summer Camps!

Nearly 500 youth from across the United States enjoy a week of pure fun and Catholic faith formation each summer at our beautiful campsites in Wisconsin. Through edifying activities and games, daily Mass and prayer, and spiritual talks, campers grow in virtue, fellowship, and deeper love and understanding of their Catholic faith.
