

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING
SOVEREIGN PRIEST
St. Mary's Oratory

SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Introit: Ps. 46, 2. O clap your hands, all ye nations: shout unto God with the voice of joy. Ps. 46, 3. For the Lord is most high, He is terrible; He is a great king over all the earth. V. Glory.

Collect: O God, Whose providence faileth not in setting things in order, we, Thy suppliants, beseech Thee, that Thou wouldst remove from us all things harmful and grant us all that makes for our welfare. Through our Lord.

Epistle: Rom. 6, 19-23. Brethren, I speak a human thing, because of the infirmity of your flesh; for as you have yielded your members to serve uncleanness and iniquity unto iniquity, so now yield your members to serve justice, unto sanctification. For when you were the servants of sin, you were free from justice. What fruit therefore had you then in those things, of which you are now ashamed? For the end of them is death. But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, you have your fruit unto sanctification, and the end life everlasting. For the wages of sin is death. But the grace of God, life everlasting; in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Gradual: Ps. 33, 12, 6. Come, children, harken to me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord. V. Come ye to Him and be enlightened; and your faces shall not be confounded. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 46, 2. O clap your hands, all ye nations; shout unto God with the voice of joy. Alleluia.

Gospel: Matt. 7, 15-21. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, Beware of false prophets, who come to you in the clothing of sheep, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. By their fruits you shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so, every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, and the evil tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree can not bring forth evil fruit, neither can an evil tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit shall be cut down, and shall be cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits you shall know them. Not every one that saith to Me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doth the will of My Father Who is in heaven, he shall enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Offertory: Dan. 3, 40. As in holocausts of rams and bullocks, and as in thousands of fat lambs; so let our sacrifice be made in Thy sight this day, that it may please Thee: for there is no confusion to them that trust in Thee, O Lord.

Secret: O God, Who hast sanctioned the diversity of offerings by the perfection of one sacrifice, receive the sacrifice offered Thee by Thy devoted servants, and sanctify it as Thou didst sanctify the gifts of Abel, that what each one hath offered to the glory of Thy majesty may profit for the salvation of all. Through our Lord.

Communion: Ps. 30, 3. Bow down Thy ear, make haste to deliver me.

Postcommunion: May Thy health-giving operation, O Lord, mercifully rid us of our evil inclinations and unto rightful ways strongly lead us. Though our Lord.

Proper Attire in Church

Now that the warm summer weather is here, we kindly remind you about the importance of coming to church decently attired.

Although it can be tempting to dress with comfort primarily in mind, out of respect for God's house and out of consideration for the dignity of the human person, it is important to dress with modesty and decorum.

Revealing or tight-fitting clothing does not meet the norms for Christian modesty, especially in church. Gentlemen are kindly asked not to wear shorts. No exposed backs or shoulders. Ladies and girls should wear skirts and dresses falling at least below the knee and are encouraged to have their heads covered, in keeping with apostolic tradition. Tattoos, which are by no means encouraged, should always be covered.

The Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel

On July 16, 1251, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to a Carmelite friar called Simon, Saint Simon Stock. And giving him the Scapular, She said that all who should wear it will be saved from Eternal Damnation. These are Her words:

"Receive, my Beloved son, this Scapular of thy Order, the Badge of my Confraternity, a Privilege granted to thee and to all Carmelites; whoever dies, clothed with it, will not suffer Eternal Fire."

These are very strong words, which only the Mother of Our Lord would be able to pronounce: to promise that all those who wear the Scapular will not go to hell. And in order to benefit from this promise, one should receive properly the Scapular from a priest, with the proper rite of blessing and imposition. And one should be wearing it at the moment of death (the scapular should be made out of woven wool and should be used around the neck).

But there is still a second promise attached to the Brown Scapular: on March 3, 1322, Pope John XXII issued a document in which he writes that the Blessed Mother appeared to him and said that She would descend from Heaven to Purgatory in order to deliver from there the souls of those who died wearing the Scapular, on the Saturday after their death. This is what we call the "Sabbatine Privilege", which means, the privilege of Saturday, which is a day dedicated to Our Lady in a special way.

But in order to benefit from this promise to be delivered from Purgatory the first Saturday after death, besides wearing the Scapular, one should observe chastity according to one's state in life, and also recite the little office of the Blessed Virgin Mary, or abstain from meat on Wednesdays (it is important to know that this last condition — the recitation of the little Office or abstinence from meat on Wednesdays — can be replaced with another pious work, with the permission of one's confessor).

So the one who wears piously the Scapular will not only be delivered from hell but also from the flames of Purgatory. These are the two great promises of the Scapular. These promises presuppose we live in the grace of God, of course. If someone is in state of sin, we can hope for his conversion through the intercession of Our Blessed Mother.

The Scapular is not a superstition, but a sacramental approved by the Church. It is a sign of salvation which the Mother of the Savior has obtained for us. Why would we not wear this little sign that can call upon us so many graces? The Scapular is a sign of the love of Our Lady towards us, and wearing it is a sign of our love towards Her.

So let us observe the necessary conditions in order to receive what Our Lady has promised, so we may go to heaven, where She will show us the blessed fruit of Her womb, Our Lord Jesus Christ.
