- Merry Christmas -

Dear Faithful,

On behalf of Canon Talarico, Canon Hoogerwerf, Canon Le, Abbe Raymond and the candidates, I wish you all a very Merry and Blessed Christmas and Happy and Holy New Year in 2022! I hope that you are able to spend time this Christmas with your family, full of the joy and fraternal love that Our Savior became Man to bring to us.

We are very grateful to you all for the many signs of your affection that we have received this Christmas: prayers, cards, delicious treats, and other gifts. It is our joy to serve your souls and to be the unworthy instruments of God's grace in your lives. Be assured of our gratitude and prayers in this joyful Christmas season and New Year!

Rev. Canon Luke Zignego

A GREAT SUCCESS...

Christmas Giveaway

Thank you to everyone who contributed to our Advent Giving Tree. We were able to donate 150 packages of warm clothing, 50 hams for Christmas dinner, and hot chocolate to Woodlawn community members. We are still accepting donations to help raise the final funds needed to cover these items!

It was wonderful to work alongside our neighbors to ensure a very Merry Christmas. Your donations were very much appreciated! A very special thank you to Mrs. Kasey Rose and her family, who spearheaded and organized this event. Thank you to Mrs. Raciunas who kindly drove to stores to pick up food and then helped with the distribution.

Thank you to all the children in our Co-Op group who wrapped and decorated the packages. The Candidates who assisted in distribution.

Thank you very much for your generosity and remember what the Infant King has said, "The more you honor me, the more I will bless you!"

Rev. Canon Luke Zignego
Vice Rector
