VISITATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Introit: Sedulius. Hail, holy Mother, who in childbirth brought forth the King Who rules heaven and earth forever and ever. Ps. 44: 2. My heart overflows with a goodly theme; as I sing my ode to the King. V. Glory.

Collect: Bestow upon Thy servants, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the gift of heavenly grace, that as the child-bearing of the Blessed Virgin marked the beginning of our salvation, so may the solemn feast of her Visitation bring us an increase of peace. Through our Lord.

Commemoration of Fifth Sunday after Pentecost: O God, Who hast prepared good things unseen for them that love Thee, pour into our hearts the fervor of Thy love, that, loving Thee in all things and above all things, we may attain Thy promises, which surpass all desire. Through our Lord.

Epistle: Canticles 2: 8-14. Hark! here He comes springing across the mountains, leaping across the hills. My lover is like a gazelle or a young stag. Here He stands behind our wall, gazing through the windows, peering through the lattices. My lover speaks: He says to me, Arise, make haste, My beloved, My dove, My beautiful one, and come! For see, the winter is past, the rains are over and gone. The flowers appear in our land, the time of pruning has come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land. The fig tree puts forth its figs, and the vines, in bloom, give forth fragrance. Arise, My beloved, My beautiful one, and come! O My dove in the clefts of the rock, in the secret recesses of the cliff, let Me see thee, let Me hear thy voice, for thy voice is sweet and thou art lovely.

Gradual: Blessed and venerable art thou, O Virgin Mary, who, without spot wast found the Mother of the Saviour. V. O Virgin, Mother of God, He Whom the whole world does not contain, shut Himself within thy womb, becoming Man. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Happy art thou, O holy Virgin Mary, and most worthy of all praise; for out of thee has risen the sun of justice, Christ our God. Alleluia.

Gospel: Luke 1: 39-47. At that time, Mary arose and went with haste into the hill country, to a town of Juda. And she entered the house of Zachary and saluted Elizabeth. And it came to pass, when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, that the babe in her womb leapt. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit, and cried out with a loud voice, saying, Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb! And how have I deserved that the Mother of my Lord should come to me? For behold, the moment that the sound of thy greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leapt for joy. And blessed is she who has believed, because the things promised her by the Lord shall be accomplished. And Mary said, My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour.

Offertory: Blessed art thou, O Virgin Mary, thou who borest the Creator of all things; thou brought forth Him Who made thee, and remainest a Virgin forever.

Secret: May the humanity of Thy only-begotten Son keep us, O Lord, for He, Who was born of a virgin did not lessen but consecrated the purity of His Mother; so, on the festival of her Visitation may Jesus Christ, our Lord, free us from our sins and make our sacrifice acceptable unto Thee. Through our Lord.

Commemoration of Fifth Sunday after Pentecost: Be propitiated, O Lord, by our supplications, and graciously accept these oblations of Thy servants and Thy handmaidens, that what each has offered to the honor of Thy name may profit for the salvation of all. Through our Lord.

DIOCESAN
TRADITIONAL
APOSTOLATE

We welcome you today to St. Mary's Oratory!

If this is your first time here, we look forward to meeting you. During the summer, weather permitting, we meet at Oak Island Park after the 10:30 am High Mass. Please join us.

Holy Mass here is celebrated in the traditional Latin Rite. This was the form of worship in use in the Western world from antiquity until 1970. If you are unfamiliar with the traditional Latin Mass, do not hesitate to approach the priests with any questions you may have.

All practicing Catholics in the state of grace are invited to approach the altar rail for Holy Communion. In the traditional Roman Rite, Holy Communion is received kneeling (unless you are impaired from doing so) and on the tongue. The mouth should be open with the tongue slightly extended. You do not look at the priest and you do not say Amen.

The baptistery in the back of the church functions as a crying room during the Mass. Please feel free to make use of it when you have a crying child by exiting quietly down one of the side aisles.

If you are not Catholic, we invite you to learn about our faith. The Church was founded over 2000 years ago by Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. If you are interested in becoming Catholic or learning more about the Catholic faith, please do not hesitate to contact us. The priests of the Oratory offer individual instruction. We look forward to hearing from you.

Please help keep St. Mary's clean

St. Mary's does not have a cleaning staff. We are grateful to the few volunteers who generously dedicate their time to keeping God's house at its best. Please consider joining them by signing up on the sheet provided in Scholz Hall.

Proper Attire in Church

Now that the warm summer weather is here, we kindly remind you about the importance of coming to church decently attired. Although it can be tempting to dress with comfort primarily in mind, out of respect for God's house and out of consideration for the dignity of the human person, it is important to dress with modesty and decorum. Revealing or tight-fitting clothing does not meet the norms for Christian modesty, especially in church. Gentlemen are kindly asked not to wear shorts. No exposed backs or shoulders. Ladies and girls should wear skirts and dresses falling at least below the knee and are encouraged to have their heads covered, in keeping with apostolic tradition. Tattoos, which are by no means encouraged, should always be covered.

Preface of the Blessed Virgin Mary: It is truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father almighty, everlasting God: and that we should praise and bless, and proclaim Thee, in the Visitation of the Blessed Mary, ever-Virgin: Who also conceived Thine only-begotten Son by the overshadowing of the Holy Ghost, and the glory of her virginity still abiding, gave forth to the world the everlasting Light, Jesus Christ our Lord. Through whom the Angels praise Thy Majesty, the Dominions worship it, and the Powers stand in awe. The Heavens and the heavenly hosts together with the blessed Seraphim in triumphant chorus unite to celebrate it. Together with these we entreat Thee that Thou mayest bid our voices also to be admitted while we say with lowly praise: Holy, holy, holy.

Communion: Blessed is the womb of the Virgin Mary, which bore the Son of the eternal Father.

Postcommunion: O Lord, in celebration of this yearly feast, we have partaken of the sacrament: grant, we beseech Thee, that it may give us help for life on earth and for life everlasting. Through our Lord.

Commemoration of Fifth Sunday after Pentecost: Grant us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, whom Thou hast filled with the heavenly gift, that we be cleansed of our hidden sins and delivered from the snares of our enemies. Through our Lord.

Be sure to sign your children and teens up for the Institute's Summer Camps!

Nearly 500 youth from across the United States enjoy a week of pure fun and Catholic faith formation each summer at our beautiful campsites in Wisconsin. Through edifying activities and games, daily Mass and prayer, and spiritual talks, campers grow in virtue, fellowship, and deeper love and understanding of their Catholic faith.
