

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING
SOVEREIGN PRIEST
St. Mary's Oratory

EIGHTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Introit: Psalm 47: 10, 11. We have received Thy mercy, O God, in the midst of Thy temple; according to Thy name, O God, so also is Thy praise unto the ends of the earth: Thy right hand is full of justice. Ps. 47: 2. Great is the Lord and exceedingly to be praised, in the city of our God, in His holy mountain. Glory be. We have received Thy mercy.

Collect: Ever graciously bestow upon us in abundance, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the spirit of thinking and doing what things are right, that we, who cannot exist without Thee, may have the strength to live in conformity with Thee. Through our Lord.

Epistle: Romans 8: 12-17. Brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh; for if you live according to the flesh, you shall die, but if by the spirit you mortify the deeds of the flesh, you shall live. For whosoever are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For you have not received the spirit of bondage again in fear, but you have received the spirit of adoption of sons, whereby we cry Abba (Father). For the Spirit Himself giveth testimony to our spirit, that we are the sons of God; and if sons, heirs, also; heirs indeed of God, and joint heirs with Christ.

Gradual: Psalm 30: 3. Be Thou unto me a God, a protector, and a place of refuge, to save me. Ps. 70: 1. In Thee, O God, have I hoped: O Lord, let me never be confounded. Alleluia, alleluia. Ps. 47: 2. Great is the Lord, and exceedingly to be praised; in the city of our God, in His holy mountain. Alleluia.

Gospel: St. Luke 16: 1-9. At that time, Jesus spoke to His disciples this parable: There was a certain rich man who had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods; and he called him, and said to him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship, for now thou canst be steward no longer. And the steward said within himself, What shall I do, because my lord taketh away from me the stewardship? To dig I am not able: to beg I am ashamed. I know what I will do, that when I shall be put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. Therefore calling together every one of his lord's debtors, he said to the first, How much dost thou owe my lord? But he said, A hundred barrels of oil. And he said to him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty. Then he said to another, And how much dost thou owe? Who said, A hundred quarters of wheat. He said to him, Take thy bill, and write eighty. And the lord commended the unjust steward, for as much as he had done wisely; for the children of this world are wiser in their generation than the children of light. And I say to you, Make unto you friends of the mammon of iniquity, that when you shall fail, they may receive you into everlasting dwellings.

Offertory: Ps. 17: 28, 32. Thou wilt save the humble people, O Lord, and wilt bring down the eyes of the proud; for Who is God but Thee, O Lord?

Secret: Receive, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the gifts which out of Thine own bounty we bring to Thee, that these most holy mysteries may, by the operation of the power of Thy grace, both sanctify us in the conduct of our present lives and lead us unto everlasting joys. Through our Lord.

Communion: Psalm 33: 9. Taste and see that the Lord is sweet: blessed is the man that hopeth in Him.

Postcommunion: Let the heavenly mystery be to us, O Lord, the restoration of soul and body, that, as we perform its worship, we may experience its effect. Through our Lord.

We welcome you today to St. Mary's Oratory!

If this is your first time here, we look forward to meeting you. During the summer, weather permitting, we meet at Oak Island Park after the 10:30 am High Mass. Please join us.

Holy Mass here is celebrated in the traditional Latin Rite. This was the form of worship in use in the Western world from antiquity until 1970. If you are unfamiliar with the traditional Latin Mass, do not hesitate to approach the priests with any questions you may have.

All practicing Catholics in the state of grace are invited to approach the altar rail for Holy Communion. In the traditional Roman Rite, Holy Communion is received kneeling (unless you are impaired from doing so) and on the tongue. The mouth should be open with the tongue slightly extended. You do not look at the priest and you do not say Amen.

The baptistery in the back of the church functions as a crying room during the Mass. Please feel free to make use of it when you have a crying child by exiting quietly down one of the side aisles.

If you are not Catholic, we invite you to learn about our faith. The Church was founded over 2000 years ago by Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. If you are interested in becoming Catholic or learning more about the Catholic faith, please do not hesitate to contact us. The priests of the Oratory offer individual instruction. We look forward to hearing from you.

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

All people of good will are welcome in the Holy Catholic Church, the Church founded by Jesus Christ 2000 years ago which offers the splendor of truth to a world darkened by sin.

The Canons of the Oratory offer personal instruction to anyone who would like to prepare to enter the Church and receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist.

If you are interested in becoming Catholic or would like to learn more about the claims of the Church, please contact the Oratory office at 715-842-9995.

Proper Attire in Church

Now that the warm summer weather is here, we kindly remind you about the importance of coming to church decently attired.

Although it can be tempting to dress with comfort primarily in mind, out of respect for God's house and out of consideration for the dignity of the human person, it is important to dress with modesty and decorum.

Revealing or tight-fitting clothing does not meet the norms for Christian modesty, especially in church. Gentlemen are kindly asked not to wear shorts. No exposed backs or shoulders. Ladies and girls should wear skirts and dresses falling at least below the knee and are encouraged to have their heads covered, in keeping with apostolic tradition.

Tattoos, which are by no means encouraged, should always be covered.
