

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING
SOVEREIGN PRIEST
St. Mary's Oratory

SUNDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF CORPUS CHRISTI
(2ND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST)

Introit: Ps. 17, 19, 20. The Lord became my protector, and He brought me forth into a large place: He saved me, because He was well pleased with me. Ps. 17, 2, 3. I will love Thee, O Lord my strength: the Lord is my firmament, and my refuge, and my deliverer. V. Glory.

Collect: Grant us, O Lord, an abiding fear and love of Thy holy name; for Thou never failest to govern those whom Thou dost firmly establish in Thy love. Through our Lord.

Epistle: 1 John 3, 13-18. Dearly beloved, Wonder not if the world hate you. We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not, abideth in death. Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and you know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in himself. In this we have known the charity of God, because He hath laid down His life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. He that hath the substance of this world, and shall see his brother in need, and shut up his bowels from him, how doth the charity of God abide in him? My little children, let us not love in word nor in tongue, but in deed and in truth.

Gradual: Ps. 119, 1, 2. In my trouble I cried to the Lord, and He heard me. V. O Lord, deliver my soul from wicked lips and a deceitful tongue. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 7, 2. O Lord my God, in Thee have I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me. Alleluia.

Gospel: Luke 14, 16-24. At that time, Jesus spoke to the pharisees this parable: A certain man made a great supper, and invited many. And he sent his servant, at the hour of supper, to say to them that were invited, that they should come, for now all things are ready. And they began all at once to make excuse. The first said to him, I have bought a farm, and must needs go out, and see it; I pray thee to hold me excused. And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to try them; I pray thee hold me excused. And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. And the servant returning, told these things to his lord. Then the master of the house being angry, said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the feeble and the blind, and the lame. And the servant said, Lord, it is done as Thou hast commanded, and yet there is room. And the lord said to the servant go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. But I say unto you, that none of these men that were invited shall taste of my supper.

Offertory: Ps. 6, 5. Turn to me, O Lord, and deliver my soul, O save me for Thy mercy's sake.

Secret: Let the oblation about to be offered to Thy holy name, O Lord, purify us and day by day change us to the living of the heavenly life. Through our Lord.

Communion: Ps. 12. I will sing to the Lord, Who giveth me good things: and I will sing to the name of the Lord the most high.

Postcommunion: Having received Thy sacred gifts, we pray, O Lord, that, as we now frequently assist at this mystery so may it cause to increase the grace of our salvation. Through our Lord.

Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Proper Attire in Church

Now that the warm summer weather is here, just a friendly reminder about the importance of coming to church decently attired.

Although it can be tempting to dress with comfort primarily in mind, out of respect for God's house and out of consideration for the dignity of the human person, it is important to dress with modesty and decorum. Revealing or tight-fitting clothing does not meet the norms for Christian modesty, especially in church.

Gentlemen are kindly asked not to wear shorts. Ladies and girls should wear skirts and dresses falling at least below the knee (no exposed backs or shoulders) and are encouraged to have their heads covered, in keeping with apostolic tradition.

A Word of thanks to our Ushers

St. Mary's Oratory is truly a better place for all of us thanks to the generous efforts of our ushers. The men who have served in this role for many years have our heartfelt gratitude. As we thank them for their years of dedication, we are also grateful for the blessings that have come from the new and expanded role of safety usher. By engaging newcomers at the door, our ushers make all feel welcome while ensuring that any potentially dangerous situations are handled immediately.

The ushers have interacted with quite a number of people from the warming center across the street run by Catholic Charities. This is true missionary work which has already led to several conversions. Some of our ushers have continued this work by volunteering at the warming center, and they would like to invite more people from St. Mary's to be involved. Possibly ways to help include:

- ◆ Cooking and/or serving a meal for about 30 people
- ◆ Staffing the intake process for persons arriving each night
- ◆ Praying for and with the people staying at the warming center and speaking to them about the Catholic faith
- ◆ Distributing religious books and items

If you would like to volunteer, would like more information, or have any questions or concerns, please contact Jeff Hancock at jhancock@cclse.org or 715-301-3339.

Be sure to sign your children and teens up for the Institute's Summer Camps!

Through edifying activities and games, daily Mass and prayer, and spiritual talks, campers grow in virtue, fellowship, and deeper love and understanding of their Catholic faith.
