SUNDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF THE SACRED HEART
(THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST)

Introit: Ps. 24, 16, 18. Look Thou upon me, O Lord, and have mercy on me; for I am alone and poor. See my abjection and my labor; and forgive me all my sins, O my God. Ps. 24, 1, 2. To Thee, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul: in Thee, my God, I put my trust; let me not be ashamed. V. Glory.

Collect: O God, the protector of all who hope in Thee, without Whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy, multiply Thy mercy upon us, that, with Thee for our ruler and leader, we may so pass through the good things of this life as not to lose those which are eternal. Through our Lord.

Epistle: 1 Peter 5, 6-11. Dearly beloved, Be you humbled under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in the time of visitation: casting all your care upon Him, for He hath care of you. Be sober and watch, because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, goeth about seeking whom he may devour. Whom resist ye, strong in faith; knowing that the same affliction befalls your brethren who are in the world. But the God of all grace, Who hath called us unto His eternal glory in Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a little, will Himself perfect you, and confirm you, and establish you. To Him be glory and empire for ever and ever. Amen.

Gradual: Ps. 54, 23, 17, 19. Cast thy care upon the Lord and He shall sustain thee. V. When I cried to the Lord He heard my voice, from them that draw near to me. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 7, 12. God is a just judge, strong and patient; is He angry every day? Alleluia.

Gospel: Luke 15, 1-10. At that time, the publicans and sinners drew near unto Jesus to hear Him: and the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners and eateth with them. And He spoke to them this parable, saying, What man is there of you that hath a hundred sheep, and if he shall lose one of them, doth he not leave the ninety-nine in the desert, and go after that which was lost, until he find it? And when he hath found it, lay it upon his shoulders rejoicing, and coming home, call together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, Rejoice with me, because I have found my sheep that was lost? I say to you, that even so there shall be joy in heaven upon one sinner that doth penance, more than upon ninety-nine just who need not penance. Or what woman having ten groats, if she lose one groat, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently until she find it? And when she hath found it, call together her friends and neighbors, saying, Rejoice with me, because I have found the groat which I had lost? So I say to you, there shall be joy before the angels of God upon one sinner doing penance.

Offertory: Ps. 9, 11, 12, 13. Let them trust in Thee who know Thy name. O Lord: for Thou hast not forsaken them that seek Thee: sing ye to the Lord, Who dwelleth in Sion: for He hath not forgotten the cry of the poor.

Secret: Look upon the offerings of Thy suppliant Church, we beseech Thee, O Lord, and grant that, by Thy continual sanctification, they may conduce to the salvation of those who partake of them with faith. Through our Lord.

Communion: Luke 15, 10. I say to you: there is joy before the angels of God upon one sinner doing penance.

Postcommunion: May Thy holy things which we have received, O Lord, fill us with life, and prepare for Thine everlasting mercies those whom Thou hast purified.

FATHERS' DAY CARNATIONS

All human fatherhood takes its name from the God and Father of Our Lord Jesus Christ (Eph. 3:15). Honor the fathers in your life by giving them a small symbol of courage, love, and decency. White carnations will be available TODAY on the north side of the church.

A $2 donation is appreciated.

Proceeds go toward St. Mary's Family in Need Fund.

A Hearty Congratulations to Mr. & Mrs. Riley Lemke

joined in Holy Matrimony on Saturday, June 17 at St. Mary's Oratory.

May the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob be with you, and may He fulfil His blessing in you: that you may see your children's children even unto the third and fourth generation, and thereafter may you have life everlasting, by the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ:

Who with the Father and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth, God for ever and ever. Amen.
(final blessing in the Roman Nuptial Mass)

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

All people of good will are welcome in the Holy Catholic Church, the Church founded by Jesus Christ 2000 years ago which offers the splendor of truth to a world darkened by sin.

The Canons of the Oratory offer personal instruction to anyone who would like to prepare to enter the Church and receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist.

If you are interested in becoming Catholic or would like to learn more about the claims of the Church, please contact the Oratory office at 715-842-9995. We look forward to hearing from you.

Please help keep St. Mary's clean

St. Mary's does not have a cleaning staff. We are grateful to the few volunteers who generously dedicate their time to keeping God's house at its best. Please consider joining them by signing up on the sheet provided in Scholz Hall.

Join us for the Third Annual March for Life Wisconsin this Dobbs Day - June 24, 2023, as we commemorate the historic Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization ruling which overturned Roe v. Wade.

The lives of over 62 million preborn children lost to abortion will not and cannot be forgotten. We must not relent until the violence of abortion is eradicated.

Register by Monday, June 12, to participate in the largest gathering of pro-lifers in our state!

Proper Attire in Church

Now that the warm summer weather is here, just a friendly reminder about the importance of coming to church decently attired.

Although it can be tempting to dress with comfort primarily in mind, out of respect for God's house and out of consideration for the dignity of the human person, it is important to dress with modesty and decorum. Revealing or tight-fitting clothing does not meet the norms for Christian modesty, especially in church.

Gentlemen are kindly asked not to wear shorts. Ladies and girls should wear skirts and dresses falling at least below the knee (no exposed backs or shoulders) and are encouraged to have their heads covered, in keeping with apostolic tradition.

A Word of thanks to our Ushers

St. Mary's Oratory is truly a better place for all of us thanks to the generous efforts of our ushers. The men who have served in this role for many years have our heartfelt gratitude. As we thank them for their years of dedication, we are also grateful for the blessings that have come from the new and expanded role of safety usher. By engaging newcomers at the door, our ushers make all feel welcome while ensuring that any potentially dangerous situations are handled immediately.

The ushers have interacted with quite a number of people from the warming center across the street run by Catholic Charities. This is true missionary work which has already led to several conversions. Some of our ushers have continued this work by volunteering at the warming center, and they would like to invite more people from St. Mary's to be involved. Possibly ways to help include:

- ◆ Cooking and/or serving a meal for about 30 people
- ◆ Staffing the intake process for persons arriving each night
- ◆ Praying for and with the people staying at the warming center and speaking to them about the Catholic faith
- ◆ Distributing religious books and items

If you would like to volunteer, would like more information, or have any questions or concerns, please contact Jeff Hancock at jhancock@cclse.org or 715-301-3339.

Be sure to sign your children and teens up for the Institute's Summer Camps!

Nearly 500 youth from across the United States enjoy a week of pure fun and Catholic faith formation each summer at our beautiful campsites in Wisconsin. Through edifying activities and games, daily Mass and prayer, and spiritual talks, campers grow in virtue, fellowship, and deeper love and understanding of their Catholic faith.
